- 4.1 The Chief Executive shall provide You with the means for an Authorised User to Access the Organisation Portal.
- 4.2 The Chief Executive shall not be liable for any errors, omissions, inaccurate or corrupt information including, but not limited to, any defects caused by the transmission of this information over electronic networks.
- 4.3 The Chief Executive implements a rigorous data quality and data challenge framework to ensure that data has not been accidentally changed and will work with stakeholders to maximise the quality of data held in the Organisation Portal. The Chief Executive will publish and consult with stakeholders on key performance measures for assessing its performance on data quality.
- 4.4 The Chief Executive shall use best endeavours to maintain the Organisation Portal to the service levels as set out in the Service Charter. The Chief Executive does not guarantee the accuracy, timeliness, completeness, performance or fitness for a particular purpose of the Organisation Portal and the data held within. Further, the Chief Executive does not warrant that the Organisation Portal will be uninterrupted or error free or that any defects will be corrected.
- 4.5 Save in respect of death or personal injury resulting from His negligence or fraud, the Chief Executive is not liable for any loss You suffer including, without limitation, indirect, special or consequential loss, or any damages arising from loss of use, goodwill, data or profits, whether in contract, tort or otherwise, arising out of or in connection with use of the Organisation Portal.

5. Your general responsibilities

- 5.1. You agree to input current, complete and accurate information into the Organisation Portal.
- 5.2. You are responsible for protecting the confidentiality of all the information You input into the Organisation Portal and for complying with all guidelines issued by the Chief Executive from time to time in order to prevent unauthorised access to the Organisation Portal. You agree to immediately notify the Learning Records

Service Business Team, The Skills Funding Agency, Cheylesmore House, Quinton Road, Coventry, CV1 2WT should You become aware of any unauthorised use of Your Organisation Reference Number or any other unauthorised use of the Organisation Portal.

- 5.3. You shall not provide any inaccurate, misleading or false information to the Chief Executive either in any communication or when you register for access to the Organisation Portal.
- 5.4. You shall notify the Chief Executive of the name and contact details of the Super-User as soon as practicable after signing this Agreement. You shall promptly inform the Chief Executive of any changes to Your Super-Users (e.g. change to contact details or contact representative).
- 5.5. You shall control the access by maintenance staff and visitors to the physical area(s) within Your organisation where the Organisation Portal is accessed and You must implement measures to prevent theft of property from such areas.
- 5.6. You shall use reasonable endeavours to ensure that Authorised Users only Access the Personal Learning Record, on a Learner's behalf, once the Learner's identity has been verified and the Learner has received the Privacy Notice.
- 5.7. The Chief Executive, Awarding Organisations, Learning Providers and other third parties may not use achievement data or other information obtained from the Organisation Portal for commercial gain.
- 5.8. You shall not use mobile devices to store or access personal data from the Organisation Portal except in accordance with guidance on the use of mobile devices published on the website. www.learningrecordsservice.org.uk
- 5.9. Mobile devices shall not be used to store, transmit or access any personal data on the Organisation Portal unless the device has been certified to FIPS 140-2 or is CAPS approved, or has been secured using a product which has successfully undergone one of these evaluations.
- 5.10. Where You require Authorised Users to use Mobile Devices to store, access or transmit LRS data, the Learning Records Service Helpdesk must be informed of the proposed devices and the controls to be put in place around their usage.

6. Your responsibility to manage Authorised Users

- 6.1. You must ensure that only Authorised Users may Access the Organisation Portal..

