Note for Western Australia: For greater certainty, consistent with paragraph 11 of Article 16.8 (Qualification of Suppliers), in relation to procurements from the Department of Finance, Building Management and Works' Prequalification Scheme; and Main Road's National Prequalification System for Civil (Road and Bridge) Construction Contracts Scheme, requests for participation in a procurement from suppliers not already prequalified at the time of tender release will not be considered due to the time and complexity involved in assessing requests. This does not preclude suppliers from applying at any time to become prequalified. Prequalification ensures the financial security of building and construction contractors and does not discriminate between local suppliers and the suppliers of the other Party.

Note to Section B:

1. Chapter 16 (Government Procurement) only covers those entities listed in this Section.

Section C – All Other Entities

Thresholds:

Unless otherwise specified, Chapter 16 (Government Procurement) covers procurement by entities listed in this Section, subject to the following thresholds:

Section F – Construction Services

Chapter 16 (Government Procurement) applies to procurement of all construction services in Division 51 of the Provisional Central Product Classification (CPC Prov.) and the Services Sectoral Classification List published by the WTO (WTO document MTN.GNS/W/120), procured by the entities listed in Sections A, B and C, unless otherwise specified in Chapter 16 (Government Procurement), including in this Schedule.

Section G – General Notes

The following General Notes apply without exception to Chapter 16 (Government Procurement), including all Sections of this Schedule.

1. Chapter 16 (Government Procurement) does not apply to:
 - (a) any form of preference to benefit small and medium enterprises;
 - (b) measures to protect national treasures of artistic, historic, or archaeological value;
 - (c) measures for the health and welfare of Indigenous people;
 - (d) measures for the economic and social advancement of Indigenous people; and
 - (e) procurement of goods and services outside the territory of the procuring Party for consumption outside the territory of the procuring Party.

2. For greater certainty:
 - (a) Chapter 16 (Government Procurement) does not apply to procurement funded by grants and sponsorship payments received from persons not listed in Section A, B and C;
 - (b) Chapter 16 (Government Procurement) does not apply to procurement by a procuring entity from another government entity; and
 - (c) a procuring entity may use limited tendering procedures for unsolicited innovative proposals under paragraph 1 of Article 16.12 (Limited Tendering).

Section H – Threshold Adjustment Formula

1. The thresholds shall be adjusted in every even-numbered year with each adjustment taking effect on 1 January, beginning on 1 January of the first even numbered year after the date of entry into force of this Agreement for Australia.
2. Every two years, Australia shall calculate and convert the value of the thresholds under Chapter 16 (Government Procurement) expressed in Australian dollars. These calculations shall be based on the conversion rates published by the International Monetary Fund in its monthly International Financial Statistics.
3. The conversion rates shall be the average of the daily values of the Australian dollar in terms of the Special Drawing Rights (SDR) over the two-year period preceding 1 October or 1 November of the year before the adjusted thresholds are to take effect, and rounded to the nearest thousand Australian dollars.
4. Australia shall notify the United Kingdom of the current thresholds in its currency immediately after this Agreement enters into force, and the adjusted thresholds in its currency thereafter in a timely manner.
5. Australia shall consult if a major change in its national currency relative to the SDR or to the national currency of the United Kingdom were to create a significant problem with regard to the application of Chapter 16 (Government Procurement).

Section I – Procurement Information

All information required by Article 16.5 (Information on the Procurement System) is published in Appendices II and III of the Agreement on Government Procurement, as amended by the Protocol Amending the Agreement on Government Procurement, in Annex 4 to the WTO Agreement. These are accessible via the WTO Integrated Government Procurement Market Access Information (e-GPA) Portal, as follows:

- (a) Appendix II – laws, regulations, judicial decisions, administrative rulings, contract clauses, and procedures regarding covered government procurement.
- (b) Appendix III – procurement notices, multi-use lists of suppliers, and award information.
