HUMAN RIGHTS (continued) Convention against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment (continued) “The Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland has examined the reservations made by the Government of Pakistan to the Convention [against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment] on 23 June 2010, which read: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Article 3 – The Government of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan declares that provisions of Article 3 shall be so applied as to be in conformity with the provisions of its laws relating to extradition and foreigners. 2. Article 8 – The Government of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan declares that pursuant to Article 8, paragraph 2, of the Convention, it does not take this Convention as the legal basis for cooperation on extradition with other States Parties. 3. Article 4, 6, 12, 13 and 16 – The Government of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan declares that the provisions of these Articles shall be so applied to the extent that they are not repugnant to the Provisions of the Constitution of Pakistan and the Sharia laws. 4. Article 28 – In accordance with Article 28, paragraph 1, of the Convention, the Government of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan hereby declares that it does not recognize the competence of the Committee provided for in Article 20. 5. Article 30 – The Government of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan does not consider itself bound by Article 30, paragraph 1 of the Convention. In the view of the United Kingdom a reservation should clearly define for the other States Parties to the Convention the extent to which the reserving State has accepted the obligations of the Convention. Reservations which consist of a general reference to a constitutional provision, law or system of laws without specifying their contents do not do so. The Government of the United Kingdom therefore objects to the reservations made by the Government of Pakistan to Articles 3, 4, 6, 12, 13 and 16. The United Kingdom will re-consider its position in light of any modifications or withdrawals of the reservations made by the Government of Pakistan to the Convention.” This text can also be found on the depository website of the United Nations below (ref. DEFENCE
Treaty on Conventional Armed Forces in Europe (CFE)	Paris 19 Dec., 1990	044/1993 Cm 2294
On 28 November 2011, the United Kingdom sent a Note Verbal to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Kingdom of the Netherlands, as depositary, circulated the following text: The United Kingdom presents its compliments to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Kingdom of the Netherlands in its capacity as the Depositary for the Treaty on Conventional Armed Forces in Europe signed in Paris on 19 November 1990 (the CFE Treaty).

RATIFICATIONS, ETC.

	Date	Treaty Series and Command Paper Nos.
DEFENCE (continued) Treaty on Conventional Armed Forces in Europe (CFE) (continued) The United Kingdom refers back to Note Verbal No. 143, dated 11 December 2007, in which the United Kingdom noted the intention of the Russian Federation (stated in its Note Verbal No. 86, dated 14 July 2007) to start its suspension of the operation of the CFE Treaty and the Flank Document beginning from 12 December 2007. Neither the CFE Treaty nor the Flank Document contains any provision enabling a State Party to carry out such suspension. Since December 12, 2007, the Russian Federation has failed to fulfil its obligations under the Treaty on Conventional Armed Forces in Europe and the Flank Document. Since that date the United Kingdom has repeatedly called on the Russian Federation to return to full compliance with its Treaty obligations. The United Kingdom has continued to perform its obligations under the CFE Treaty and the Flank Document with respect to the Russian Federation while pursuing talks among the CFE States Parties aimed at finding a mutually satisfactory resolution. But, the United Kingdom has also clearly stated that the situation in which it fully implemented its obligations towards the Russian Federation, while the Russian Federation did not reciprocate could not continue indefinitely. Accordingly, the United Kingdom decided that, for as long as the Russian Federation continues not to perform its obligations under the CFE Treaty and the Flank Document, the United Kingdom would from 22 November 2011, and in the hope that it will encourage the Russian Federation to return to its Treaty obligations: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> no longer provide information to the Russian Federation in the annual data exchange that takes place under the terms of the CFE Treaty on 15 December; no longer provide any notifications to the Russian Federation under the terms of the CFE Treaty; no longer accept inspections requested by the Russian Federation pursuant to the CFE Treaty. The United Kingdom will continue to perform its obligations vis-à-vis States Parties to the CFE Treaty and the Flank Document other than the Russian Federation, including with respect to numerical limitations on conventional armaments and equipment established by the Treaty.

RATIFICATIONS, ETC.

DEFENCE (continued) Treaty on Conventional Armed Forces in Europe (CFE) (continued) The United Kingdom bases this decision upon the material breach by the Russian Federation of its obligations under the CFE Treaty and the Flank Document in suspending them. The United Kingdom would like to emphasise that it remains committed to conventional arms control in Europe and remains open to continued good faith negotiations with the Russian Federation and other interested states in order to find a mutually acceptable solution regarding implementation of the CFE Treaty and the Flank Document. The United Kingdom calls upon the Russian Federation to engage constructively on the outstanding issues of transparency during negotiations and of host nation consent in order that we can move forward to a strengthened and modernised conventional arms control regime in Europe. The United Kingdom kindly asks the Depositary expeditiously to convey this information to all the States Parties to the CFE Treaty. The United Kingdom avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Kingdom of the Netherlands the assurance of its highest consideration.

On 22 December 2011, the Secretary-General of the United Nations, as depositary, circulated a notification from the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland relating to withdrawal of reservation under Article 12.4. The above action was affected on 21 December 2011. The reservation which has been withdrawn reads as follows: “The United Kingdom’s arrangements, whereby the Secretary of State may appoint a person to exercise rights in relation to Social security claims and payments on behalf of an individual who is for the time being unable to act, are not at present subject to the safeguard or regular review, as required by Article 12.4 of the Convention and the UK reserves the right to apply those arrangement. The UK is therefore working towards a proportionate system of review.” This text can also be found on the depositary website of the United Nations below (ref.
