Discuss the ways that children, who are receiving appropriate care might ‘signal’ their developmental needs when:

- newborn
- a toddler
- a child of school age
- a teenager

Then discuss the ways that neglect of developmental needs may be signaled by children at different ages, either overtly or more subtly.