DCMS Call for Views GDPR

1 message

Dear Sirs,

The University of Birmingham wishes to feed into the Call for Views process.

We have seen the response submitted by Universities UK and wish to endorse that response.

In addition, we wish to add an additional comment in relation to Theme 5, namely that the safeguards should recognise that research projects, particularly clinical research projects involving longitudinal studies or analytical informatics, may require the amalgamation of large datasets, for example of patient information, from different sources. It is important that such data can be shared, based on a condition for processing other than consent, to further ground-breaking clinical research in the public interest.

Yours faithfully,
