Hi [redacted]

Thanks for pointing this out.

I've just added all the figures up and come up with 3613 people on the beach and 859 in the water, so slightly different to you, but still rather different to what went out in the consultation. Our figures were based on the EA's survey summary document, which appears to contain some errors, which we did not realise until now.

My workings are in the attached spreadsheet for info.

EA are looking into this now and we will have a correction up on the website by tomorrow.

Cc'd to [redacted] and [redacted] for information.

Elaine

Hello [redacted]

Here are the raw data on Walpole Bay and a map showing the zones the beach was divided into for the counts of bathers. The data relate to zones C to M, because A and B are really part of the neighbouring beach (Fulsam Rock). The Thanet Council consultation also includes detailed information:

I'm cc'ing this to [redacted] and [redacted] as you may also find it useful.

Regards,

Kate
