Audience Groups 3-8 (Working Together 2010)

Methods Work in pairs

Preparation
The exercise will use:

- F2.0 Henderson/Miller/Taylor family case study
- F2.3 Michelle’s story
- F2.6 Michelle’s history
- F2.7 Michelle’s chronology

You may also want to play Michelle’s story to the group:

- M2.3 Michelle’s story

Large sheets of paper and felt pens. The whole exercise can be done in pairs, or it can prompt group discussion.

Learning Outcomes
To assess the nature and extent of a child’s developmental needs.

Process
This exercise aims to explore the impact on a child’s life of loss and separation, and to consider the impact on the child’s future. Ask participants to work in pairs to build on the chronology for Michelle’s experiences to date using the headings.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Event</th>
<th>Child’s experience</th>
<th>Immediate impact</th>
<th>Longer term impact</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Consider the meaning of those experiences for the child or young person:

- What services does this suggest Michelle might benefit from?
- In what ways could Michelle benefit from services provided for a short period of time?

During the plenary, it might be helpful to discuss the benefits to Michelle of a trusting working relationship with a practitioner including opportunities to reflect the impact of her past experience on her future parenting capacity.

Time
Total: 1 hour
