Make provision to amend the Mental Health Act 1983 in relation to mentally disordered persons; and for connected purposes.

BE IT ENACTED by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

*Autism and learning disability1 Application of the 1983 Act: autism and learning disability

- (1) The Mental Health Act 1983 (“the 1983 Act”) is amended as follows.
- (2) Section 1 (application of Act: “mental disorder”) is amended in accordance with subsections (3) to (5).
- (3) In subsection (2), at the appropriate places insert—
 - ““autism” means a lifelong developmental disorder of the mind that affects how people perceive, communicate and interact with others;”;
 - ““learning disability” means a state of arrested or incomplete development of the mind which includes significant impairment of intelligence;”;
 - ““psychiatric disorder” means mental disorder other than autism or learning disability;”.
- (4) For subsections (2A) and (2B) substitute—

“(2A) For the purposes of this Act, a person’s learning disability has “serious behavioural consequences” if it is associated with abnormally aggressive or seriously irresponsible conduct by the person.”
- (5) Omit subsection (4).
- (6) In section 145 (interpretation of 1983 Act), in subsection (1), at the appropriate places insert—
 - ““autism” has the meaning given in section 1;”;
 - ““learning disability” has the meaning given in section 1;”;
 - ““psychiatric disorder” has the meaning given in section 1;”;
 - ““serious behavioural consequences”, in relation to a person’s learning disability, is to be read in accordance with section 1(2A);”.
- (7) Schedule 1 amends the 1983 Act to—

- (a) prevent people from being detained under section 3 of that Act (admission for treatment) on the basis of autism or learning disability, and
- (b) make related changes in relation to the application of that Act to autism and learning disability.

2 People with autism or learning disability

In the 1983 Act, after Part 8 insert—

“PART 8A

PEOPLE IN ENGLAND WITH AUTISM OR LEARNING DISABILITY

125A Children and young people with autism or learning disability: reviews

- (1) The responsible commissioner must make arrangements for ensuring that care, education and treatment review meetings take place in relation to a patient who—
 - (a) is liable to be detained under this Act in a hospital or registered establishment in England otherwise than—
 - (i) by virtue of an emergency application where the second medical recommendation referred to in section 4(4)(a) has not been given and received, or
 - (ii) by virtue of section 5(2) or (4), 135 or 136 or directions for detention in a place of safety under section 35(4), 36(3), 37(4), 38(4) or 45A(5),
 - (b) is considered by the responsible commissioner to have autism or a learning disability, and
 - (c) is either—
 - (i) aged under 18, or
 - (ii) aged 18 or over and is a person for whom a plan is maintained under section 37 of the Children and Families Act 2014 (education, health and care plans).
- (2) In this section “care, education and treatment review meeting” means a meeting, convened by the responsible commissioner, for the purpose of reviewing a patient’s case in order to—
 - (a) identify any needs of the patient for—
 - (i) social care provision,
 - (ii) special educational provision, or
 - (iii) medical treatment, and
 - (b) make recommendations about—
 - (i) whether and how any such needs can be met,
 - (ii) how the patient’s safety can be ensured while they are liable to be detained,

- (iii) the discharge of the patient from the hospital or registered establishment under section 23 (where that section applies in relation to the patient), and
 - (iv) how to reduce any risk of the patient being re-admitted to a hospital or registered establishment following discharge.
- (3) The arrangements under subsection (1) must include arrangements for—
 - (a) the preparation of a report (whether by the responsible commissioner or another person) setting out the needs identified, and recommendations made, at each meeting, and
 - (b) the provision of a copy of the report, within the period of 14 days beginning with the day on which a meeting takes place, to—
 - (i) the responsible commissioner (if the responsible commissioner did not prepare the report),
 - (ii) the patient’s responsible clinician, and
 - (iii) the appropriate integrated care board.
- (4) The arrangements under subsection (1) must include arrangements for ensuring that—
 - (a) the first meeting in relation to the patient takes place within the period of 14 days beginning with the applicable day, and
 - (b) a further meeting takes place at least once in each successive period of 12 months for which the patient remains liable to be detained under this Act, beginning with the day on which the first meeting takes place.
- (5) In subsection (4) “the applicable day” means—
 - (a) in relation to a patient who is liable to be detained by virtue of an emergency application—
 - (i) if, when the second medical recommendation referred to in section 4(4)(a) is received, the patient is considered by the relevant commissioner to have autism or a learning disability, the day on which that recommendation is received;
 - (ii) otherwise, the day on which the responsible commissioner forms the view that the patient has autism or a learning disability;
 - (b) in relation to any other patient—
 - (i) if, when the patient becomes liable to be detained as mentioned in subsection (1)(a), the patient is considered by the relevant commissioner to have autism or a learning disability, the day on which the patient becomes so liable;
 - (ii) otherwise, the day on which the responsible commissioner forms the view that the patient has autism or a learning disability.

125B Other people with autism or learning disability: reviews

- (1) The responsible commissioner must make arrangements for ensuring that care and treatment review meetings take place in relation to a patient who—
 - (a) is liable to be detained under this Act in a hospital or registered establishment in England otherwise than—
 - (i) by virtue of an emergency application where the second medical recommendation referred to in section 4(4)(a) has not been given and received, or
 - (ii) by virtue of section 5(2) or (4), 135 or 136 or directions for detention in a place of safety under section 35(4), 36(3), 37(4), 38(4) or 45A(5),
 - (b) is considered by the responsible commissioner to have autism or a learning disability, and
 - (c) is aged 18 or over and is not a person for whom a plan is maintained under section 37 of the Children and Families Act 2014 (education, health and care plans).
- (2) In this section “care and treatment review meeting” means a meeting, convened by the responsible commissioner, for the purpose of reviewing a patient’s case in order to—
 - (a) identify any needs of the patient for—
 - (i) social care provision, or
 - (ii) medical treatment, and
 - (b) make recommendations about—
 - (i) whether and how any such needs can be met,
 - (ii) how the patient’s safety can be ensured while they are liable to be detained,
 - (iii) the discharge of the patient from the hospital or registered establishment under section 23 (where that section applies in relation to the patient), and
 - (iv) how to reduce any risk of the patient being re-admitted to a hospital or registered establishment following discharge.
- (3) The arrangements under subsection (1) must include arrangements for—
 - (a) the preparation of a report (whether by the responsible commissioner or another person) setting out the needs identified, and recommendations made, at each meeting, and
 - (b) the provision of a copy of the report, within the period of 14 days beginning with the day on which a meeting takes place, to—
 - (i) the responsible commissioner (if the responsible commissioner did not prepare the report),
 - (ii) the patient’s responsible clinician, and
 - (iii) the appropriate integrated care board.

- (4) The arrangements under subsection (1) must include arrangements for ensuring that –
 - (a) the first meeting in relation to the patient takes place within the period of 28 days beginning with the applicable day, and
 - (b) a further meeting takes place at least once in each successive period of 12 months for which the patient remains liable to be detained under this Act, beginning with the day on which the first meeting takes place.
- (5) In subsection (4) “the applicable day” has the meaning given by section 125A(5).

125C Reviews: supplementary

In exercising functions in relation to a patient in respect of whom a review meeting has taken place under section 125A or 125B, the following must have regard to the recommendations set out in a report prepared in accordance with that section –

- (a) the patient’s responsible clinician;
- (b) the responsible commissioner;
- (c) the appropriate integrated care board.

125D Registers of people at risk of detention

- (1) Each integrated care board must, in accordance with this section, establish and maintain a register of people usually resident in its area who –
 - (a) the integrated care board considers –
 - (i) to have autism or a learning disability, and
 - (ii) to have risk factors for detention under Part 2 of this Act which are specified by the Secretary of State in regulations, and
 - (b) consent to the inclusion in the register and the use, in accordance with this section, of information about them.
- (2) The register must specify the local authority in whose area each person included in it usually resides.
- (3) The Secretary of State may by regulations make further provision about –
 - (a) the establishment and maintenance of a register;
 - (b) the information about a person that is to be included in a register;
 - (c) the obtaining by an integrated care board of –
 - (i) information for the purpose of determining whether subsection (1)(a) or (b) applies in relation to a person, or
 - (ii) information for inclusion in the register;

- (d) the disclosure by or to any person of information included in a register or obtained by virtue of paragraph (c).
- (4) In this section “risk factors for detention under this Act” means factors which the Secretary of State considers increase the probability of a person being detained under Part 2 of this Act.

