STATEMENT OF CHANGE IN IMMIGRATION RULES

The Home Secretary has, with effect from 23 May 1986, made the change hereinafter stated in the Rules laid down by him as to the practice to be followed in the administration of the Immigration Act 1971 for regulating entry into and the stay of persons in the United Kingdom, and contained in the statement laid before Parliament on 9 February 1983 (HC 169) (as amended)*:

The following shall be inserted after paragraph 1 of the said statement:

1A. Nothing in these rules shall be construed as permitting a person (other than a person referred to in section 1(5) of the Immigration Act 1971) to be granted entry clearance, leave to enter or remain or variation of leave as a spouse of another if he or she will be aged under 16 on the date of arrival in the United Kingdom or (as the case may be) on the date on which the leave to remain or variation of leave is granted.

*The amending statements were those laid before Parliament on 26 March 1985 (HC 293) and 15 July 1985 (HC 503) and that presented to Parliament in May 1985 (Cmnd 9539).
