1. Apologies

There were no apologies.

2. Minutes of 4th November

The Panel approved the minutes and advised that they could now be published on the IAPNCM webpage.

Action 1: AC to publish minutes.

3. Minutes of 12th November

The Panel noted that the minutes had been sent in draft form. The Panel collectively agreed a number of amendments. SS said he would make the necessary changes and the Panel would review them a final time at the next meeting.

Action 2: SS to amend the minutes.

4. Matters arising and action log

In relation to action point 6 of the 12th November meeting, the Panel agreed that this could be closed.

The Panel referred to action point 4 of the 12th November meeting and agreed that this could be closed.

MS informed the Panel that Jonathan Nancekivell-Smith had been appointed as the Home Secretary's Principal Private Secretary. In the period before a permanent successor is appointed, his role has been distributed between Karen Abdel-Hady and Nick Hearn.

MS advised the Panel that she would be based with NOMS on a regular basis to help ensure that the package is completed within the set timescales.

5. Home Office response to rule 43 letter

The Panel reviewed the Home Office's response to the Coroner's rule 43 letter following the Jimmy Mubenga inquest and noted its content.

6. Volume 5 (continued)

The Panel discussed their comments on volume 5 at length. DA had suggested an amendment to one paragraph that he agreed to reword to capture the Panel's concerns regarding handcuffs and the waist restraint belt.

Action 3: DA to re-draft the paragraph and disseminate to the Panel.

The Panel agreed to finalise their comments on volume 5 and send them to NOMS this week.

7. NOMS response to Panel comments on Volume 3

This was included under agenda item 8.

8. New Volume 2/3

The Panel debated the new volume 2/3 at length. It was agreed that the new volume was not acceptable. The Panel agreed to share their individual comments with JAS who would draft the Panel's comments for a further discussion at the next meeting.

Action 4: JAS to draft the Panel's comments on volume 2/3.

9. Part 3 of the Panel's report

The Panel agreed for that this would be discussed in full at the next meeting.

10. AOB

The Panel discussed the timings of the demonstrations on 2nd December.

SS reported that he would be visiting Heathrow for an airside tour of the short term holding facilities at the terminals.

There was no further business and the meeting was closed.

Next meeting via teleconference: Monday 25th November.