125E Registers: duties relating to commissioning of services etc

- (1) An integrated care board must, in exercising its commissioning functions –
 - (a) have regard to the information included in its register under section 125D and any other information obtained by it by virtue of section 125D(3)(c), and
 - (b) seek to ensure that the needs of people with autism or a learning disability can be met without detaining them under Part 2 of this Act.
- (2) A local authority must, in exercising its market function –
 - (a) have regard to any information disclosed to it by virtue of section 125D(3)(d), and
 - (b) seek to ensure that the needs of people with autism or a learning disability can be met without detaining them under Part 2 of this Act.
- (3) In this section –
 - “commissioning functions”, in relation to an integrated care board, means functions of the board in arranging for the provision of services as part of the health service continued under section 1(1) of the National Health Service Act 2006;
 - “market function”, in relation to a local authority, means its function under section 5(1) of the Care Act 2014 (promoting diversity and quality in provision of services);
 - “partner local authority”, in relation to an integrated care board, means any local authority whose area coincides with, or includes the whole or any part of, the area of the integrated care board.

125F Guidance

- (1) The Secretary of State must publish guidance for the following about the exercise of their functions under this Part –
 - (a) responsible clinicians;
 - (b) responsible commissioners;
 - (c) integrated care boards;
 - (d) local authorities.
- (2) The persons referred to in subsection (1)(a) to (d) must have regard to guidance published under this section.

125G Interpretation of Part 8A

In this Part—

“appropriate integrated care board”, in relation to a patient, means an integrated care board with core responsibility (in accordance with section 14Z31 of the National Health Service Act 2006) for a group of people that includes the patient;

“local authority” means—

- (a) a county council in England,
- (b) a district council for an area in England for which there is no county council,
- (c) a London borough council,
- (d) the Common Council of the City of London, or
- (e) the Council of the Isles of Scilly;

“responsible clinician” has the same meaning as it has in Part 2 (see section 34(1));

“responsible commissioner”, in relation to a patient admitted to a hospital or registered establishment, means a body which—

- (a) in the exercise of functions of arranging for the provision of services as part of the health service continued under section 1(1) of the National Health Service Act 2006, or
- (b) in accordance with section 14Z50(2) of that Act, is liable to make payments in respect of the patient’s admission to the hospital or registered establishment;

“social care provision” has the same meaning as it has in Part 3 of the Children and Families Act 2014 (see section 21 of that Act);

“special educational provision” has the same meaning as it has in Part 3 of the Children and Families Act 2014 (see section 21 of that Act).”

Grounds for detention and community treatment orders

3 Grounds for detention

- (1) The 1983 Act is amended as follows.
- (2) In section 2 (admission for assessment), in subsection (2)—
 - (a) omit the “and” at the end of paragraph (a);
 - (b) for paragraph (b) substitute—
 - “(b) serious harm may be caused to the health or safety of the patient or of another person unless the patient is so detained; and
 - (c) given the nature, degree and likelihood of the harm, and how soon it would occur, the patient ought to be so detained.”

- (3) In section 3 (admission for treatment) –
- (a) in subsection (2), for paragraphs (c) and (d) substitute –
 - “(b) serious harm may be caused to the health or safety of the patient or of another person unless the patient receives medical treatment,
 - (c) it is necessary, given the nature, degree and likelihood of the harm, and how soon it would occur, for the patient to receive medical treatment,
 - (d) the necessary treatment cannot be provided unless the patient is detained under this Act, and
 - (e) appropriate medical treatment is available for the patient.”;
 - (b) in subsection (3) –
 - (i) in paragraph (a), for “(d)” substitute “(e)”;
 - (ii) in paragraph (b), for “(c)” substitute “(b) to (d)”.
- (4) In section 5(4) (detention for six hours pending application for admission), for paragraph (a) (but not the “and” at the end) substitute –
- “(a) that the patient is suffering from mental disorder to such a degree that serious harm may be caused to the health or safety of the patient or of another person unless the patient is immediately restrained from leaving the hospital;”.
- (5) In section 20 (renewal of authority for detention of patient detained in pursuance of application for admission for treatment etc), in subsection (4), for paragraphs (c) and (d) substitute –
- “(b) serious harm may be caused to the health or safety of the patient or of another person unless the patient receives medical treatment,
 - (c) it is necessary, given the nature, degree and likelihood of the harm, and how soon it would occur, for the patient to receive medical treatment,
 - (d) the necessary treatment cannot be provided unless the patient continues to be liable to be detained, and
 - (e) appropriate medical treatment is available for the patient.”
- (6) The amendment made by subsection (5), so far as relating to persons who are liable to be detained by virtue of Part 3 of the 1983 Act, applies in relation to such a person whether the person became so liable before or after the coming into force of this section.

4 Grounds for community treatment orders

- (1) The 1983 Act is amended as follows.
- (2) In section 17A (community treatment orders) –

- (a) in subsection (5), for paragraphs (b) to (e) substitute—
 - “(b) serious harm may be caused to the health or safety of the patient or of another person unless the patient receives medical treatment,
 - (c) it is necessary, given the nature, degree and likelihood of the harm, and how soon it would occur, for the patient to receive medical treatment,
 - (d) subject to the patient being liable to be recalled as mentioned in paragraph (e), the necessary treatment can be provided without the patient being detained in a hospital,
 - (e) it is necessary that the responsible clinician should be able to exercise the power under section 17E(1) to recall the patient to hospital, and
 - (f) appropriate medical treatment is available for the patient.”
- (b) in subsection (6), for “(5)(d)” substitute “(5)(e)”.
- (3) In section 20A (community treatment period)—
 - (a) in subsection (4)(b), for “conditions set out in subsection (6) below are satisfied” substitute “criteria in section 17A(5) are met”;
 - (b) omit subsection (6);
 - (c) for subsection (7) substitute—
 - “(7) Subsection (6) of section 17A applies for the purposes of subsection (4)(b) of this section as it applies for the purposes of subsection (4)(a) of that section.”;
 - (d) in subsection (8)(a), for “conditions set out in subsection (6) above are satisfied” substitute “criteria in section 17A(5) are met”.
- (4) The amendments made by subsection (2), so far as relating to persons who are liable to be detained by virtue of Part 3 of the 1983 Act, apply in relation to such a person whether the person became so liable before or after the coming into force of this section.
- (5) The amendments made by subsection (3), so far as relating to persons who are subject to community treatment orders (within the meaning given by section 17A of the 1983 Act) by virtue of Part 3 of that Act, apply in relation to such a person whether the person became subject to a community treatment order before or after the coming into force of this section.

5 Grounds for discharge by tribunal

- (1) The 1983 Act is amended as follows.
- (2) In section 72 (powers of tribunals)—
 - (a) in subsection (1)(a), for sub-paragraphs (i) and (ii) substitute “that the grounds in section 2(2) are made out;”;

- (b) in subsection (1)(b), for sub-paragraphs (i) to (iia) (but not the “or” at the end) substitute—
- “(i) that the conditions in section 20(4) are met;”;
- (c) in subsection (1)(c), for sub-paragraphs (i) to (iv) (but not the “or” at the end) substitute—
- “(i) that the criteria in section 17A(5) are met;”;
- (d) in subsection (1A), for “whether the criterion in subsection (1)(c)(iii) above” substitute “for the purposes of subsection (1)(c)(i) whether the criterion in section 17A(5)(e)”.
- (3) In section 73 (power to discharge restricted patients), in subsection (1)(a), for “as to the matters mentioned in paragraph (b)(i), (ii) or (iia) of section 72(1) above” substitute “that the conditions in section 20(4) are met”.
- (4) The amendments made by this section—
- (a) so far as relating to persons who are liable to be detained by virtue of Part 3 of the 1983 Act, apply in relation to such a person whether the person became so liable before or after the coming into force of this section;
- (b) so far as relating to persons who are subject to community treatment orders (within the meaning given by section 17A of the 1983 Act) by virtue of Part 3 of that Act, apply in relation to such a person whether the person became subject to a community treatment order before or after the coming into force of this section.

