- (a) in the case of an airline designated by the Government of the United Kingdom:
 - (i) the airline is established in the area of the United Kingdom under the Treaty on European Union and the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union and has a valid Operating Licence in accordance with European Union law; and
 - (ii) effective regulatory control of the airline is exercised and maintained by the European Union Member State responsible for issuing its Air Operator's Certificate and the relevant aeronautical authority is clearly identified in the designation; and
 - (iii) the airline is owned directly or through majority ownership and effectively controlled by any European Union Member States and/or the Republic of Iceland, the Kingdom of Norway, the Principality of Liechtenstein and the Swiss Confederation and/or national(s) of such States;
- (b) in the case of an airline designated by the Government of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region:
 - (i) the airline is incorporated in and has its principal place of business in the area of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region and has a valid Air Operator's Certificate in accordance with the applicable law of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region; and
 - (ii) the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region has and maintains effective regulatory control of the airline; and
- (c) the designated airline proves upon request of the other Contracting Party that it is qualified to meet the requirements to be fulfilled for the operation of international air transport normally and reasonably applied under the laws and regulations applicable in the area of that Contracting Party.

(3) Either Contracting Party shall have the right to replace, subject to the provisions of paragraphs (1) and (2) above, an airline it has designated by another airline. The newly designated airline shall have the same rights and be subject to the same obligations as the airline which it replaces.

ARTICLE 5

Refusal, Revocation, Suspension or Limitation of the Operating Authorisation

(1) Either Contracting Party may refuse, revoke, suspend or limit the operating authorisation or technical permissions of an airline designated by the other Contracting Party where:

- (a) in the case of an airline designated by the Government of the United Kingdom:

 - (v) the airline holds an Air Operator's Certificate issued by another European Union Member State and no bilateral air services agreement is in force between the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region and that other European Union Member State, and that European Union Member State has denied traffic rights to the airline(s) designated by the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region;
- (b) in the case of an airline designated by the Government of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region:

- (i) the airline is not incorporated in or does not have its principal place of business in the area of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region or does not have a valid Air Operator's Certificate in accordance with the applicable law of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region; or
- (ii) the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region does not have or is not maintaining effective regulatory control of the airline;

or

- (c) the designated airline does not comply with the laws or regulations normally and reasonably applied by the Contracting Party granting those rights; or
- (d) if that airline otherwise fails to operate in accordance with the conditions prescribed under this Agreement.

(2) Such refusal, revocation, suspension or limitation of the authorisation shall be preceded by consultations as provided for in Article 15 (Consultation) of this Agreement, unless an immediate suspension of operations or immediate limitations are necessary to avoid further infringements of laws or regulations.”

If the foregoing proposal is acceptable to the Government of the United Kingdom, I have the honour to propose that the present letter and your reply to that effect shall constitute an agreement between our two Governments, which shall enter into force on the date of your reply.
