NHS Savile Legacy Unit

Terms of Reference for the NHS Savile Legacy Unit

The NHS Savile Legacy Unit will:

- Contact - Ensure any victims or witnesses coming forward since the publication of the NHS investigation reports in June 2014 are referred and supported appropriately via dedicated e-mail and telephone contact point; including for onward referral to the relevant NHS Trust for thorough investigation;
- Referral - Provide a single point of NHS contact for any external parties for Savile related enquiries; establish clear referral pathways to address potential investigation of cases identified from reports to the police; from charities (such as NSPCC, Victim Support; NAPAC); from legal representatives of victims; from NHS Trusts, and from individuals themselves; and to refer for investigation by NHS Trusts information or reports of abuse, including where there was a risk that abuse had occurred;
- Advice and liaison - Provide guidance to relevant NHS Trusts in the carrying out of investigations into new allegations, and through robust oversight processes, to assure the quality and consistency in the standards of their investigations and subsequent reports. Establish regular liaison with the police, NSPCC, NAPAC and Victim Support;
- Report - Produce a factual, summary report of all new NHS investigations undertaken by NHS Trusts by January 2015.