Appropriate medical treatment

6 Appropriate medical treatment: therapeutic benefit

- (1) The 1983 Act is amended as follows.
- (2) In Part 1—
- (a) for the Part heading substitute “Introductory”;
- (b) after section 1 insert—
- “1A “Appropriate medical treatment”
- In this Act—
- (a) references to appropriate medical treatment, in relation to a person suffering from mental disorder, are references to medical treatment which, taking into account the nature and degree of the disorder and all other circumstances—
- (i) has a reasonable prospect of alleviating, or preventing the worsening of, the disorder or one or more of its symptoms or manifestations, and
- (ii) is appropriate in the person’s case;
- (b) references to medical treatment, in relation to mental disorder, are references to medical treatment the purpose of which is to alleviate, or prevent a worsening of, the disorder or one or more of its symptoms or manifestations.”;

- (c) in section 3 (admission for treatment) omit subsection (4).
- (3) In section 57 (treatment requiring consent and a second opinion), in subsection (2)(b), for “it is appropriate for the treatment to be given” substitute “the treatment constitutes appropriate medical treatment”.
- (4) In section 58 (treatment requiring consent or a second opinion), in subsection (3)(b), for “it is appropriate for the treatment to be given” substitute “the treatment constitutes appropriate medical treatment”.
- (5) In section 58A (electro-convulsive therapy etc), in subsection (4)(c), for sub-paragraph (ii) substitute—
 - “(ii) that the treatment constitutes appropriate medical treatment.”
- (6) In section 62A (treatment on recall of community patient or revocation of order), in subsection (5)(a)—
 - (a) omit “it is appropriate for”;
 - (b) for “to be given to the patient” substitute “constitute appropriate medical treatment”.
- (7) In section 63 (treatment not requiring consent)—
 - (a) the existing text becomes subsection (1);
 - (b) in that subsection, after “patient”, insert “who is liable to be detained in pursuance of an application for admission for assessment”;
 - (c) after that subsection insert—
 - “(2) The consent of any other patient is not required for any medical treatment given to the patient for such disorder, not being a form of treatment to which section 57, 58 or 58A above applies, if—
 - (a) the treatment is given by or under the direction of the approved clinician in charge of the treatment, and
 - (b) the approved clinician in charge of the treatment considers that the treatment constitutes appropriate medical treatment.”.
- (8) In section 64 (supplementary provisions for Part 4) omit subsection (3).
- (9) In section 64C (section 64B: supplemental), in subsection (4)(a), for “it is appropriate for the treatment to be given or for the treatment to be” substitute “the treatment constitutes appropriate medical treatment or constitutes appropriate medical treatment if”.
- (10) In section 64K (interpretation of Part 4A), omit subsection (8).
- (11) In section 145 (interpretation)—
 - (a) in subsection (1)—

- (i) at the appropriate place insert –
 - ““appropriate medical treatment” is to be read in accordance with section 1A(a);”;
- (ii) in the definition of “medical treatment”, for “(but see also subsection (4) below)” substitute “; and references to medical treatment are to be read in accordance with section 1A(b)”;
- (b) omit subsection (1AB);
- (c) omit subsection (4).

7 Remission or release of prisoners etc from hospital: treatment condition

In the 1983 Act, in the following places, for “effective” substitute “appropriate medical” –

- section 50(1) (prisoners under sentence);
- section 51(3)(b) and (4)(b) (detained persons);
- section 52(5)(b) (persons remanded by magistrates’ courts);
- section 53(2)(b) (civil prisoners and persons detained under the Immigration Acts).

The responsible clinician

8 Nomination of the responsible clinician

- (1) The 1983 Act is amended as follows.
- (2) In section 34(1) (interpretation of Part 2) –
 - (a) at the appropriate place insert –
 - ““the relevant hospital” means –
 - (a) in relation to a patient who is liable to be detained in a hospital, that hospital;
 - (b) in relation to a community patient, the responsible hospital;”;
 - (b) in the definition of “the responsible clinician”, in paragraph (a), for “with” substitute “nominated by the managers of the relevant hospital to have”.
- (3) In the following places, after “would” insert “be nominated by the managers of the hospital to” –
 - section 36(3) (remand for treatment only if admission is arranged);
 - section 37(4) (hospital order to be made only if admission is arranged);
 - section 38(4) (interim hospital order to be made only if admission is arranged);
 - section 44(2) (evidence for admission to hospital by magistrates’ court);
 - section 45A(5) (hospital direction and limitation direction to be made only if admission is arranged).

- (4) In section 55(1) (interpretation of Part 3), in the definition of “responsible clinician”, for “with” substitute “nominated by the managers of the hospital to have”.
- (5) For section 64 (supplementary provisions for Part 4), for subsection (1) substitute—
 - “(1) In this Part—
 - “hospital” includes a registered establishment;
 - “responsible clinician” means the responsible clinician within the meaning of Part 2 (see section 34(1)).”
- (6) In section 134(1), in the words after paragraph (b), for “with” substitute “nominated by the managers of the hospital to have”.

Treatment

9 Making treatment decisions

- (1) The 1983 Act is amended as follows.
- (2) After section 56 insert—

“56A Making treatment decisions

- (1) In deciding whether to give medical treatment to a patient by virtue of this Part, the approved clinician in charge of the treatment must—
 - (a) identify and evaluate any alternative forms of medical treatment available for the patient;
 - (b) take such steps as are reasonably practicable to assist and encourage the patient to participate, as fully as possible, in the decision-making process;
 - (c) not rely merely on—
 - (i) the patient's age or appearance, or
 - (ii) a condition of the patient's, or an aspect of the patient's behaviour, which might lead others to make unjustified assumptions about what medical treatment might be appropriate for the patient;
 - (d) consider the patient's past and present wishes, feelings, beliefs and values, so far as it is reasonable to regard them as relevant and so far as they are reasonably ascertainable;
 - (e) consider the relevant views of the following, so far as they are reasonably ascertainable—
 - (i) anyone named by the patient as someone to be consulted on the decision in question, or decisions of that kind;
 - (ii) the patient's nominated person and any independent mental health advocate from whom the patient is receiving help by virtue of section 130A or 130E;
 - (iii) any donee or deputy for the patient;

- (iv) any other person who cares for the patient or is interested in the patient's welfare and whom the approved clinician considers it appropriate to consult;
 - (f) consider all other circumstances of which the approved clinician is aware and which it would be reasonable to regard as relevant.
 - (2) Where the patient lacks capacity in relation to matters that, in the opinion of the approved clinician, are relevant to the decision, the approved clinician must also consider any wishes, feelings, views and beliefs that the clinician thinks the patient would have in relation to those matters but for the lack of capacity.
 - (3) In subsection (1)(e), "relevant views" means—
 - (a) views about the nature of the patient's past and present wishes, feelings, beliefs and values,
 - (b) where the patient lacks capacity in relation to matters that, in the opinion of the approved clinician, are relevant to the decision, views about the nature of the wishes feelings, views and beliefs the patient would have in relation to those matters but for the lack of capacity, and
 - (c) views about whether the medical treatment should be given to the patient."
 - (3) In section 57 (treatment requiring consent and a second opinion), in subsection (2)(b), at the end insert " , and that the decision to give the treatment was made by the person in charge of the treatment in accordance with section 56A".
 - (4) In section 58 (treatment requiring consent or a second opinion)—
 - (a) in subsection (3)(a), at the end (but before the " ; or") insert " , and that the decision to give the treatment was made by the approved clinician in charge of the treatment in accordance with section 56A";
 - (b) in subsection (3)(b), at the end insert " , and that the decision to give the treatment was made by the approved clinician in charge of the treatment in accordance with section 56A".
 - (5) In section 58A (electro-convulsive therapy etc)—
 - (a) in subsection (3)(c), at the end insert " , and that the decision to give the treatment was made by the approved clinician in charge of the treatment in accordance with section 56A";
 - (b) in subsection (4)(c)—
 - (i) omit the "and" at the end of sub-paragraph (i);
 - (ii) at the end of sub-paragraph (ii) insert " ; and";
 - (iii) after sub-paragraph (ii) insert—
 - “(iii) that the decision to give the treatment was made by the approved clinician in charge of the treatment in accordance with section 56A.”

