(3) Explanation of missed deadlines

In December 2011, HM Treasury did not miss any deadlines.

The status of deadlines missed from earlier reports is:

Deadline missed	Status	Comments
3.2 (v) Legislate to implement proposals subject to Parliamentary timetable (end Dec 2012)	Work still not started	Introduction of legislation delayed to take account of revised PLS timetable. The Government still aims to conclude the passage of legislation by December 2012
1.4(iv) Confirm detailed implementation plan for the increase in employee contributions announced in the Spending review, in response to the recommendation in the interim report of the Independent Public Service Pensions Commissioner (end Jun 2011)	Still not complete	The 2012-13 increased contribution rates for the principal civil service pension scheme, NHS pension scheme and Teachers' pension scheme can be found on departmental websites, following consultations in 2011. Responses to consultations on other schemes have not yet been announced, but will be set in time to come into effect by in April 2012. We therefore expect to realise the full savings for 2012-13 scored at the Spending Review. The Government remains committed to securing in full the Spending Review savings of £2.3bn in 2013-14 and £2.8bn in 2014-15 from further increases to member contributions, and will consult formally on implementation in due course. There will be a review of the impact of the 2012-13 contribution increases, including on opt-out, before taking final decisions on how future increases will be delivered. The funded nature of the local government scheme puts it in a different position and contributions rates will be considered in tandem with wider pension reforms as part of ongoing discussions with trades unions and employer

		groups. Responses to DCLG's consultation on contribution increases, which closes in January, will feed into those discussions. As set out in the Heads of Agreement signed in December, reform to the local government scheme may include zero contribution increases for all or the vast majority of members provided that overall financial restraints are met.
2.5(vii) Extend the Air Passenger duty to business jet passengers for the first time, and consult on the future structure of Air Passenger Duty (end Jun 2011)	Completed	The Government's response to the Air Passenger Duty consultation was published on 6 December 2011. This confirmed that the existing structure of Air Passenger Duty will be retained, and from 1 April 2013 the tax will be extended to cover flights taken aboard business jets.
2.12 (i) Work with the Scotland Office and Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs (HMRC) to implement the relevant proposals of the Calman Commission (end Jul 2011)	Still not complete	The progress of the implementation of the finance aspects of the Calman Commission is determined by passage of the Scotland Bill in the UK Parliament. This has now entered the Lords stages and Second Reading took place on 6 September. Provisional start date for Committee stages has been announced as 26 January. The Bill allows for the transfer of fiscal powers to Scotland to begin from April 2013 onwards.
