Check the details you have provided carefully and pay as soon as possible so that any issues regarding payment can be resolved before the expiry of any deadlines in your case.

If you cannot afford the tribunal fee

You may not have to pay a fee, or you may get some money off it if you only have a small amount of savings and investments, receive certain benefits or are on a low income. You can apply for help with court and tribunal fees online at www.gov.uk/help-with-court-fees or through the 'EX160 Apply for help with fees' form and 'EX160A – How to apply for help with fees' guidance.

Prepayment – This can be via a bank transfer, please contact the Upper Tribunal's regional office for details.

Card payments - this can be taken over the phone if your case is in Birmingham, Manchester, Leeds or Cardiff.

By post or DX – cheque, banker's draft or postal order.

In person – cash, credit/debit card or one of the ways listed above.

Fee account – a way for solicitors, local authorities and other regular users to make payments relating to civil and family cases.

What to do next and where to send this form

1. Email this form and supporting documents to the Upper Tribunal's regional office already dealing with the case (contact centre details are provided below).
2. If you email the application and it comprises a large number of pages, the tribunal may request that the attachments are also provided in hard copy.
3. This application has no effect until this form has been submitted to the tribunal, with the appropriate arrangements for payment and it has been sealed (stamped) by the tribunal.
4. You may contact the tribunal by email (using the email address provided for the contact centre below) to enquire if the application/form has been sealed (stamped).
5. Once you have received a sealed (stamped) copy, you must also immediately provide the same to all other parties, together with any supporting documents and draft order(s).
