CHAIRMAN'S INTRODUCTION

The Commission and the Northern Ireland Court Service are aiming to implement fully Civil Legal Services under the Access to Justice (Northern Ireland) Order 2003 (AJO 2003) by the autumn of 2007. During 2006/07 the Commission will be engaging in the detailed preparatory work that will implement Civil Legal Services as set out in the AJO 2003. There are a number of key objectives the Commission will have to meet in order to be in a position to deliver Civil Legal Services. These include the development of revised financial eligibility criteria; revised statutory charge criteria; a fixed-fee framework for all civil work; the establishment of the NI Funding Code, and, the establishment of a Registration Scheme for providers of publicly-funded legal services.

In addition the Commission in partnership with the Northern Ireland Court Service will agree and implement streams of work identified by the initial phase of the Fundamental Legal Aid Review for the development of civil legal services. The Commission will begin the development of a mixed model of service delivery through formal consultation with the Voluntary Sector on potential pilot projects.

Preparing for the implementation of the Access to Justice (NI) Order 2003 will be a great challenge for the Commission during 2006/07. The Commission is committed to working closely with its sponsoring department, the Northern Ireland Court Service and with the providers of publicly funded legal services throughout this transition period.

While the Commission made considerable progress, whilst working within the very tight resource constraints that are common to all public service organisations, but there are some issues that the Commission has not been able to address completely during 2005/06. The Commission has now developed a more comprehensive plan to deliver Civil Legal Services under the AJO 2003, which can be accessed at www.nilsc.org.uk. The Commission anticipates that it will provide all publicly-funded civil legal services under the AJO 2003 by the end of 2007.

Along with my fellow Commissioners, I look forward to working further with our staff, the Northern Ireland Court Service, our sponsoring department, the legal profession, the voluntary sector and interested parts of the community to ensure fair and equal access to justice through the provision of publicly funded legal services.

Sir Anthony Holland
Chairman

THE CONTEXT

1.1 The Northern Ireland Legal Services Commission is an executive non-departmental public body that is sponsored by the Northern Ireland Court Service, a Department of the Lord Chancellor.

1.2 The Commission operates within:

- the powers conferred upon it by the Access to Justice (Northern Ireland) Order 2003
- the resources provided by Parliament, and
- Regulations, directions and guidance issued by Northern Ireland Court Service, including a Framework Document.

1.3 The Commission's Corporate Plan for 2004-2007 has set out its mission, aim, values and objectives as follows:

Mission

The Commission will promote fair and equal access to justice in Northern Ireland in its provision of publicly funded legal services

Our Aim

The Commission's aim is to provide high quality, customer-focused services that target those in greatest need, promote social inclusion and demonstrate value for money.

Values

The Commission is committed to these values in doing its work:

- fairness and equity;
- integrity and honesty;
- responsiveness to our customers' needs
- commitment to quality;
- valuing and developing our staff;
- openness and accountability.

1.4 The Corporate Plan identifies two main corporate objectives for the period 2004 to 2007:

- to improve the delivery of existing legal aid services; and
- to reform publicly funded legal services.

1.5 There are other very important factors in setting the context for the Commission's planning process:

- the Implementation Plan laid before Parliament¹
- the Government's spending plans and in particular the objectives set by HM Treasury under the 2004 Spending Review that impact on the Commission.
- the fundamental review of legal aid services in England and Wales initiated by Government,
- the Lord Chancellor's letter of 29 November 2004 commenting on the Commission's first corporate and business plans*; and,
- the target date for the implementation of the Access to Justice (NI) Order 2003 in autumn 2007.

1.6 Resources 2006/07: The budget for the Commission, both Grant-in-Aid (which funds the Commission's running costs) and for legal aid expenditure in 2006/07 is as follows:

	£m Cash	£m Resource
Grant in Aid	6.208	7.147
Criminal Defence Services	36.100	29.900
Civil Legal Services – Family	10.600	14.800
Civil Legal Services – Non Family	8.000	8.900
Total Legal Aid Funding	54.700	53.600
Total Funding 2006/07	60.908	60.747

The Commission employs 120 people.

