Trade balance - The difference between exports and imports, calculated by UK exports minus UK imports.

Trade surplus - This occurs when the value of UK exports to Argentina is greater than the value of UK imports from Argentina.

Headline trade statistics include trade in non-monetary gold (reported within the unspecified goods category), which can significantly affect trends for some partners. Please see the factsheet quality and methodology report for more information. These statistics are given on a balance of payments (change of ownership) basis.

Note: The latest data include trade between April 2022 and March 2023. Trade has been affected by the COVID-19 pandemic and the associated lockdown measures globally. Consequently, data quality has been affected and may be subject to larger revisions than normal. All figures are reported in current prices (not adjusted for inflation), unless otherwise stated. We recognise that some of the recent increases in UK trade values will be partly due to price increases.

Total trade in goods and services (exports plus imports) between the UK and Argentina was £2.1 billion in the four quarters to the end of Q1 2023, an increase of 27.4% or £444 million in current prices from the four quarters to the end of Q1 2022.

In the four quarters to the end of Q1 2023, total UK exports to Argentina amounted to £816 million (an increase of 37.4% or £222 million in current prices, compared to the four quarters to the end of Q1 2022).

Of all UK exports to Argentina in the four quarters to the end of Q1 2023, £511 million (62.6%) were goods and £305 million (37.4%) were services. In the four quarters to the end of Q1 2023, UK exports of goods to Argentina increased by 22.5% or £94 million in current prices, compared to the four quarters to the end of Q1 2022 while UK exports of services to Argentina increased by 72.3% or £128 million in current prices, compared to the four quarters to the end of Q1 2022.

In the four quarters to the end of Q1 2023, total UK imports from Argentina were £1.2 billion (an increase of 21.6% or £222 million in current prices, compared to the four quarters to the end of Q1 2022).

Of all UK imports from Argentina in the four quarters to the end of Q1 2023, £948 million (76.0%) were goods and £300 million (24.0%) were services. In the same period, UK imports of goods from Argentina increased by 18.6% or £149 million in current prices, compared to the four quarters to the end of Q1 2022 while UK imports of services from Argentina increased by 32.2% or £73 million in current prices, compared to the four quarters to the end of Q1 2022.

This means the UK reported a total trade deficit of £432 million with Argentina, compared to a trade deficit of £432 million in the four quarters to the end of Q1 2022. In the four quarters to the end of Q1 2023, the UK had a trade in goods deficit of £437 million with Argentina, compared to a trade in goods deficit of £382 million in the four quarters to the end of Q1 2022. Meanwhile, in the four quarters to the end of Q1 2023 the UK reported a trade in services surplus of £5 million with Argentina, compared to a trade in services deficit of £50 million in the four quarters to the end of Q1 2022.

<sup>8</sup> This factsheet contains data as reported by the UK, users are advised to use UK-reported data where possible for consistency between partners. These data are subject to asymmetries e.g. the value of UK exports to Argentina (reported by the UK) may not match the value of Argentina imports from the UK (reported by Argentina).

<sup>9</sup> Data are in nominal terms, meaning no adjustment has been made to account for changes in inflation or exchange rate. The totals may not exactly match the sum of their parts due to rounding.

Trade in goods by UK countries and English regions, in current prices (HMRC)<sup>17 18</sup>

Regional trade definitions

UK regions - The UK is categorised into 12 regions based on the International Territorial level 1 (ITL1). This level includes 9 regions in England, as well as Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland.

Regional trade data - The data are compiled by merging HM Revenues & Customs (HMRC) trade data with employment data from the Interdepartmental Business Register (IDBR) so a business' trade can be allocated to a UK region based on the proportion of its employees employed in that region. Where a trader is not matched with the IDBR, its trade is matched with ONS postcode data to obtain the UK region in which the Head Office of the VAT-registered business is based.

The maps below show the value of UK goods exports and imports between each UK region and Argentina in 2022. The maps are shaded with the 3 UK regions with the highest amount of trade as the darkest colour, and the 3 UK regions with the lowest amount of trade as the lightest colour.

<sup>17</sup> HMRC data source for regional UK trade data: HMRC Regional Trade Statistics (data extracted from the spreadsheet download using the HMRC interactive tables).

<sup>18</sup> Totals presented here will differ from overall HMRC trade figures due to the exclusion of trade in non-monetary gold and non-response estimates and the exclusion of data not allocated to a UK country or region. Figures for 2022 are provisional and subject to change.

UK Market Share (ONS and UNCTAD)<sup>19 20</sup>

Market Share definitions

UK market share – Imports from the UK as a percentage of all the goods and services imported by Argentina. Market share is provided for total imports from the UK, as well as for goods and services separately.