10 Appointment of doctors to provide second opinions

- (1) The 1983 Act is amended as follows.
- (2) After section 56A (inserted by section 9 of this Act) insert—

“56B Appointment of doctors to provide second opinions

 - (1) Where, in relation to a patient, a function under this Part is to be performed by a “second opinion appointed doctor” (whether because this Part requires it to be so performed or because a decision has been made under this Part that it will be so performed)—
 - (a) the relevant person must request that the regulatory authority appoint a person to perform the function in relation to the patient, and
 - (b) on receiving the request, the regulatory authority must, as soon as reasonably practicable (subject to section 62ZA(8)), appoint a person to perform the function in relation to the patient.
 - (2) The person appointed by the regulatory authority—
 - (a) must be a registered medical practitioner, and
 - (b) must not be the patient’s responsible clinician or the person in charge of the treatment that is to be given to the patient.
 - (3) In this section “the relevant person” means—
 - (a) if there is a responsible clinician for the patient, the responsible clinician;
 - (b) otherwise, the person in charge of the treatment that is to be given to the patient.”
- (3) In section 57 (treatment requiring consent and a second opinion)—
 - (a) in subsection (2)(a), for the words from the beginning to “question)” substitute “a second opinion appointed doctor”;
 - (b) in subsection (2)(b), for the words from the beginning to “above” substitute “the second opinion appointed doctor”;
 - (c) in subsection (3), for “the registered medical practitioner concerned” substitute “the second opinion appointed doctor”.
- (4) In section 58 (treatment requiring consent or a second opinion)—
 - (a) in subsection (3)(a), for the words from “a registered” to “authority” substitute “a second opinion appointed doctor”;
 - (b) in subsection (3)(b), for the words from the beginning to “question)” substitute “a second opinion appointed doctor”.
- (5) In section 58A (electro-convulsive therapy etc)—
 - (a) in subsection (3)(c), for the words from “a registered” to “above” substitute “a second opinion appointed doctor”;
 - (b) in subsection (4)(c), for the words from the beginning to “treatment)” substitute “a second opinion appointed doctor”;
 - (c) in subsection (6), in the words before paragraph (a), for “the registered medical practitioner” substitute “the second opinion appointed doctor”.

- (6) In section 64 (supplementary provisions for Part 4), in subsection (1) (as substituted by section 8 of this Act), at the appropriate place insert—
- ““second opinion appointed doctor” is to be read in accordance with section 56B”.
- (7) In section 64C (section 64B: supplemental)—
- (a) in subsection (4)(a), for the words from the beginning to “treatment” substitute “a second opinion appointed doctor”;
- (b) after subsection (9) insert—
- “(10) In this section “second opinion appointed doctor” has the same meaning as in Part 4 (see section 64).”
- (8) In section 119 (practitioners approved for Part 4 and section 118), in subsection (1), after “Act” insert “(see section 56B)”.

11 Medicine etc: treatment conflicting with a decision by or on behalf of a patient

- (1) The 1983 Act is amended as follows.
- (2) After section 57 insert—

“57A Treatment without consent requiring a second opinion and a compelling reason

- (1) This section applies to the forms of medical treatment for relevant disorder mentioned in subsection (2) where—
- (a) the patient has capacity to consent to the treatment but has not consented to it, or
- (b) the patient lacks capacity to consent to the treatment, and the giving of the treatment would conflict with—
- (i) a valid and applicable advance decision, or
- (ii) a decision of a donee or deputy or the Court of Protection.
- (2) The forms of medical treatment referred to in subsection (1) are—
- (a) such forms of treatment as may be specified in regulations made under section 58(1)(a);
- (b) the administration of medicine to a patient by any means (not being a form of treatment specified under section 57, section 58(1)(a) or section 58A(1)(b)) at any time during a period for which the patient is liable to be detained as a patient to whom this Part of this Act applies.
- (3) Where this section applies, and subject to section 62, a patient may not be given any of those forms of medical treatment unless there is a compelling reason to give treatment of that form and a second opinion appointed doctor has certified in writing—
- (a) that the treatment constitutes appropriate medical treatment,

- (b) that the decision to give the treatment was made by the approved clinician in charge of the treatment in accordance with section 56A, and
 - (c) that, in relation to the form of treatment and any alternative forms of appropriate medical treatment that are available for the patient's relevant disorder (taking each form of treatment separately) –
 - (i) the patient has capacity to consent but has not consented, or
 - (ii) the patient lacks capacity to consent and it appears to the second opinion appointed doctor that there is a decision mentioned in subsection (1)(b)(i) or (ii) which, if valid, would conflict with the giving of the treatment.
- (4) For the purposes of this section there is a “compelling reason” to give a form of medical treatment to a patient if –
- (a) alternative forms of appropriate medical treatment are available for the patient's relevant disorder but, in relation to each of those forms –
 - (i) the patient has not consented, or
 - (ii) the patient lacks capacity to consent and the giving of the treatment would conflict with a decision mentioned in subsection (1)(b)(i) or (ii), or
 - (b) no alternative forms of appropriate medical treatment are available for the patient's relevant disorder.
- (5) Before giving a certificate under subsection (3) the second opinion appointed doctor must consult two other persons who have been professionally concerned with the patient's medical treatment but, of those persons –
- (a) one must be a nurse and the other must be neither a nurse nor a registered medical practitioner, and
 - (b) neither may be the responsible clinician or the approved clinician in charge of the treatment in question.”
- (3) In section 58 (treatment requiring consent or a second opinion) –
- (a) before subsection (1) insert –
 - “(A1) This section applies to the forms of medical treatment for relevant disorder mentioned in subsection (1) where –
 - (a) the patient has capacity to consent to the treatment and has consented to it, or
 - (b) the patient lacks capacity to consent to the treatment and the giving of the treatment would not conflict with –
 - (i) any valid and applicable advance decision, or
 - (ii) any decision of a donee or deputy or the Court of Protection.”;
 - (b) in subsection (1), for the words before paragraph (a) substitute “The forms of medical treatment referred to in subsection (A1) are –”;

(c) in subsection (3)(b) omit “or being so capable has not consented to it”.

- (4) In section 59 (plans of treatment), after “57” insert “, 57A”.
- (5) In section 60 (withdrawal of consent), in subsection (1C)(a), after “section” insert “57A,”.
- (6) In section 62 (urgent treatment), in subsection (2), after “57” insert “, 57A”.
- (7) In section 63 (treatment not requiring consent), for the words from “not”, in the second place it occurs, to “applies” substitute “where none of sections 57 to 58A apply”.
- (8) In section 64C (section 64B: supplemental) –
 - (a) for subsection (3) substitute –

“(3) Relevant treatment is –

 - (a) section 58 type treatment if it is –
 - (i) treatment of a form which, at the time when it is given to the patient, is specified under section 58(1)(a), or
 - (ii) the administration of medicine to the patient by any means (not being a form of treatment specified under section 57, section 58(1)(a) or section 58A(1)(b)) if a period equal to or longer than the section 58 period has elapsed since the first occasion, during the relevant period, when medicine was administered to the patient by any means for relevant disorder;
 - (b) section 58A type treatment if it is –
 - (i) electro-convulsive therapy, or
 - (ii) treatment of a form which, at the time when it is given to the patient, is specified under section 58A(1)(b).
 - (3A) For the purposes of subsection (3) –
 - (a) the “section 58 period” is the period which, at the time when the treatment is given to the patient, is specified under section 58(1)(b);
 - (b) the “relevant period” is the period during which the patient has continuously been a patient to whom this Part applies.”;
 - (b) in subsection (6), for “subsection (1)(a) of that section” substitute “subsection (3)(b)(i) of this section”;
 - (c) in subsection (7) –
 - (i) for “subsection (1)(b) of that section” substitute “subsection (3)(b)(ii) of this section”;
 - (ii) for “that section”, in the second place it occurs, substitute “section 58A(1)(b)”.

