

Sellafield Ltd

WANT TO KNOW MORE ABOUT OUR SME FORUM?

The SME Forum was established by Sellafield Ltd Supply Chain Development Team to facilitate consistent engagement and open communication with the SME community.

Through these forums we aim to encourage the constructive dialogue using a collaborative platform to identify and promote opportunities for mutual learnings, improvements and development, knowledge and best practices, innovation, market trends, areas of common interest.

Meetings currently take place on a quarterly basis, both in West Cumbria and Warrington (schedule and location announced in advance via the Sellafield Bulletin and email communications).

The Forum runs under Sellafield's Supply Chain Development and SRM Teams, with Category Manager's support and contribution. Depending on the matters raised during the sessions, Sellafield's subject matter experts join to provide first-hand and accurate information, as well as prime contractor for networking purposes.

To qualify for this forum you must meet the strict EU definition for a SME.

SMEs are those companies that have less than 250 employees and an annual turnover of less than 50 million euros (approximately £45 million) or annual balance sheet not exceeding 43 million euros (approximately £38 million) and be a standalone entity that is not part of a wider corporate entity / group.

Link: SME definition \(europa.eu\)

Eligible SMEs can request to join at any time by emailing supply.chain.enquiries@sellafieldsites.com

SME FORUM OBJECTIVES:

- To effectively engage with the SME community encouraging and ensuring constructive communication
- To identify opportunities for improvement and development
- To facilitate interactions among Sellafield and SME's, stimulating business opportunities

For future dates take a look at our LinkedIn page or email the team.