

Apply for a non-molestation or occupation order

Family Law Act 1996 (Part 4)

You can use this form to apply for a:

- Non-molestation order: Protects you and any relevant child from abuse or harassment. This order can also prevent someone coming to or near your home.
- Occupation order: The court decides who should live in, or return to, the home or any part of it.

There are no court fees for applying. You can apply for either order or both, depending on your situation.

CourtNav can help you apply for an order

CourtNav is an online tool (provided by RCJ Citizens Advice) that will help you in putting together your application. The tool will also put you in touch with legal advisors to discuss your options.

Visit <https://injunction.courtnav.org.uk> to register and apply. If you choose to use CourtNav, you will not need to complete this FL401 form or a supporting statement – CourtNav will complete both for you.

Support if you are experiencing domestic abuse

Visit www.gov.uk/report-domestic-abuse for a list of organisations that can provide help and advice about domestic abuse. Call 999 if it's an emergency or you're in immediate danger

Applications without the respondent being told

In exceptional circumstances, such as your safety is immediately threatened, the court may make an order without telling the 'respondent' (the person the order is against). This is called an 'ex parte' or 'without notice' order. It means the court can consider your application without the respondent present. A hearing will be held later and the respondent will be given notice to attend. You can request this in section 1 of this form. You must tell the court why you are applying for a without notice order and what you think might happen if the court does not grant it.

If you want to keep your information confidential

If you do not want your or your child's contact details to be shared with the respondent, do not put these in at any point on the form, even when asked. Instead complete a confidential contact details (C8) form and send it with this application. Visit GOV.UK and search form 'C8'.

Do not include your contact details on any other documents sent to the court, such as supporting evidence.

If you are living in a refuge, it is very important that you keep your address details confidential and only include the address details on a form C8.

Before you start

How old are you?

- 18 years old or older. You can continue to apply using this form.
- 16 to 18 years old. Someone over 18 must help you apply, such as a parent. They will also need to complete form 'FP9' to include with your application.
- Under 16 years old. You will need permission from the court to apply. With the help of someone over 18, you must also complete form 'FP2' and they will need to complete form 'FP9' and include these with your application. Visit GOV.UK and search form 'FP2' and form 'FP9'.

CourtNav - If you choose to use CourtNav, you will not need to complete this FL401 form or a supporting statement – CourtNav will complete both for you. Visit <https://injunction.courtnav.org.uk> to register and apply.

1. Your situation

1.1 Which order(s) are you applying for?

- Non-molestation order – to stop abusive behaviour
- Occupation order – to decide who lives in or can return to a property

Note 1.1: 'Molestation' is a word used in law and by the court to cover all kinds of unwanted, harassing and abusive behaviours.

Without notice orders

The court may, in any case where it considers that it is just and convenient to do so, make an occupation order or a non-molestation order even though the respondent has not been given prior notice of the proceedings, as would otherwise be required by rules of court.

Please see the guidance on the right to help work out if this may be an option for you.

1.2 Do you want to apply for the order without giving notice to the respondent?

Yes

No. Go to question 1.5

1.3 Why do you want to apply without giving notice to the respondent? You can select more than one reason – see guidance note for help.

a) there is risk of significant harm to me or a relevant child, attributable to conduct of the respondent, if the order is not made immediately

b) it is likely that I will be deterred or prevented from pursuing the application if an order is not made immediately

c) I believe that the respondent is aware of the proceedings but is deliberately evading service and that I or a relevant child will be seriously prejudice by the delay in effecting substituted service

Note 1.2 and 1.3: This is sometimes called ‘ex parte’ and means the order can be made without the respondent knowing in advance. This is only an option if:

- you think there’s a risk that the respondent may try to harm you or your child (a)
- you feel like you may be prevented or put off from applying if an order is not made immediately (b)
- you think the respondent will try to avoid court proceedings, including being served with the order* – and any delay caused by this could affect your application or the health, safety or wellbeing of you or your child (c)

Notifying the respondent of the application and order

You must not serve the application or order yourself. If you do not have a legal representative you can apply for a court official to serve these for you for free. Visit GOV.UK and search form ‘D89’ to apply. Include this form with your application.

* Usually the respondent will be given the order by hand. In some cases, the court may decide that the order should be served in another way, such as by email or text message. This is called ‘substituted’ or ‘alternative’ service.

The court or police cannot act if the respondent does something the order says they aren’t allowed to until they have been served with the order.

1.4 Why do you think one or more of the reasons you have chosen for question 1.3 may happen?

Note 1.4: Please describe as best as you can why these things may happen. This could include things the respondent has said or done in the past.