12 Medicine etc: treatment in other circumstances

In section 58 of the 1983 Act (treatment requiring consent or a second opinion) –

- (a) in subsection (1)(b), for “three” substitute “two”;
- (b) in subsection (3)(a), after “has consented to it” insert “, that the treatment constitutes appropriate medical treatment”;
- (c) in subsection (4), for “(3)(b) above the registered medical practitioner concerned” substitute “(3) the person giving the certificate”.

13 Electro-convulsive therapy etc

In section 58A of the 1983 Act (electro-convulsive therapy etc), for subsection (5) substitute –

- “(5) A patient falls within this subsection if –
- (a) the patient lacks capacity to consent to the treatment and the giving of the treatment would not conflict with –
 - (i) any valid and applicable advance decision, or
 - (ii) any decision of a donee or deputy or the Court of Protection, and
 - (b) a second opinion appointed doctor has certified in writing –
 - (i) that the patient lacks capacity to consent to the treatment,
 - (ii) that the treatment constitutes appropriate medical treatment, and
 - (iii) that the decision to give the treatment was made by the approved clinician in charge of the treatment in accordance with section 56A.”

14 Review of treatment

In section 61 of the 1983 Act (review of treatment) –

- (a) in subsection (1), for “58(3)(b) or 58A(4) or (5)” substitute “57A(3) or 58(3)”;
- (b) after subsection (1) insert –

“(1A) Where a patient is given treatment in accordance with section 58A(3), (4) or (5), a report on the treatment and the patient’s condition must be given by the approved clinician in charge of the treatment to the regulatory authority at any time, if so required by the regulatory authority.”;

- (c) in subsection (3) –
 - (i) for “58(3)(b)” substitute “57A(3), 58(3)”;
 - (ii) for “58A(4)” substitute “58A(3), (4)”;
 - (iii) for “sections 57” substitute “sections 57, 57A”.

15 Urgent treatment to alleviate serious suffering

In section 62 of the 1983 Act (urgent treatment) –

- (a) in subsection (1), for “Sections 57 and 58” substitute “Section 57”;
- (b) after subsection (1) insert –

“(1ZA) Sections 57A and 58 do not apply to –

- (a) any treatment which falls within paragraphs (a), (b) or (d) of subsection (1), or
- (b) any treatment which falls within paragraph (c) of subsection (1) and is given to a patient who lacks capacity to consent to the treatment.”

16 Urgent electro-convulsive therapy etc

- (1) The 1983 Act is amended as follows.
- (2) In section 58A (electro-convulsive therapy etc), in subsection (2), for “section 62” substitute “section 62ZA”.
- (3) In section 62 (urgent treatment) omit subsections (1A) to (1C).
- (4) After section 62 insert –

“62ZA Urgent treatment: electro-convulsive therapy, etc.

- (1) This section applies instead of section 58A –
 - (a) to any treatment with electro-convulsive therapy where –
 - (i) the treatment is immediately necessary to save the patient’s life, or
 - (ii) the treatment is not irreversible and is immediately necessary to prevent a serious deterioration of the patient’s condition;
 - (b) to any treatment of a form specified under section 58A(1)(b), where the treatment falls within such of paragraphs (a) to (d) of section 62(1) as may be specified in regulations under section 58A(1)(b).
- (2) The treatment may be given to a patient who has capacity to consent to the treatment, but has not consented to it, only if a certificate has been given by a second opinion appointed doctor under subsection (4).
- (3) The treatment may be given to a patient who lacks capacity to consent to the treatment, where the giving of the treatment would conflict with –
 - (a) any valid and applicable advance decision, or
 - (b) any decision of a donee or deputy or the Court of Protection, only if a certificate has been given by a second opinion appointed doctor under subsection (5).
- (4) A certificate under this subsection is a certificate stating –

- (a) that the patient has capacity to consent to the treatment but has not consented to it,
 - (b) that the decision to give the treatment was made by the approved clinician in charge of the treatment in accordance with section 56A,
 - (c) where the treatment is electro-convulsive therapy, that the treatment—
 - (i) is immediately necessary to save the patient's life, or
 - (ii) is not irreversible and is immediately necessary to prevent a serious deterioration of the patient's condition, and
 - (d) where the treatment is of a form specified under section 58A(1)(b), which of the paragraphs of section 62(1) it falls within (see subsection (1)(b)).
- (5) A certificate under this subsection is a certificate stating —
- (a) that the patient lacks capacity to consent to the treatment and it appears to the second opinion appointed doctor that there is a decision mentioned in subsection (3)(a) or (b) which, if valid, would conflict with the giving of the treatment,
 - (b) that the decision to give the treatment was made by the approved clinician in charge of the treatment in accordance with section 56A,
 - (c) where the treatment is electro-convulsive therapy, that the treatment—
 - (i) is immediately necessary to save the patient's life, or
 - (ii) is not irreversible and is immediately necessary to prevent a serious deterioration of the patient's condition, and
 - (d) where the treatment is of a form specified under section 58A(1)(b), which of the paragraphs of section 62(1) it falls within (see subsection (1)(b)).
- (6) Before giving a certificate under this section, the second opinion appointed doctor must, if it is practicable to do so within any period specified under section 62ZB(2), consult—
- (a) a nurse who has been professionally concerned with the patient's medical treatment and is neither the responsible clinician nor the approved clinician in charge of the treatment in question, and
 - (b) the patient's nominated person.
- (7) Any request under section 56B for the appointment of a second opinion doctor in relation to the function of giving a certificate under this section must be made by the relevant person (within the meaning of section 56B) as soon as reasonably practicable.
- (8) The regulatory authority must, on receiving such a request, make the appointment under section 56B as soon as practicable.

- (9) Subsection (3) of section 62 applies for the purposes of this section as it applies for the purposes of that section.

62ZB Section 62ZA(1) treatment: powers of appropriate national authority

- (1) The appropriate national authority may by regulations amend this Act to provide for circumstances in which functions of a second opinion appointed doctor in relation to treatment falling within section 62ZA(1) may or must be carried out instead by the approved clinician in charge of the treatment in question.
- (2) The appropriate national authority may by regulations impose duties on—
- (a) the managers of hospitals or registered establishments,
 - (b) approved clinicians, or
 - (c) the regulatory authority,
- for the purpose of ensuring that a certificate given under section 62ZA or by virtue of regulations under subsection (1) is given within a period specified in the regulations.
- (3) Regulations under this section may make—
- (a) provision subject to specified exceptions;
 - (b) different provision for different cases;
 - (c) transitional, consequential, incidental or supplemental provision.”
- (5) In section 64 (supplementary provisions for Part 4), in subsection (1) (as substituted by section 8 of this Act), at the appropriate place insert—
- ““the appropriate national authority” has the meaning given by section 58A(10);”.
- (6) In section 118 (code of practice), in subsection (1)—
- (a) omit the “and” at the end of paragraph (a);
 - (b) after paragraph (b) insert “; and
 - (c) for the guidance of the regulatory authority in relation to its functions under or by virtue of Part 4”.
- (7) In section 119 (practitioners approved for Part 4 and section 118)—
- (a) after subsection (2) insert—
- “(2A) An interview or examination by a registered medical practitioner under subsection (2) for the purposes of section 62ZA may be carried out, to the extent that the registered medical practitioner considers appropriate—
- (a) by live video link, or
 - (b) by live audio link.”;

- (b) in subsection (3), before the definition of “regulated establishment” insert—

““live audio link” means a live telephone link or other arrangement which—

- (a) enables a patient to hear a registered medical practitioner, and
- (b) enables a registered medical practitioner to hear the patient;

“live video link” means a live television link or other arrangement which—

- (a) enables a patient to see and hear a registered medical practitioner, and
- (b) enables the registered medical practitioner to see and hear the patient;”.

