Part 3 – If you cannot go to the interview

Phone Jobcentre Plus straight away on

Important

To get Jobseeker's Allowance you must go to interviews unless you have a good reason. Tell Jobcentre Plus as soon as you can why you cannot go to the interview. Your benefit could be suspended if Jobcentre Plus cannot put off the interview to another time. If you do not go to an interview, Jobcentre Plus will ask a decision maker to decide if you have a good reason.

Your Jobseeker's Allowance and National Insurance credits may be stopped if the decision maker decides that you do not have a good reason for not going to an interview.
