This instruction was updated to accurately reflect the expectations regarding assessment and planning for CRCs and NPS in line with contractual requirements and National Standards, and to clarify the position with regard to responsibilities for sentence planning in custody. In a change to the instruction from 2012, responsibility for assessment and planning for the custodial phase of the sentence for Prolific and Priority Offenders who are not assessed as posing a high risk of serious harm will fall to prison staff. Previously, these were the responsibility of Probation Trusts.

This revised PI takes account of the impact of TRP and recognises that the current procedures continue to provide a framework for the review of practice in incidents of Serious Further Offences. The revisions to the PI take the opportunity to provide updates in terms of the impact of the Offender Rehabilitation Act 2014 and highlights the use, by prisons, of these procedures for incidents of SFOs on Release on Temporary Licence, as set out in PSI xx/2015 Release on Temporary Licence (yet to be published). Additional annexes relevant to the prison procedures are now also included in this PI.