- 6.2. You shall ensure that all Authorised Users Accessing the Organisation Portal:
- 6.2.1. have been appropriately vetted under your organisation's appropriate internal procedures;
 - 6.2.2. are given appropriate training both in the use of Organisation Portal to fulfil their working responsibilities and in security awareness to meet their obligations to maintain the confidentiality, integrity and availability of the Organisation Portal as set out under the Computer Misuse Act 1990, Data Protection Act 1998, Freedom of Information Act 2000, Human Rights Act 1998 and Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act 2000 and Authorised Users must accept the USER Agreement of the Organisation Portal as set out on the Website.;
 - 6.2.3. ensure the accuracy of content and compliance with privacy standards whilst using the Organisation Portal; and
 - 6.2.4. comply with the User Agreement.
- 6.3. You shall distribute passwords or other unique secure user information to Authorised Users in a secure and confidential manner and shall use reasonable endeavours to ensure that Authorised Users do not divulge Logon Information to third parties.
- 6.4. You shall only provide access to specific functions within the Organisation Portal to Authorised Users where there is a documented business need to enable them to perform their roles within Your organisation. You must undertake regular cross-checks to ensure that all Authorised Users, particularly those with access to specific functions, have been properly authorised to Access the Organisation Portal.
- 6.5. You must ensure that You authenticate the identity of all Authorised Users at the time that they log onto and access the Organisation Portal and that You regulate the use made by Authorised Users of the Organisation Portal in accordance with applicable law. You must revoke or amend (as relevant) the Access of Authorised Users to the Organisation Portal in the event that such Authorised Users leave Your organisation or are transferred to a new role within Your organisation.
- 6.6. You are responsible for ensuring that Your Authorised Users use of the Organisation Portal complies with this Agreement.
- 6.7. Where computer workstations are used to Access the Organisation Portal, You must put procedures in place to prohibit Authorised Users of such workstations from installing illegal or unauthorised software. You shall ensure that such workstations include functions to identify and remove malicious software and viruses.

- 6.8. Where Authorised Users Access the Organisation Portal using laptop computers, You must ensure that such laptop computers are BIOS password enabled and loaded with an access control and disk encryption package to provide protection from unauthorised access.
- 6.9. Before You permit Authorised Users to use wireless networks to Access the Organisation Portal, You must carry out a risk assessment of the need to authenticate Authorised Users and the need to encrypt all traffic from and to the Organisation Portal where wireless technology is used. In the event that the risk assessment identifies a material risk of unauthorised access to the Organisation Portal through the use of wireless technology, You must not allow Authorised Users to use wireless networks to Access the Organisation Portal.
- 6.10. You shall develop an appropriate procedure for Authorised Users to report security breaches. In the event of a security breach, You shall ensure that a review is undertaken and You must ensure that any countermeasures recommended from such a review are implemented satisfactorily.
- 6.11. You shall use reasonable endeavours to monitor the compliance of Authorised Users with the terms of this Clause 6. In the event that You become aware of any unauthorised use or other Default of this Agreement You must immediately notify the Learning Records Service Helpdesk using the contact details shown at Appendix C and take all reasonable and appropriate steps, including any necessary disciplinary action, both to ensure that such activity ceases and to prevent the reoccurrence of such activity in the future.
- 6.12. You shall keep complete and up-to-date records of all Authorised Users and their details of Access to the Organisation Portal.

7. Content on the Organisation Portal

You must apply the relevant business impact level (BIL) label for information and ICT systems in accordance with HMG Information Assurance guidance and standards. You are responsible for assessing the BIL for confidentiality, integrity and availability of information assets as independent properties according to the relevant operational environment.

8. Termination

- 8.1. Either Party may terminate this Agreement at any time by providing written notice of termination to the other party. Notice shall be deemed duly given by You if signed by or on behalf of a duly authorised person and sent to the address shown in Appendix C and to You using the details supplied in the Organisation Registration Form.
- 8.2. In the event of termination of this Agreement, You shall:
 - 8.2.1. cease having Access to the Organisation Portal;
 - 8.2.2. stop using the Organisation Portal; and
 - 8.2.3. securely destroy any information sourced from the Organisation Portal.
- 8.3. For the avoidance of doubt, Access by Authorised Users to the Organisation Portal shall terminate immediately upon termination of this Agreement.

