

Home Office

13 June 2013

Statistical News Release

Operation of police powers under the Terrorism Act 2000 and subsequent legislation: Arrests, outcomes, stops and searches: Great Britain, quarterly update to December 2012

This statistical release brings together information on terrorism arrests and outcomes and stops and searches.

Terrorism arrests and outcomes:

- There were 246 terrorism arrests in the 12 months to 31 December 2012, up from 170 in the previous 12 months and a total of 2,360 since 11 September 2001.
- Of those arrested in the 12 months to 31 December 2012, 43 persons (or 17%) were charged with a terrorism-related offence and, of these, 10 were convicted of a Terrorism Act offence (including Schedule 7 offences); 24 of those arrested were awaiting trial as at 25 April 2013.
- On 31 December 2012 there were 122 prisoners (both convicted and remanded) classified as terrorists or domestic extremists.

Stops and searches under sections 43 and 47A Terrorism Act 2000:

- There has as yet been no use of the new stop and search powers under s47A of the Terrorism Act 2000 since they were formally brought into use in March 2011.
- In the 12 months to 31 December 2012, 614 persons were stopped and searched by the Metropolitan Police Service under s43 of the Act, a 42% decrease over the previous 12 months.

Notes to editors

Arrests and outcomes data are as at 25 April 2013, the date of data provision to the Home Office.

It is currently planned to publish the 2012/13 annual release, covering the period up to and including March 2013, in September 2013.

The report is available online through the UK Statistics Authority website as well as the GOV.UK website.

This Statistical Bulletin has been produced by statisticians working in the Home Office Statistics Unit. Although this output is not currently given National Statistics accreditation, the protocols, including publication arrangements, for such statistics have been mirrored as closely as possible.

The governance arrangements in the Home Office for statistics were strengthened on 1 April 2008 to place the statistical teams under the direct management of a Chief Statistician who reports to the National Statistician with respect to all professional statistical matters.