- (8) In relation to the procedure for regulation-making powers inserted by this section, see section 44.

17 Capacity to consent to treatment

- (1) The 1983 Act is amended as follows.
- (2) In section 57 (treatment requiring consent and a second opinion), in subsection (2)(a), for “is capable of understanding the nature, purpose and likely effects of” substitute “has capacity to consent to”.
- (3) In section 58 (treatment requiring consent or a second opinion), in subsection (3)—
- (a) in paragraph (a), for “is capable of understanding its nature, purpose and likely effects” substitute “has capacity to consent to it”;
 - (b) in paragraph (b), for “is not capable of understanding the nature, purpose and likely effects of” substitute “lacks capacity to consent to”.
- (4) In section 58A (electro-convulsive therapy etc)—
- (a) in subsection (3)(c), for “is capable of understanding the nature, purpose and likely effects of” substitute “has capacity to consent to”;
 - (b) in subsection (4)(c), for sub-paragraph (i) (but not the “and” at the end) substitute—
 - “(i) that the patient has capacity to consent to the treatment and has consented to it;”;
 - (c) in subsection (7), for the words from “is not” to the end substitute “lacks capacity to consent to the treatment”;
 - (d) omit subsection (9).
- (5) In section 60 (withdrawal of consent)—
- (a) in subsection (1A)(b), for the words from “be” to the end substitute “have capacity to consent to the treatment”;
 - (b) in subsection (1C)—

- (i) in paragraph (a), for the words from “is not” to “effects of” substitute “lacks capacity to consent to”;
 - (ii) in paragraph (b), for the words from “becomes” to the end substitute “gains capacity to consent to that treatment”.
- (6) In section 64 (supplementary provisions for Part 4), after subsection (1B) insert—
- “(1BA) In relation to a patient who is aged under 16, references in this Part to capacity are to be read as references to competence.
- (1BB) In relation to a patient who is aged 16 or over—
- (a) references in this Part to lacking capacity are to lacking capacity within the meaning of the Mental Capacity Act 2005, and
 - (b) references in this Part to having, ceasing to have or gaining capacity are to be read accordingly.
- (1BC) References in this Part—
- (a) to an advance decision are to an advance decision (within the meaning of the Mental Capacity Act 2005) made by the patient;
 - (b) to a donee are to a donee of a lasting power of attorney (within the meaning of section 9 of the Mental Capacity Act 2005) created by the patient, where the donee is acting within the scope of their authority and in accordance with that Act;
 - (c) to a deputy are to a deputy appointed for the patient by the Court of Protection under section 16 of the Mental Capacity Act 2005, where the deputy is acting within the scope of their authority and in accordance with that Act.
- (1BD) In this Part “valid and applicable”, in relation to an advance decision, means valid and applicable to the treatment in question in accordance with section 25 of the Mental Capacity Act 2005.”

18 Care and treatment plans

In the 1983 Act, in Part 10, before section 130A insert—

“130ZA Care and treatment plans for patients in England

- (1) The appropriate practitioner must prepare a care and treatment plan for a patient to whom this section applies.
- (2) This section applies to a patient who—
 - (a) is liable to be detained under this Act in a hospital or registered establishment in England otherwise than—
 - (i) by virtue of an emergency application where the second medical recommendation referred to in section 4(4)(a) has not been given and received, or
 - (ii) by virtue of section 5(2) or (4), 135 or 136 or directions for detention in a place of safety under section 35(4), 36(3), 37(4), 38(4) or 45A(5),

- (b) is subject to guardianship under this Act, if the area of the responsible local social services authority is in England, or
 - (c) is a community patient, if the responsible hospital is in England.
- (3) A “care and treatment plan” is a document containing—
 - (a) a plan, made in accordance with regulations made by the Secretary of State, for meeting the patient’s current and future needs arising from or related to mental disorder, and
 - (b) any other information specified in the regulations.
- (4) Regulations under subsection (3) may provide for the inclusion in a care and treatment plan of information about people with whom a patient has a relationship or other connection, or to whom a care and treatment plan is relevant, for purposes related to—
 - (a) the meeting of the patient’s current or future needs mentioned in subsection (3)(a), or
 - (b) the review or revision of the care and treatment plan.
- (5) The appropriate practitioner must review a care and treatment plan—
 - (a) following any meeting relating to the patient under section 125A or 125B;
 - (b) following any change in the relevant patient’s condition or circumstances which the appropriate practitioner considers significant;
 - (c) if the appropriate practitioner is considering whether the relevant patient should—
 - (i) become liable to be detained by virtue of a different provision of this Act,
 - (ii) become subject to guardianship under this Act,
 - (iii) become a community patient, or
 - (iv) be discharged under section 23;
 - (d) if the appropriate practitioner is notified that the patient’s case is to be considered by a tribunal under this Act;
 - (e) if requested to do so by virtue of section 130ZB(3);
 - (f) if reasonably requested to do so by—
 - (i) the relevant patient;
 - (ii) anyone named by the relevant patient as someone to be consulted about their care and treatment plan;
 - (iii) the relevant patient’s nominated person;
 - (iv) any independent mental health advocate from whom the relevant patient is receiving help by virtue of section 130A;
 - (v) any donee or deputy for the relevant patient;
 - (vi) any other person who cares for the relevant patient or is interested in the relevant patient’s welfare.
- (6) When preparing or reviewing a care and treatment plan, the appropriate practitioner must, if it is practicable and appropriate to do so, consult the persons mentioned in subsection (5)(f).

- (7) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision—
 - (a) requiring a care and treatment plan to be revised in specified circumstances;
 - (b) specifying, in relation to cases in which a care and treatment plan must be prepared, reviewed or revised, when that must be done.
- (8) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision about—
 - (a) disclosure of information contained in a care and treatment plan;
 - (b) disclosure of other information for the purposes of functions under this section.
- (9) Regulations under this section may make—
 - (a) provision subject to specified exceptions;
 - (b) different provision for different cases;
 - (c) transitional, consequential, incidental or supplemental provision.
- (10) References in this section—
 - (a) to a donee for a patient are to a donee of a lasting power of attorney (within the meaning of section 9 of the Mental Capacity Act 2005) created by the patient;
 - (b) to a deputy for a patient are to a deputy appointed for the patient by the Court of Protection under section 16 of the Mental Capacity Act 2005;
 - (c) to the responsible local social services authority—
 - (i) in relation to a patient who is subject to guardianship in pursuance of a guardianship application, are to be read in accordance with section 34(3);
 - (ii) in relation to a patient who is subject to guardianship in pursuance of a guardianship order under section 37, are to the local social services authority specified in the order.
- (11) In this section “the appropriate practitioner” has the same meaning as in Part 2 (see section 34(1)).

130ZB Care and treatment plans: monitoring

- (1) The managers of a hospital or registered establishment in England must make arrangements for the monitoring of compliance with the duties imposed by section 130ZA in relation to relevant patients for whom the managers are responsible.
- (2) A local social services authority whose area is in England must make arrangements for the monitoring of compliance with the duties imposed by section 130ZA in relation to relevant patients for whom the authority is the responsible local social services authority.
- (3) Arrangements under subsection (1) or (2) must include arrangements for the appropriate practitioner, in relation to a relevant patient, to be requested to review the patient's care and treatment plan where the managers or local social services authority (as the case may be) consider that the care and treatment plan should be reviewed.

- (4) For the purposes of subsection (1) the managers of a hospital or registered establishment are "responsible" for a relevant patient if the patient—
 - (a) is liable to be detained under this Act in the hospital or registered establishment, or
 - (b) is a community patient for whom the hospital or registered establishment is the responsible hospital.
- (5) The reference in subsection (2) to the responsible local social services authority is to be read in accordance with section 130ZA(10)(c).
- (6) In this section—
 - "the appropriate practitioner" has the same meaning as in Part 2 (see section 34(1));
 - "care and treatment plan" has the meaning given by section 130ZA(3);
 - "relevant patient" means a patient to whom section 130ZA applies."

