South West Headteacher board

We have listed three projects on the North-west London and South-central England (NWLSC) headteacher board meeting on 11 August 2021 (details of these projects are included below and can be seen on the NWLSC draft meeting agenda: 11 August 2021).

The rationale for this is that we do not have a South West headteacher board meeting in August and these projects need urgent decisions. We are publishing the details on the South West headteacher board page to raise awareness that these decisions are being taken, and allow for representations to be made.
