

From the Chairman

OFFICE OF THE ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON BUSINESS APPOINTMENTS

G/7 Ground Floor, 1 Horse Guards Road SW1A 2HQ

You asked for the Committee's advice about taking up a part-time, paid appointment (working two days per month) as a consultant with Mr Harish Mehta.

In considering your application, the Committee took into account that you have had no official dealings with your prospective employer in your ministerial capacity. The Committee also considered the fact that you did not have dealings with any competitors. The Committee further noted that it is now 10 months since you left office.

Our advice is that we see no reason why you should not take up the appointment forthwith, subject to the following conditions:

- you should not draw on any privileged information available to you from your time in Government; and
- for two years from the date of your leaving office, you should not become personally involved in lobbying UK Government on behalf of your new employer, its parent company or their clients.

It might be helpful if I add that lobbying is defined in the Business Appointment Rules in the following way: "Lobbying in this context means that the former civil servant should not engage in communication with Government - including Ministers, special advisers and officials - with a view to influencing a Government decision or policy in relation to their own interests, or the interests of the organisation by which they are employed, or to whom they are contracted".

I should be grateful if you would inform us as soon as you take up the appointment or, if earlier, when it is announced that you will do so, either by returning the enclosed form or by emailing this office at the above address. We shall otherwise not be able to deal with any enquiries, since we do not release information about appointments which have not been taken up or announced. This could lead to a false assumption being made about whether you had complied with the Ministerial Code. Similarly, I should be grateful if you would inform us if you propose to extend or otherwise change your role with Mr Mehta as, depending on the circumstances, it may be necessary for you to seek fresh advice.

Once the appointment has been publicly announced or taken up, we will publish this letter on the Committee's website and include the main details of the application, together with the Advisory Committee's advice, in the regularly updated consolidated list on our website and in the next annual report.
