PART B — NOTICE THAT THE STANDARD AUTHORISATION HAS CEASED TO BE IN FORCE

The standard authorisation has ceased to be in force, with effect from , for the following reason:

Place a cross in the box next to the reason that applies ↓

B1	The managing authority gave notice to the supervisory body that this person had ceased to meet the eligibility requirement. 28 days have now elapsed since that notice was given without the suspension having been lifted.	<input type="checkbox"/>
B2	The standard authorisation has expired.	<input type="checkbox"/>
B3	A review of the standard authorisation has been completed (under Part 8 of Schedule A1 to the Mental Capacity Act 2005). The review concluded that the person no longer meets the requirements for being deprived of their liberty under the Mental Capacity Act 2005.	<input type="checkbox"/>

B4	Following a change in the place where the person is deprived of their liberty, the standard authorisation has been replaced by a new standard authorisation and has therefore ceased to have effect.	<input type="checkbox"/>
B5	The Court of Protection or another court has made an order that the standard authorisation is invalid or that it shall no longer have effect.	<input type="checkbox"/>
B6	The person has died.	<input type="checkbox"/>
B7	The standard authorisation has ceased to be in force for some other reason, which is that given immediately below.	<input type="checkbox"/>

If you placed a cross next to box B7, state the reason here:

PART C — PROVIDING COPIES OF THIS NOTICE

If you have received a copy of this notice, it is because the supervisory body is required to give notice that a standard authorisation has ceased to be in force to the following persons:

- (a) the managing authority of the relevant hospital or care home
- (b) the person who was the subject of the standard authorisation
- (c) the relevant person's representative
- (d) every person named by the best interests assessor in their report as an interested person whom they have consulted in carrying out their assessment.

This notice must be given as soon as practicable after the authorisation ceases to be in force.
