

ACMD

Advisory Council on the Misuse of Drugs

THE ADVISORY COUNCIL ON THE MISUSE OF DRUGS

Khat Review Evidence Gathering

OPEN MEETING

Wednesday 12th September 2012- 10:00am – 4.15pm
Central London

OPEN MEETING

The Advisory Council on the Misuse of Drugs (ACMD) invites members of the public to its khat evidence gathering meeting on Wednesday 12th September 2012. The purpose of the meeting is to gather evidence, in public session, to consider the harms of associated with the use of khat.

The ACMD is a statutory and non-executive non-departmental public body, established by the Misuse of Drugs Act (MDA) 1971. The ACMD has a statutory duty to keep under review the situation in the United Kingdom with respect to the misuse of drugs and to advise Ministers of the measures which they consider should be taken to deal with social problems which arise from drug misuse. In addition, the ACMD has a duty to consider any matter relating to drug dependence or misuse that may be referred to them by Ministers.

Attending the meeting

The meeting will be held in London, commencing at 10:00am. You will receive details of the venue with your confirmation email. There will be an opportunity for attendees to participate in a short question & answer session.

Attendance is FREE but by registration only as places are limited and restricted to one person per application. Places will be issued on a 'first come, first served' basis. To register to attend please complete the registration form below and email to ACMD@homeoffice.gsi.gov.uk

Registration forms are available on the Home Office website.

Alternatively, contact the ACMD Secretariat at:

ACMD Secretariat
3 Floor (SW Quarter)
Seacole Building
2 Marsham Street
London SW1P 4DF
Tel: 0207 035 0454/60