It has come to my attention that North Kesteven District Council have their own peculiar way of permitting street trading. In essence they first "Prohibit Streets" under the provisions of the LG M P Act then require traders to apply for Planning Permission under the T&C Planning Act.

This I think needs to be looked at and reformed under this amendment as it cannot be considered as equitable, non-discriminatory or open to all as required by the directive

Keith Baker

[redacted]