

Horn of Africa – UK response to the crisis

The crisis is affecting 12.4 million people – more than the combined population of Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland. We know the situation will get worse in places before it gets better, with rains unlikely before the autumn.

The UK Government is providing lifesaving emergency assistance for more than 2.6 million people in the Horn of Africa.

The £52.25 million package announced on 16 July will provide emergency assistance to:

- 500,000 people in Somalia
- 130,000 refugees in the Dadaab refugee camp in Kenya.
- 200,000 people in Kenya
- 100,000 people in the Dolo Ado refugee camps in Ethiopia

On 3 July, the UK Government announced support for 1.36 million people facing starvation in Ethiopia. The £38 million package will provide emergency nutrition to 329,000 malnourished children and pregnant and breastfeeding mothers.

In addition to the £90.25 million outlined above, the UK Government's contribution of £5.044 million from the UN's Central Emergency Response Fund, brings the UK Government's overall emergency response to the Horn of Africa to £95.29 million.
