

West Oxfordshire District Council

What does the change relate to?	Change	Live example (before and after)
Tree preservation order	Tree preservation orders will now be accompanied by a spatial extent to reflect the protected trees' location. The local authority recommends that customers should contact them for information before undertaking tree works if a tree preservation order is revealed on the search: https://www.westoxon.gov.uk/environment/landscape-and-grounds-maintenance/protected-trees/
Listed buildings	Some listed buildings will now contain a note (see in the example section) in 'Source information' that directs the customers to the local authority for identification of the structures that are part of the listed building's curtilage	A listed building also includes any ancillary objects or structures within the curtilage of the building, which forms part of the land and has done so since before 1st July, 1948. If you have any queries regarding curtilage listed building please go to https://www.westoxon.gov.uk/planning-and-building/historic-buildings-and-conservation/
Source information	Also known as 'Place of inspection', this will now contain an email address or URL to a relevant website for further information	Before: West Oxfordshire District Council, Local Land Charges, Elmfield, New Yatt Road, Witney, Oxfordshire After: https://www.westoxon.gov.uk/planning-and-building/

Ancient monuments	The originating authority for these records has been set to Secretary of State	Before: Planning, West Oxfordshire District Council, Elmfield, New Yatt Road, Witney. OX28 1PB After: Secretary of State
-------------------	--	--