Community treatment orders

19 Consultation of the community clinician

- (1) The 1983 Act is amended as follows.
- (2) In section 17A(4) (grounds for making community treatment orders)—
 - (a) omit the "and" at the end of paragraph (a);
 - (b) for paragraph (b) substitute—
 - (b) an approved mental health professional states in writing—
 - (i) that they agree that the relevant criteria are met; and
 - (ii) that it is appropriate to make the order; and
 - (c) where the responsible clinician is not the community clinician, the community clinician states in writing that they agree that the relevant criteria are met."
- (3) In section 17B (conditions of community treatment orders)—
 - (a) in subsection (2), for the words from "approved" to "above" substitute "relevant professionals";
 - (b) after subsection (5) insert—

"(5A) Where the responsible clinician is not the community clinician, the responsible clinician must consult the community clinician before varying or suspending conditions specified in a community treatment order, unless consultation would involve unreasonable delay.”;

- (c) after subsection (7) insert—
- “(8) In this section “the relevant professionals” means—
- (a) the approved mental health professional making the statement required by section 17A(4)(b), and
 - (b) where section 17A(4)(c) applies, the community clinician.”
- (4) In section 17E (power to recall a community patient to hospital), after subsection (2) insert—
- “(2A) Where the responsible clinician is not the community clinician, the responsible clinician must consult the community clinician before recalling a community patient to hospital, unless consultation would involve unreasonable delay.”
- (5) In section 17F (powers in respect of recalled patients), after subsection (4) insert—
- “(4A) Where the responsible clinician is not the community clinician, the responsible clinician must consult the community clinician before revoking a community treatment order, unless consultation would involve unreasonable delay.”
- (6) In section 20A (community treatment period)—

 - (ii) is satisfied that conditions amounting to a deprivation of the patient’s liberty would be necessary for the protection of another person from serious harm if the patient were discharged from hospital, and is also satisfied that for the patient to be discharged subject to those conditions would be no less beneficial to their mental health than for them to remain in hospital”;

- (b) after subsection (5) insert –
- “(5A) Conditions amounting to a deprivation of a patient’s liberty may be imposed by the tribunal under subsection (4)(b) only where the tribunal is satisfied as to the matters mentioned in subsection (2)(c)(ii).
- (5B) Conditions amounting to a deprivation of a patient’s liberty may be imposed by the Secretary of State under subsection (4)(b) or (5) only where the Secretary of State is satisfied that those conditions are necessary for the protection of the public from serious harm.”
- (4) In section 145(1) (interpretation), at the appropriate place insert –
- ““deprivation of liberty” and related expressions are to be construed in accordance with section 64(5) and (6) of the Mental Capacity Act 2005;”.
- (5) The amendments made by this section apply in relation to any person who is a restricted patient within the meaning given by subsection (1) of section 79 of the 1983 Act, or is treated as a restricted patient as a result of that subsection, whether the person became such a patient (or treated as such a patient) before or after the coming into force of this section.

31 Transfers from prison to hospital

- (1) The 1983 Act is amended as follows.
- (2) In section 47 (removal to hospital of persons serving sentences of imprisonment etc) for subsection (1)(c) substitute –
- “(c) that appropriate medical treatment can be given for the relevant disorder from which the person is suffering;”.

- (3) After section 47 insert –

“47A Hospital treatment for prisoners: 28 day transfer period

- (1) As soon as practicable after a relevant referring body makes an initial request for a medical report in relation to a person serving a sentence of imprisonment (“P”), the body must give a referral notice to the persons specified in subsection (3).
- (2) For the purposes of this section –
- (a) a request is an “initial request” for a medical report if it is the first request for a report by a registered medical practitioner on whether the conditions in section 47(1) are satisfied in relation to P at a particular time;
- (b) “referral notice” means a notice –
- (i) stating that an initial request has been made in relation to P, and
- (ii) specifying the date on which the initial request was made;
- (c) “relevant referring body” means –

- (i) in relation to a person serving a sentence of imprisonment in England, a person who is a “service provider” within the meaning given by section 12ZA(9) of the National Health Service Act 2006 or provides “NHS medical services” within the meaning given by section 14Z31(5) of that Act;
 - (ii) in relation to a person serving a sentence of imprisonment in Wales, a Local Health Board.
 - (3) The persons to whom the referral notice must be given (“the notified authorities”) are—
 - (a) the Secretary of State;
 - (b) where P is serving the sentence in a prison, or a part of a prison, which is run by a person with whom the Secretary of State has entered into a contract under section 84 of the Criminal Justice Act 1991 (contracting out prisons), the person with whom the Secretary of State has entered into that contract;
 - (c) as many of the following (other than the relevant referring body) as the relevant referring body considers likely to have functions in relation to P in the event that the Secretary of State gives a direction under section 47—
 - (i) NHS England;
 - (ii) integrated care boards;
 - (iii) National Health Service trusts established under section 18 of the National Health Service (Wales) Act 2006;
 - (iv) Local Health Boards;
 - (v) service providers within the meaning given by section 12ZA(9) of the National Health Service Act 2006.
 - (4) The relevant referring body and the notified authorities must, when exercising functions in relation to P, seek to ensure that the removal of P to a hospital in pursuance of a direction under section 47 (if any such direction is given) takes place within the period of 28 days beginning with the date specified under subsection (2)(b)(ii), unless there are exceptional circumstances which make it inappropriate for P to be so removed within that period.
 - (5) For the purposes of subsection (4) the following are not (together or separately) “exceptional circumstances”—
 - (a) a shortage of hospital accommodation;
 - (b) a shortage of hospital staff;unless occurring as a result of other exceptional circumstances.
 - (6) The Secretary of State may by regulations—
 - (a) amend this section so as to change the persons—
 - (i) who are subject to the duty to give a referral notice under subsection (1), or
 - (ii) to whom a referral notice must be given under subsection (3);

- (b) amend subsection (4) so as to replace the reference to the period that is for the time being mentioned there with a reference to a different period.”
- (4) In section 48 (removal to hospital of other prisoners) –
 - (a) for subsection (1)(c) substitute –
 - “(c) appropriate medical treatment can be given for the relevant disorder from which the person is suffering;”;
 - (b) at the end insert –
 - “(4) The Secretary of State may by regulations provide for section 47A to apply in relation to a person in respect of whom a transfer direction is given by virtue of this section as that section applies in relation to a person in respect of whom a transfer direction is given under section 47, subject to any modifications that are specified in the regulations.”
- (5) In relation to the procedure for regulation-making powers inserted by this section, see section 44.

PART 1

APPOINTMENT ETC

- 1 The 1983 Act is amended as follows.

2 Before section 31 and the italic heading before that section insert –

“Nominated persons: appointment and removal

30A Nominated person

Schedule A1 –

- (a) confers power to appoint a nominated person for a patient for the purposes of this Act, and
- (b) makes provision about the duration of an appointment of a nominated person.