REVIEW OF BUSINESS PLAN 2005/06

- 2.1 The Commission's business plan for 2005/06 set a very challenging agenda based on our knowledge at that stage of the issues facing us and on our commitment to make significant progress in tackling the inherited problems and to start the reform process.
- 2.2 The Commission was substantially successful in achieving those objectives set that could be met within the financial year.
- 2.3 Notable achievements include:
- All emergency applications for civil legal aid are dealt with within 3 days of receipt;
 - 80% of applications for extensions to legal aid and advice are decided within 48 hours of receipt;
 - 99% assessment of claims for Crown Court Criminal work under The Legal Aid for Criminal Court Proceedings (Costs) Rules (N.I.) 2005 processed and paid within 6 weeks of the claim being received;
 - 100% of claims for Article 3 Children Order work, outstanding since 1999, were assessed and paid under a negotiated fixed fee process by January 2006;
 - 60% of payments supporting the provision of legal advice and assistance are made within 8 weeks of receipt of claims;
- the procedures for the completion of civil legal aid forms were published and from 1 November 2005, 95% of all applications accepted for adjudication were complete and fit for purpose;
- 2.4 Notable developments during 2005/06, the Commission
- completed phase one of Mapping Legal Services;
 - established a Voluntary Sector Forum;
 - assumed the management from the Home Office of a contract with Law Centre (NI) for Asylum and Immigration legal services;
 - negotiated and implemented a settlement for Article 3 Children Order cases
 - conducted research in preparation for creating a fixed fee for Family Proceedings;
 - scoped the requirements for a Northern Ireland Funding Code and developing a critical path for its development and implementation;
 - scoped the requirements for the review of financial eligibility criteria;
 - met its targets set out in the Gershon Efficiency Plan agreed with the NICtS in March 2005;
- decreased staff turnover by 21% to 13% from 1 January 2003 to 30 November 2005;
 - improved staff attendance from 93% to 96% between 1 January 2003 to 30 November 2005;
 - upgraded and streamlined telephone access to the Commission;
 - embedded the forecasting model into the financial management of the Commission;
 - final agreement of standard terms and conditions of employment for all employees of the Commission;
 - upgraded many of the support systems within the Commission, including the financial accounting software, personnel system and the outsourcing of payroll;
 - successfully completed a pilot project with key provider firms on the electronic submission of Green Form applications;
 - implemented key personnel policies, including managing attendance, grievance and disciplinary matters;

REVIEW OF BUSINESS PLAN 2005/06 cont.

- achieved ISO 9001 registration;
 - completed the negotiation of a Joint Protocol on Communications and Partnership with the NI Law Society.
 - completed a population survey on Legal Need in Northern Ireland
 - commenced a pre-pilot on Collaborative Law; and
 - co-sponsored an important conference on the development of services providing an alternative to the legal process when parents are separating
2. 5 As the scale of work required to reform legal aid in preparation for the introduction of the AJO 2003 the Commission is aware that the 2005/06 plan set some targets that were too ambitious for the circumstances it faced. Nevertheless, the performance against the plan was substantial; a detailed account is contained at Appendix 1.
2. 6 The Commission was unable to make progress in:
- the number of outstanding criminal crown court claims submitted under The 1992 Rules remained high for most of 2005/06. Although, with the assistance of the Appropriate Authority and additional resources on loan from NICtS, the Commission began to bring this backlog down towards the end of the year;
 - the total time taken for an initial decision on a full application for civil legal aid continued to be too long although this was affected by the poor quality of many of the applications received.
2. 7 During 2006/07 the Commission will continue to work with the NICtS to eliminate the Crown Court Criminal backlog under the 1992 Regulations.

