

Satellites

Harnessing powerful location and imaging data to transform industries

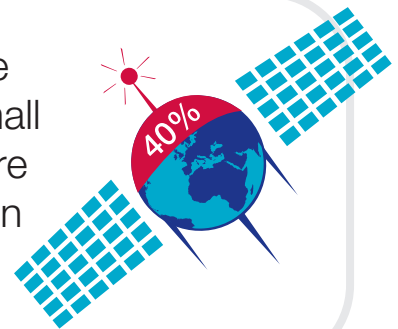

UK research strength

Satellite and space technologies have enabled UK researchers to create a device for detecting TB in remote regions

UK industrial capability

40% of the world's small satellites are produced in the UK

Multiple applications

A UK company provides satellite-based solutions to allow coffee farmers to enhance their crop

Satellites enable today's television, internet, navigation, weather and shipping forecasts

UK growth opportunities

£8.2bn added to the UK economy by space industries:
16% growth since 2009