Market share methodology – These UK market share statistics are derived by the Department for Business and Trade, using publicly available data from the Office of National Statistics (ONS) and the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD). These new statistics allows users to estimate the importance of UK trade on imports to each trading partner. Market share is calculated as the value of imports from the UK using data from ONS, divided by the value of total imports using data from UNCTAD. Data from UNCTAD are converted from US dollars into pounds sterling by using the annual average spot exchange rate<sup>21</sup>.

The UK's market share for Argentina in 2022 was as follows:

- The total UK market share in Argentina was 1.1% in 2022 for goods and services. This is unchanged from 2021.
- The UK market share in Argentina was 0.9% in 2022 for goods only. This is unchanged from 2021.
- The UK market share in Argentina was 1.7% in 2022 for services only. This is unchanged from 2021.

Number of VAT-registered businesses trading goods (HMRC)<sup>22 23 24</sup>

VAT-registered businesses definition

VAT-registered businesses - Any company with a VAT taxable turnover of more than £85,000 must be registered for VAT with HM Revenue & Customs (HMRC). These estimates do not cover unregistered businesses (those businesses who are not registered for VAT and do not have an Economic Operator Registration and Identification (EORI) number), or those businesses that trade in services.

Businesses trading with Argentina in 2021:

- Data on the number of VAT-registered businesses exporting to Argentina are not available from this source.
- Data on the number of VAT-registered businesses importing from Argentina are not available from this source.

Businesses trading with the world in 2021:

- In 2021, around 126,900 UK VAT-registered businesses exported goods to the world.
- There is no data available for world imports due to methodological changes.

<sup>20</sup> UNCTAD data source for market share: Goods and Services \(BPM6\): Exports and imports of goods and services, annual. Some UNCTAD data may be based on estimates.

<sup>23</sup> Estimates only cover VAT-registered businesses exporting or importing goods. Data for UK businesses engaged in trade of services with Argentina are not available. VAT-registered business may trade with multiple trading partners abroad so care should be taken when adding figures for multiple trading partners.

<sup>24</sup> Counts of businesses trading with the EU and non-EU countries from Great Britain are recorded under from the Customs declarations system where there is no threshold. Counts of businesses trading with individual EU partners from Northern Ireland exclude businesses trading below Intrastat thresholds, which for 2022 are £500,000 for EU imports and £250,000 for EU exports. The number of VAT-registered businesses has been rounded to the nearest 100 here.

Trade in Value Added (OECD)<sup>25</sup> <sup>26</sup>

Trade in Value Added definitions

Trade in Value Added (TiVA) - TiVA is a statistical approach to examine supply chains, which is not possible with conventional ('gross') trade statistics. This is because TiVA treats international trade flows as flows of value added rather than gross flows of final goods and services.

Domestic and foreign value added - In TiVA, gross exports are decomposed into domestic and foreign value added. Domestic value added measures the value added generated by the domestic economy in the production of its exports (e.g. the value added by UK car manufacturers and their UK supply chains in car exports). Foreign value added measures the value added contribution that foreign suppliers make to these exports (e.g. the import of foreign car parts).

TiVA statistics - Although TiVA offers advantages over traditional ways of measuring trade, these statistics are not fully developed. These results are estimates which should be considered complementary to conventional trade statistics and not be over-interpreted. In addition, the geographical detail is limited for developing countries. More information on TiVA can be found in a recent research report by the Department for Business and Trade and Cambridge Econometrics.

UK forward linkages for exports - Measures the reliance of foreign exporters on UK value added (inputs).

UK backward linkages for exports - Measures the reliance of UK exporters on foreign value added (inputs).

Employment supported by exports - This provides an estimate of the number of employees in exporting industries, and their domestic supply chains that are supported by exporting activity.

UK forward linkages for exports:

- In 2018, 0.2% of the total value added in gross exports from Argentina originated in the UK.
- In 2018, 10.5% of the value added content in gross exports from Argentina reflected foreign imports from abroad. The largest sources of foreign value added for gross exports from Argentina were Brazil (1.9%), United States (1.8%), and China (1.4%).

UK backward linkages for exports:

- In 2018, less than 0.1% of the total value added in gross exports from the UK originated in Argentina.
- In 2018, 17.8% of the value added content in gross exports from the UK reflected foreign imports from abroad. The largest sources of foreign value added for gross exports from the UK were United States (2.7%), Germany (1.8%), and Norway (1.5%).

Employment supported by exports:<sup>27</sup>

- Exporting activity in Argentina supported 2.3 million persons in 2018 (11.2% of total Argentina employment). Exports to the UK supported around 53,600 jobs in Argentina in 2018.
- Exporting activity in the UK supported 6.8 million persons in 2018 (20.9% of total UK employment). Exports to Argentina supported around 11,000 jobs in the UK in 2018.

