Use this form if you are applying on or after 29 January 2025.

The Home Office will use the personal information you provide to consider your application. We may also share your information with other public and private sector organisations in the UK and overseas. For more detail please see the Privacy Notice for the Border, Immigration and Citizenship system at www.gov.uk/government/publications/personal-information-use-in-borders-immigration-and-citizenship. Application for registration as a British citizen

Before completing this form, you should read the Guide ARD (www.gov.uk/government/publications/application-for-registration-as-a-british-citizen-form-ard). Fill in those parts of the form that apply to your application. If there is not enough space for your answer, use page 22 to provide additional information.

If you want help to complete your application form, you may wish to contact a competent adviser, for example, a solicitor or immigration adviser registered with the Immigration Advice Authority (IAA) (see Guide ARD which accompanies this form for details).

We recommend that you keep a completed copy of this application.

Ensure that you read the Guide ARD and that you understand the criteria for registration before submitting your application. Fees cannot be returned for applications that fail.

Write in block capitals using black ink. Please enter all dates as dd/mm/yyyy, for example 21/05/2024.

Each individual applying for registration must complete a separate application form. Therefore husbands, wives and civil partners wishing to register, must complete separate forms. Family applications should include separate forms for each child.

Before making your application, you may wish to check whether you are eligible to apply for citizenship under the Windrush Scheme. If you are covered by the scheme, you should not apply for British citizenship on this form. For more information, and to access the Windrush Scheme application form, see:

3. Good character requirement

Guide ARD explains when the Home Secretary may take into account whether you are of good character when considering an application for citizenship. If you believe you are in one of the categories where good character will not be considered, you do not need to complete this section. If we later determine that your application is one where good character would normally be considered, we will then request this information from you. Checks may be made with the police and other Government Departments and agencies.

Personal history

This section asks about any criminal convictions, any civil judgements or civil penalties made against you and details of any involvement you may have had in war crimes, genocide, crimes against humanity or terrorism, as well as any other behaviours which may mean you are not of good character. If you fail to answer all of these questions as fully and accurately as possible, your application may be refused.
