Hello [redacted]

I just wanted to respond to give you my personal thanks for your [redacted] of this difficult, complex process - especially over the past year.

Your dedication to ensuring the communal efforts of the LAG are held to the highest standards is clear to me, and I believe this approach will result in the thorough, objective and un-politicised outputs the LAG was set-up to deliver.

The fact that Defra has been able to retain our position as detached, independent observers is primarily down to [redacted], in what I can plainly see has been some stormy conditions! I certainly appreciate the fortitude and clear-mindedness you have exemplified; as you have noted on several occasions, while group members may represent various organisations which have historically not shared much common ground, they share one purpose while sitting on the LAG.

For your info - I am on leave the rest of this week, but will otherwise be working for most of the working days around Christmas and New Year. I am then taking 2 weeks off in January, and will be back from 19th Jan.

If we don't speak before, then have a happy Christmas and New Year!

Warmest regards
[redacted]
