3) Explanation of missed deadlines

In May 2011 DCMS missed the following deadline:

Deadline missed	Reason
Publish best practice guidance around community delivery of public library services	The guidance is likely to be published in June.

The status of missed deadlines from previous reports is:

Deadline missed	Status	Comments
Announce findings of investigation into how to use cash in dormant betting accounts to set up a capital fund to improve local sports facilities and support sports clubs, and begin to implement (Jan 2011)	Still not complete	This was delayed to allow coordination with other related announcements. We expect to announce our findings shortly.
Agree with national museums a framework for creating charitable trusts, which will encourage and manage museum donations and private income (Mar 2011)	Still not complete	This work is ongoing including discussions with ministers and museums and further investigation about some of the technical questions. A final framework will be agreed shortly.

Publish final decision following consultation on local TV (Apr 2011)	Still not complete	The consultation ended on 13 April. We will publish a statement this month and a final decision will follow in the summer.
Implement measures to facilitate fundraising by cultural and charitable institutions: implement new framework and establish trusts (start Apr 2011)	Still not started	This work will start once the framework is agreed.

4) External delays

The following action was delayed for reasons outside the Department's control:

Delayed actions	Reason
6.4 (v) Review of the commercialisation and premature sexualisation of childhood published	The independent reviewer, Reg Bailey, has completed his evidence gathering and analysis. However, a suitable date in May could not be found for publication of his report and the Government's response. Arrangements are in hand for publication of the report and the Government's response, which will be laid in Parliament, as soon after the Whitsun recess as possible.