1.5 As far as you know, are there any bail conditions stopping the respondent from contacting or coming near you?

Yes

No. Go to question 1.7

1.6 When do the bail conditions end?

Day

Month

Year

1.7 Is there anything else about your situation that you would like the court to know about or consider?

Note 1.7: It is important for the court to know about any special characteristics relating to you, the respondent or a child of the family. This could include whether there are any illnesses or disabilities suffered by anybody, or if you are pregnant.

You can provide more details about your situation in your supporting witness statement.

If you do provide a different address, make sure that it is of someone you trust and they can contact you.

If you are keeping your contact details confidential you should include both your address and the different address on the C8 form.

Note 3: The 'respondent' is the person you are asking the court to make the order against. In any court papers or hearings this person will be called 'the respondent'. You will be called 'the applicant'.

Note 3.5: An address for the respondent is needed so any order can be 'personally served' on them. The order is usually handed directly to the respondent. See the first page of this form for more information and guidance.

If you don't know their address, include an alternative address, such as a family member of the respondent or workplace where you know they are likely to be.

It is very important to include an address for the respondent as the order cannot be enforced until it has been served on them or they are aware of it. This means the police or court may not be able to take any action if the respondent does something the order says they aren't allowed to.

3.6 Their phone number (if you know it)

3.7 Their email address (if you know it)

4. Your relationship with the respondent

Note 4: To get an injunction against the respondent, you will need to show the court that you have a connection to them. The courts call this being an 'associated person'.

The questions in this section are used to decide if you are an associated person for this application

Note 4.2: If you don't know the exact date your relationship started or ended, give your best guess of the month and year.

The respondent must be, or have been, someone listed in question 4.1, or a relative by birth, marriage or other association. If they are not, then you cannot apply for a non-molestation or occupation order and should seek legal advice.

- You only. Go to question 5.3

to join the hearing by video link rather than in person

Note 8: The court will try to provide you and any witnesses with the special assistance that you ask for. However, this is not always possible and can depend on the facilities available at your local court.

It is a good idea to contact the court before your court hearing to find out whether they can supply the special assistance that you have requested.

Note 8.3: We know that people with disabilities sometimes need our help and support to use our services. This can mean that we need to provide something different so you can access and use our services in the same way as a person without a disability.

Explaining how your disability affects you will help court staff or the judge to consider any help we can provide.

Note 8.5: A privacy screen would mean the respondent would not be able to see you while in the courtroom.

Domestic Abuse Act 2021

Provisions in the Domestic Abuse Act 2021 have the effect of preventing an individual accused of abuse from questioning in person a party or witness in the case who is the victim of the abuse, and also prevents a victim of abuse from questioning in person the accused individual in specified circumstances

If the court directs that the proceedings be listed for a hearing where oral evidence may be given, form EX740 (person making the abuse accusation) or form EX741 (person accused of abuse) 'Application and information needed by the court to consider whether to prevent (prohibit) questioning (cross-examination) in person' may need to be completed so that the court can consider whether questioning in person should be prevented. The court will send the appropriate form with the court order.

Statement of truth

I understand that proceedings for contempt of court may be brought against anyone who makes, or causes to be made, a false statement in a document verified by a statement of truth without an honest belief in its truth.

I believe that the facts stated in this form and any continuation sheets are true.

You can sign the application by hand or type your name in if completing electronically.

This application is to be served on the respondent.

You must not serve the documents yourself on the person you are seeking the order against. See the first page of this form for more information and instructions about serving the documents.

What to do next

You will need to include a supporting witness statement with your application. You can find a template statement and guidance for how to complete it alongside this form. Visit GOV.UK and search 'FL401T'.

If you have completed your form and statement electronically, please email them with any supporting documents to your local family court. If you are asking the court to keep your contact details confidential, please attach the C8 confidential contact details form as a separate attachment.

If you have completed the form and statement by hand, we will need 3 copies of each for a non-molestation order application or 4 copies for an occupation order application. If you have legal representation (a solicitor) you can ask them to make copies. If you do not have legal representation, you only need to provide one copy of each document. You can take your application to your local family court or send it there by post.

Visit www.gov.uk/find-court-tribunal to find your local family court's postal and email addresses.

Notifying the respondent of the application and order

After the court has received and accepted your application, a copy must then be given to the respondent. This is called 'serving the application'. However, if the court has agreed to hear your case without the respondent being told, then they must not be served with the application. If the court grants an order, this must be served on the respondent in all cases.

You must not serve the application or order yourself. If you do not have a legal representative you can apply for a court official to serve these for you for free. Visit GOV.UK and search form 'D89' to apply. Include this form with your application.
