Declaration

I declare that:

- the diesel entered on this form was received in Northern Ireland – this will be used for non-propulsion purposes in a private pleasure craft equipped with a single fuel tank
- the diesel purchased will only be used as a fuel for the above craft while it is being used as a private pleasure craft and will not be used for any other purpose or relanded anywhere in the UK without HM Revenue and Customs agreement
- 40% of the delivered diesel has been reduced in price as allowed by law and the amount of duty to be claimed as a repayment is clearly shown on the fuel supplier's invoice

What to do next

You should give this declaration to the fuel supplier.

The fuel supplier should keep this declaration as evidence that their claim for relief on discounted diesel is valid.
