The Cabinet Office recently launched a public consultation on proposals for reforming the RIA process. The consultation closed on 16 October. The proposals are intended to embed the Impact Assessment process at the heart of policymaking; to improve the quality of economic and other analysis which underpins policymaking and to increase the transparency of the Impact Assessment process. The consultation document can be found here:

The Cabinet Office is currently considering the proposals in light of the responses and discussions with other Government departments. The Government will respond to the consultation in due course.

Listed below are full and final RIAs completed by departments during the period 1st January to 30th June 2006, together with a list of departmental contacts. Where the RIAs are not yet available on departmental websites, please contact the relevant department to request a hard copy.
