The Data Protection Act 1998

The new Data Protection Act requires that the Environment Agency advise its customers how data relating to individuals will be processed and disclosed.

The information provided by yourselves will be processed by the Environment Agency to deal with your application, to monitor compliance with the licence/permit/registration conditions, to process renewals, and for maintaining the relevant public register(s).

We may also process and/or disclose it in connection with the following:

- offering/providing you with our literature/services relating to environmental matters;
- consulting with the public, public bodies and other organisations (e.g. Health and Safety Executive Local Authorities, Emergency Services, DEFRA) on environmental issues;
- carrying out statistical analysis, research and development on environmental issues;
- providing public register information to enquirers;
- investigating possible breaches of environmental law and taking any resulting action;
- preventing breaches of environmental law; and
- assessing customer service satisfaction and improving our service.

We may pass it on to our agents/representatives to do these things on our behalf.