<sup>25</sup> The estimates in this factsheet are based on Trade in Value Added statistics published by the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD): a) Trade in Value Added database \(origin of value added in gross exports\), November 2021; and b) Trade in Employment \(TiM\) database: Principal indicators, February 2022, indicators EXGR_DEM and EMPN_EXGRDEM.

<sup>26</sup> The data shown in this factsheet is from 2018. Please note, on 5 November 2022 OECD published a more up-to-date, partially complete dataset for TiVA. Once the dataset is complete, the factsheets will be updated to reflect this.

<sup>27</sup> These estimates measure employees directly and indirectly supported by exports i.e. workers employed in exporting businesses and in other domestic businesses supplying inputs to the exporting businesses. The estimates should be interpreted as employment supported by exports, rather than employment created by exports, as the jobs may have previously existed to serve the domestic market. Employees may also be supported by exports from a multiple number of trading partners. As with the core TiVA data, these estimates are based on a number of assumptions and modelling, so should be interpreted with caution.

Foreign Direct Investment with Argentina (ONS)<sup>28 29 30</sup>

Foreign direct investment definitions

Foreign direct investment (FDI) - Investment made by a firm or individual in one economy ('direct investor') to acquire a 'lasting interest' in an enterprise operating in another economy. The lasting interest is deemed to exist if the direct investor acquires at least 10% of equity, or equivalently 10% of the voting rights, of the company.

FDI stock - The accumulated value of all previous investments at the end of a reference period. Figures are net, that is the value of investment minus disinvestment. UK outward FDI stock provides the total value of FDI by UK investors in economies abroad (investment of a UK parent company in Argentina), while UK inward FDI stock provides the total value of FDI by non-UK investors in the UK (investment of a Argentina parent company in the UK).

Data disclosure - It can happen that FDI is coming from only a few investors. In that case, figures are suppressed by the ONS to avoid disclosure of information relating to individual enterprises.

Note: The FDI data for 2020 have been affected by changes in sampling methodology. Improvements have been made to the population which has been sampled and the way that businesses are sampled from the population, capturing a wider range of businesses. This means data from 2020 and onward are more representative of UK FDI with overseas partners and are comparable.

More information about the methodology changes can be found on the ONS website.

UK inward FDI stock:

<sup>28</sup> Data for both inward and outward FDI between the UK and Argentina are not available in the main ONS release (Foreign Direct Investment involving UK companies). Therefore, an ONS FDI ad-hoc data release is used to provide the latest FDI data for Argentina where it is unavailable in the main ONS release.

<sup>29</sup> Data are presented on a directional basis which means they are not directly comparable to the asset/liability report prepared by ONS as part of the Balance of Payments statistical release. Figures are on net basis (investments minus disinvestments) and are given in nominal terms. Negative FDI values occur when disinvestments are greater than investments. Data are on an immediate destination/source basis and not an ultimate destination/source, which is likely to overstate financial centres such as the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

<sup>30</sup> This factsheet contains data as reported by the UK and are subject to asymmetries e.g. UK outward FDI to Argentina (reported by the UK) may not match Argentina inward FDI from the UK (reported by Argentina). For consistency when comparing between partners, users are advised to use UK-reported data as far as possible.

Background Notes

This document is one of a wider set of factsheets between the UK and its individual trade and investment partners which can be found on the Trade and Investment Factsheets website. All of these factsheets are published as Official Statistics as defined by the UK Statistics Authority, and are compliant with the Code of Practice for Statistics where they meet user needs as well as promoting trustworthiness, quality and public value in Government statistics. The publication of these factsheets as Official Statistics was agreed by the Chief Statistician at the Department for Business and Trade, who monitors these factsheets to ensure they continue to adhere to the Code of Practice for Statistics. These factsheets have not been formally assessed by the Office of Statistics Regulation and are therefore not designated as National Statistics.

As a requisite of publishing as Official Statistics, a quality and methodology report has been produced which outlines the quality of these factsheets, as well as providing more information on the methodology of the data sources presented here. This report contains hyperlinks to information on the strengths and weaknesses for each data source. Statistics contained in the factsheets from UK data providers all come from Official Statistics publications, with some sources also being from National Statistics publications.

Future updates of these factsheets can be found on the Government update schedule for Official Statistics. These scheduled updates are in line with significant updates from UK data providers when they release new data. Unscheduled releases of the factsheets may also be necessary to accommodate data updates where little or no advanced notice are given, such as in the case of international data updates. Please see the data update schedule and revisions policy in the quality and methodology report for more information. Please note that there may be occasions where more recent data than is provided here can be found directly from the data providers.

The Department for Business and Trade welcome any feedback or comments on these factsheets, please send these to statistics@businessandtrade.gov.uk.
