Section 5

The grounds on which you are applying for bail

- In this section you should set out all the reasons why you think you should be released.
- If you have had a previous application for bail refused, you must give full details of any additional grounds or change in circumstances since then.
- If that refusal was within the last 28 days, the application you are now making will be dismissed without an oral hearing unless you can show that there has been a material change of circumstances.
- Give as much detail as possible: use additional sheets of paper if you need to, and attach them to this form.
- If you are currently detained in England and Wales and are subject to deportation proceedings the Home Office will be required to electronically monitor you as part of your bail conditions. The Home Office will use a GPS tag fitted to your ankle to do this. Decisions about whether it is appropriate to do this will be made by the Home Office not the First-tier Tribunal.
If you feel there are reasons why you should not be required to wear a tag you should also state these reasons in the box below to allow the Home Office to consider the matter before your bail hearing.

If the Tribunal grants bail it may Direct that future management of bail should be transferred to the Home Office. Where the Tribunal makes that Direction, all future proceedings will be conducted by the Home Office (including any hearing to determine liability for payment of a financial condition).

Do you consent to future management of bail being Transferred to the Home Office?

No  Yes

If No please briefly explain why here?
