Freedom of Information request from XXXXXXXXXXXXXXX (reference FOICR 23565/12)

Information requested

I would like to know:

How many British Passports are currently held, broken down by country, age or gender if possible?

There is an estimated 48.5 million passports valid in circulation in the UK. This figure is an estimate based on the total number of passports issued in the last ten years and then takes into account that some of these issues would replace passports that had been lost or required replacing for other reasons. We do not collate information on the age demographic nor UK country of issue.

How many passports are reported lost each year, again if possible broken down by age or gender?

→ Also if available where it is they think they lost them i.e. abroad.

Year	Totals	No. of Lost Passports	No. of Stolen Passports	Other
2009	272,963	232,852	32,276	7,835
2010	279,106	238,905	31,732	8,469
2011	291,055	250,181	31,894	8,980

An age demographic breakdown is not available for this period.

How many passports get renewed each year, broken down by age gender if possible?

Year	Applications
2009	3,746,917
2010	4,074,162
2011	3,789,611

The figures above are for adult and child renewals, but an age breakdown for the above is not held.