BUSINESS PLAN 2006/07

- 3.1 The Commission is working towards the introduction of Civil Legal Services in September 2007 thus creating the controlled environment necessary for the full implementation of the Access to Justice (NI) Order 2003. In order to deliver Civil Legal Services the Commission has developed a Delivery Plan setting out an ambitious work plan to be undertaken within a tight timescale. The Delivery Plan, which is a living document and will be periodically updated, can be accessed at www.nilsc.org.uk. This Business Plan should be read in conjunction with that document. The Business Plan is focused around four priority objectives:
- implementing civil legal services under the Access to Justice (NI) Order 2003 in late 2007;
 - delivering existing criminal services under The Legal Aid in Criminal Proceedings (Costs) Rules (Northern Ireland) 1992 and The Legal Aid for Crown Court Proceedings (Costs) Rules (Northern Ireland) 2005;
 - maintaining service delivery under The Legal Aid (General) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1965 and The Legal Aid, Advice and Assistance (Northern Ireland) Order 1981 within current resources while continuing the process of clearing all decision-making backlogs under the 1965 Regulations and the 1981 Order; and
 - ensuring that the Commission has the capability to implement Civil Legal Services and to provide high quality services under the Access to Justice (NI) Order 2003.
- Implementing Civil Legal Services under the Access to Justice (NI) Order 2003
- The Commission will be engaged in a programme of work which will culminate in the commencement of civil legal services in autumn 2007. The following key projects will commence in 2006/07 but will not reach fruition until 2007/08.
- 3.2 Funding Code and Alternative Funding Scheme
- 3.2.1 By March 2007 the Commission to have issued and completed consultations on a draft Funding Code.
- Key Activities:
- begin preparation of Guidance to underpin the Funding Code April 2006
 - consult on Exposure Document providing early thinking on the content and direction of the Funding Code by May 2006
 - conduct pre-consultation event focussing on options for future legal aid funding of money damages cases leading to full consultation on appropriate options by September 2006
- draft the NI Funding Code and conduct wide consultation by December 2006
- 3.2.2 Statutory based Fixed Fees
- By March 2007 the Commission to have proposed fees for all civil business including Children Order and Family work.
- Key Activities:
- implement first phase of new Fixed Fees arrangements starting with Children Order by June 2006
 - carry out research to inform and develop proposals on fixed fees for all business areas by March 2007
- 3.2.3 Registration Scheme
- By March 2007 the Commission to have developed and consulted on a draft Registration Scheme for all providers of publicly funded legal services
- Key Activities:
- issue an Exposure Document providing early thinking on the content and direction of the Registration Scheme by April 2006

* The Funding Code (the Code) will set out the criteria for determining whether civil legal services should be provided in particular cases and if so, what services are appropriate. The Code will replace the existing merits test for civil legal aid as laid down in article 10 (4) of the Legal Aid, Advice and Assistance (Northern Ireland) Order 1981.

Delivering existing arrangements for Civil Legal Aid

3.4 During 2006/07 the Commission will:

- make a first decision on 75% of properly prepared and completed applications for civil legal aid for payment within 12 weeks by July 2006 and 100% by March 2007;
- from October 2006, make a review decision on the refusal to grant civil legal aid on at least 60% of review applications within 12 weeks of lodgement of the application, and 98% of review applications by March 2007;
- continue to consider at least 98% of emergency applications within 3 working days;
- assess at least 75% of claims for civil legal work within 6 weeks by August 2006 and 98% by March 2007;
- make 95% of payments to providers within 30 days of liability accruing;
- introduce web based application for Legal Advice and Assistance by September 2006;

Ensuring the Commission's Capability

3.5 During 2006/07 the Commission will:

- continuously monitor performance against the Corporate and Business Plans, the Delivery Plan and the Delivery Programme and initiate any necessary remedial action;
- meet the Spending Review 2004 conditions agreed with NICtS;
- submit the Business Plan 2007/08, the Corporate Plan 2007/08-2009/10, the Annual Report and Accounts to NICtS within the statutory timescales;