9. Miscellaneous

- 9.1. The Chief Executive is not required to provide any additional support or further information in respect of the Organisation Portal.
- 9.2. For the avoidance of doubt, the Chief Executive may take whatever action it reasonably deems necessary if it suspects or detects that You, any Authorised User or Your Learners are involved in any fraudulent activity of any sort relating to the Organisation Portal. Such action may include suspending Your Access to the Organisation Portal and/ or terminating this Agreement.
- 9.3. You acknowledge that Awarding Organisations are the authoritative source of any achievement data held in the PLR. Neither Party to this Agreement shall be deemed to be in default or liable to the other Party in any manner whatsoever for any delays in performance or from failure to perform or comply with the terms of this Agreement due to any event which is beyond the reasonable control of that Party.
- 9.4. No waiver by a Party of any Default of this Agreement shall operate as a waiver of any subsequent or continuing Default.

- 9.5. If any provision of this Agreement is held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable for any reason by any court of competent jurisdiction, such provision shall be severed and the remaining provisions shall continue in full force and effect as if this Agreement had been executed with the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provision eliminated.
- 9.6. A person who is not a Party to this Agreement has no right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce or to enjoy the benefit of any term of this Agreement.
- 9.7. Save for any representation made fraudulently, this Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties relating to the subject matter of this Agreement and no Party has relied on any undertaking, statement, warranty, undertaking or representation made by any other Party or any other person except for as expressly set out in this Agreement.
- 9.8. This Agreement is governed by the laws of England and Wales and the Parties hereby submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales.

Appendix A – Permitted Purposes and Use of data

You shall only use the information that You obtain through the Organisation Portal and PLR for the Permitted Purposes set out below:

- to Access achievement (prior current/new and destination) for enabling enrolment/entry/progression in education and training;
- to manage eligibility and entitlements, and claims to public funding;
- to support credit accumulation and transfer, to measure learner success;
- to provide information, advice and guidance for career progression, employment opportunities or the next step in learning and availability of public funding;
- to meet legal and regulatory requirements in the provision of education and training.

Appendix B – Ethical Walls

The Chief Executive makes two types of agreement available for organisations accessing and using the PLR:

- the Learning Provider Agreement – this agreement is for Learning Providers and allows them full access to the PLR; and
- the Awarding Organisation Agreement – this agreement is for Awarding Organisations and provides partial access to the PLR.

However, a number of organisations act in a capacity of both Awarding Organisation and Learning Provider in respect of the use of the PLR. Therefore, the members of the Party to this Agreement operating as a Learning Provider must ensure they do not:

- discuss or provide any information gained from the PLR with any member of the Party operating as an Awarding Organisation; or
- disclose or make available to a member of the Party operating as an Awarding Organisation any information in relation to the PLR that is not in the public domain.

The Learning Provider shall notify the Chief Executive as soon as possible of any instance of non-compliance with this Agreement. Upon becoming aware of any such non-compliance, the Learning Provider shall, without prejudice to the Chief Executive's rights under this Agreement:

- carry out a review to ascertain the reasons for and extent of such non-compliance;
- take such steps as are necessary to minimise the risk of such non-compliance occurring again; and
- implement procedures for the immediate reporting to the Chief Executive of any unexpected or unusual requests for access to or copies of documents.

The Learner Provider shall at all times monitor and ensure strict enforcement by all relevant staff and personnel of its obligations in this Agreement and in particular shall:

- implement strict and carefully defined procedures for dealing with a situation where it is felt that the Ethical Walls have been crossed and maintain proper records of such an event; and
- monitor the effectiveness of the Ethical Walls and take all necessary steps where it is found that the Ethical Walls have not been effective.

Appendix C – Useful Contact Details

This agreement must be signed by a duly authorised person within your organisation who has the appropriate authority to enter into a binding contract on behalf of your organisation. The following is a list of roles and functions that are deemed by the Chief Executive to represent a person likely to have appropriate authority to sign this Agreement. However, sole responsibility to ensure that this contract is signed by an authorised person resides with the organisation applying for access to these services.
