Reasons for comment:

Comments: Once again, we find ourselves confronted with a further application from Wren Kitchens, having been successfully refused on 2 previous occasions, is it not possible to confirm that under no circumstances would their plans be acceptable!! I understand they have approached the Home Secretary to further their plans, I do hope that Uttlesford stay strong as they have done so previously. The negative effects on the environment, the chaos to an already over busy junction and the danger to the local population caused by increased traffic movements, plus 24 hour noise surely mean such an application must fail again.

Kind regards
