

408

From: Eric N Drinkwater
Sent: 25 May 2013 08:57
To: Pubs Consultation Responses
Subject: Option 3

Dear Sir/Madam,

For many years I have considered that tied licences in Public Houses were unfair and gave a distinct advantage to those who were free agents, allowing them to purchase goods in a free market. This gives a distinct advantage in the customer market and helps to drive up rents to the licensee and has led to the demise of many public houses across Britain. Therefore I strongly support Option 3 in the current consultation.

Eric.N.Drinkwater
Councillor for Lichfield District and Burntwood Town

This email was received from the INTERNET.

Communications via the GSi may be automatically logged, monitored and/or recorded for legal purposes.