30B Power of court to terminate appointment of nominated person

- (1) The county court may, on an application made in accordance with the provisions of this section, make an order terminating the appointment of a nominated person for a patient.
- (2) An order under this section may be made on the application of –
 - (a) the patient,
 - (b) an approved mental health professional, or
 - (c) any person engaged in caring for the patient or interested in the patient’s welfare.
- (3) An application for an order under this section may only be made on the grounds that –
 - (a) the nominated person unreasonably objects to the making of an application for admission for treatment or a guardianship application in respect of the patient;
 - (b) the nominated person has, without due regard to the welfare of the patient or the interests of the public, exercised the power to discharge the patient under this Part of this Act or is likely to do so;
 - (c) the nominated person unreasonably objects to the making of a community treatment order in respect of the patient;
 - (d) the patient has done anything which is clearly inconsistent with the nominated person remaining the patient’s nominated person;
 - (e) the nominated person lacks the capacity or competence to act as a nominated person;
 - (f) the nominated person is otherwise not a suitable person to act as a nominated person.
- (4) If, immediately before the expiry of the period for which a patient is liable to be detained by virtue of an application for admission for assessment, an application under this section, which is an application made on the ground specified in subsection (3)(a) or (b), is pending in respect of the patient, that period is extended –

- (a) in any case, until the application under this section has been finally disposed of, and
 - (b) if an order is made in pursuance of the application under this section, for a further period of seven days.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (4) –
- (a) an application under this section is “pending” until it is finally disposed of, and
 - (b) an application under this section is “finally disposed of” –
 - (i) when the time allowed for appealing against court’s decision expires without an appeal being brought, or
 - (ii) where an appeal is brought within that time, when the appeal has been heard or withdrawn.
- (6) Where an order under this section terminates the appointment of a nominated person for a patient, the person is disqualified from being re-appointed for the period specified by the court in the order.
- (7) In this section “patient” includes any person by or for whom a nominated person is appointed.”

- (3) The notice must be signed by the nominated person.

PART 2

APPOINTMENT OF NOMINATED PERSON BY AN APPROVED MENTAL HEALTH PROFESSIONAL

Power of approved mental health professional to appoint nominated person

- 7 (1) Where an approved mental health professional reasonably believes that a relevant patient—
- (a) lacks capacity or is not competent to appoint a nominated person, and
 - (b) has not appointed a person under Part 1 of this Schedule to act as their nominated person,
- the professional may appoint a person to act as the patient’s nominated person for the purposes of this Act.
- (2) In this Schedule “relevant patient” means a person—
- (a) who is liable to be detained in pursuance of an application for admission for assessment or treatment,
 - (b) who is the subject of an application for admission for assessment or treatment,
 - (c) in relation to whom an approved mental health professional is considering making an application for admission for assessment or treatment,
 - (d) who is a community patient,
 - (e) who is subject to guardianship in pursuance of a guardianship application,
 - (f) who is the subject of a guardianship application, or
 - (g) in relation to whom an approved mental health professional is considering making a guardianship application.

Who can be appointed by an approved mental health professional as a nominated person?

- 8 A person is eligible to be appointed as a nominated person under this Part of this Schedule only if the person—
- (a) is an individual who meets the age requirement (see paragraph 2(2)) or is a local authority, and

- (b) is not disqualified by 30B(6) (disqualification as a result of court order terminating previous appointment as a nominated person).

Selection of nominated person

- 9 (1) This paragraph applies where an approved mental health professional is deciding who to appoint as a nominated person for a relevant patient who is aged 16 or over.
 - (2) If the relevant patient has a competent donee or deputy who is willing to act as the nominated person, the approved mental health professional must appoint the donee or deputy.
 - (3) In any other case, the approved mental health professional must, in deciding who to appoint, take into account the relevant patient's past and present wishes and feelings so far as reasonably ascertainable.
 - (4) In this paragraph—
 - (a) “donee” means a donee of a lasting power of attorney (within the meaning of section 9 of Mental Capacity Act 2005) created by the patient;
 - (b) “deputy” means a deputy appointed for the patient by the Court of Protection under section 16 of that Act;
 - (c) a donee or deputy is “competent” if the scope of the authority conferred on them as donee or deputy would extend to taking decisions of the kind taken by a nominated person.
- 10 (1) This paragraph applies where an approved mental health professional is deciding who to appoint as a nominated person for a relevant patient who is aged under 16.
 - (2) If a person within the following list is willing to act as the nominated person, the approved mental health professional must appoint such a person (giving preference to those mentioned in paragraph (a))—
 - (a) a local authority with parental responsibility for the relevant patient;
 - (b) any other person who has parental responsibility for the relevant patient.
 - (3) In any other case, the approved mental health professional must, in deciding who to appoint, take into account the relevant patient's past and present wishes and feelings so far as reasonably ascertainable.
 - (4) In this paragraph—
 - (a) “deputy” means a deputy appointed for the patient by the Court of Protection under section 16 of that Act;

- (b) a deputy is “competent” if the scope of the authority conferred on them as donee or deputy would extend to taking decisions of the kind taken by a nominated person.

Appointment formalities

- 11 (1) The appointment of a nominated person by an approved mental health professional is valid only if—
 - (a) the person is eligible to be appointed as a nominated person (see paragraph 8),
 - (b) the person agrees to act as the nominated person,
 - (c) the appointment is made by an instrument in writing and signed by the professional, and
 - (d) the requirements of sub-paragraph (2) are complied with in relation to the instrument.
- (2) The instrument appointing the nominated person must—
 - (a) be signed by the approved mental health professional,
 - (b) contain a statement, signed by the nominated person, in the presence of the approved mental health professional, that the nominated person—
 - (i) meets the age requirement, if the nominated person is an individual (see paragraph 2(2)), and
 - (ii) agrees to act as the nominated person.

Notification of appointment

- 12 (1) Where an approved mental health professional appoints a nominated person under this Part of this Schedule, the professional must—
 - (a) if the appointment relates to a relevant patient falling within paragraph 7(2)(a) to (d), notify the relevant managers;
 - (b) if the appointment relates to a relevant patient falling within paragraph 7(2)(e) to (g), notify the relevant local social services authority.
- (2) A person who is notified under sub-paragraph (1) of the appointment of a nominated person must take such steps as the person considers appropriate to inform the relevant patient of the appointment.

Duration of appointment

- 13 The appointment of a nominated person under this Part of this Schedule ceases to have effect if—
 - (a) the nominated person dies;
 - (b) an approved mental health professional appoints a different nominated person for the relevant patient;

- (c) an approved mental health professional terminates the appointment under paragraph 14;
- (d) the relevant patient terminates the appointment under paragraph 15;
- (e) the nominated person resigns under paragraph 16;
- (f) the county court terminates the appointment under section 30B;
- (g) the relevant patient appoints a different nominated person under Part 1 of this Schedule;
- (h) the person for whom the nominated person was appointed ceases to be a relevant patient.

Termination of appointment by approved mental health professional

- 14 (1) Where an approved mental health professional has appointed a nominated person for a relevant patient, an approved mental health professional may terminate the appointment by giving written notice to the nominated person and the patient.
- (2) The appointment may only be terminated on the grounds that—
- (a) the person lacks capacity to exercise the functions of a nominated person,
 - (b) the person is otherwise not a suitable person to act as the nominated person, or
 - (c) the relevant patient has regained capacity or competence to appoint a nominated person under Part 1 of this Schedule.
- (3) Where an approved mental health professional terminates the appointment of a nominated person under this Part of this Schedule, the professional must—
- (a) if the appointment relates to a relevant patient falling within paragraph 7(2)(a) to (d), notify the relevant managers;
 - (b) if the appointment relates to a relevant patient falling within paragraph 7(2)(e) to (g), notify the relevant local social services authority.

Termination of appointment by relevant patient

- 15 (1) The appointment of a nominated person under this Part of this Schedule may be terminated by the relevant patient giving the nominated person written notice.
- (2) The notice must be—
- (a) signed by the relevant patient in the presence of a health or care professional or independent mental health advocate (“the witness”), and
 - (b) contain a statement, signed by the witness, that—

- (i) the notice was signed by the patient in the presence of the witness,
- (ii) the witness has no reason to think that the patient lacks capacity or competence to terminate the appointment, and
- (iii) the witness has no reason to think that any fraud or undue pressure has been used to induce the patient to terminate the appointment.

Resignation of nominated person

- 16 (1) A nominated person appointed by an approved mental health professional may resign by giving written notice to the patient and at least one of the persons mentioned in sub-paragraph (2).
- (2) The persons are –
- (a) an approved mental health professional;
 - (b) the relevant patient’s responsible clinician (if any);
 - (c) in relation to a relevant patient falling within paragraph 7(2)(a), (b) or (d), the relevant managers;
 - (d) in relation to a relevant patient falling within paragraph 7(2)(e) or (f), the relevant local social services authority.
- (3) The notice must be signed by the nominated person.
