3. Object. The object of the Fund shall be the provision of a common investment fund for the investment of sums of money and other property from time to time transferred to the Fund by or on behalf of a Participating Charity: Provided that the Participating Charities shall be entitled, subject to the provisions of this Scheme, to the capital and income of the Fund in shares determined by reference to the amount or value of the moneys or property transferred to the Fund by or on behalf of each Participating Charity and to the value of the Fund at the time of the transfers.

4. Units. The shares of the Participating Charities in the Fund shall consist of units (including fractions of a unit), each unit representing one undivided share in the property of the Fund, except in the circumstances mentioned in clause 5(2) below.

5. Types of units. (1) Units may be of two types:

(a) income units, in respect of which an appropriate part of the property of the Fund is distributed periodically to Participating Charities; and

(b) accumulation units, in respect of which an appropriate part of the property of the Fund is credited periodically to the capital of the Fund.

(2) When both income and accumulation units are in issue, that part of the property of the Fund which is allocated to the accumulation units in accordance with the provisions of clause 48(4) shall be accumulated and capitalised by the Trustee, and the Trustee shall at the same time increase the number (including fractions) of undivided shares which together constitute the accumulation units then in existence in accordance with clause 48(5). Any accumulation units issued thereafter shall each represent when issued the same number (including fractions) of undivided shares in the capital of the property of the Fund as each other accumulation unit then in existence.

6. Qualification to participate. Subject to section 97(1) of the Charities Act, any Charity shall be qualified to participate in the Fund. [Alternatively, for Funds with restricted entry provision, the sentence is: Subject to section 97(1) of the Charities Act, any charity established for the purpose of.....(state the object group).....shall be qualified to participate in the Fund.] Any Charity applying to participate may be required by the Trustee to give a declaration of eligibility to participate and an indemnity against liabilities arising out of its ineligibility.

7. Application of AIFMD to the Manager and Trustee (1) The duties and requirements imposed upon the Trustee and the Manager under this Scheme must be performed in compliance with, and subject to, any additional duties and requirements imposed upon the Manager and the Trustee under the AIFMD implementing measures. This will constitute the regulation of the Fund as an investment fund. The Commission will only regulate the Fund as a charity.

(2) If there is any conflict between the standards and liability imposed upon the Manager and the Trustee under this Scheme and the standards and liability imposed upon the Manager and the Trustee under the AIFMD implementing measures, the standards and liability imposed upon the Manager and the Trustee under the AIFMD implementing measures will prevail.

(3) Any rights or discretion exercisable by the Trustee or the Manager under this Scheme are exercisable only to the extent permitted by the AIFMD implementing measures.

8. Trustee. The body corporate called [##### ] shall be the first Trustee of the Fund.

9. Scope of responsibility. The Trustee shall be responsible for those aspects of the administration and management of the Fund and its property which are specified in clause 10 of this Scheme. To the extent of those duties and powers, the Trustee is a charity trustee of the Fund within the meaning of the Charities Act. The Trustee shall also act as depositary for the purpose of the AIFMD implementing measures.

10. Duties and powers of Trustee. (1) The Trustee shall comply with the duty of care when exercising its powers and discharging its duties under this Scheme.

(2) The following are the duties and powers of the Trustee -

(a) the supervision and oversight of the Manager's compliance with this Scheme and the Scheme Particulars. In particular, the Trustee shall be satisfied on a continuing basis that the Manager is competently exercising the powers and competently discharging the duties conferred or imposed on it by or pursuant to the provisions of this Scheme, and that the Manager is maintaining adequate and proper records: Provided that the Trustee's duty in relation to supervising the Manager's functions under clause 17(2) is limited to ensuring that decisions about the constituents of the property of the Fund do not exceed the power of investment conferred on the Manager;

(b) the supervision and oversight of any Registrar or other delegate which it has appointed in accordance with the provisions of this Scheme;

(c) the custody and control of the property of the Fund and the collection of all income due to the Fund in accordance with clause 11;

(d) the creation and cancellation of units in accordance with the instructions of the Manager (except where the Scheme Particulars permit the Trustee to disregard those instructions);

(e) the appointment of a Registrar in accordance with clause 42(4);

(f) making distributions to Participating Charities holding income units and making allocations to Participating Charities holding accumulation units in proportion to their respective shares in the property of the Fund;

(g) the appointment or dismissal of any person or persons engaged by the Trustee in connection with the Fund;

(h) the making of an annual report on the discharge of its responsibilities for the management of the Fund;

(i) winding up the Fund.

(3) The Trustee shall take all steps and execute all documents as are necessary to secure that instructions properly given to it by the Manager are carried out as to the exercise of rights (including voting rights) attaching to the ownership of property of the Fund.

(4) The Trustee shall take all steps and execute all documents which are necessary to secure that the purchases and sales of investments for or of the Fund are properly completed.

(5) The Trustee shall maintain such records as are necessary to enable it to comply with this Scheme and with section 130 of the Charities Act and to demonstrate that such compliance has been achieved.

(6) The duties which are imposed on the Trustee by this Scheme are in addition to the duties which are otherwise imposed on charity trustees by law, and where the duties imposed by the general law have been qualified or restricted by this Scheme, the Scheme provisions shall apply so far as the general law may permit.

11. Income of the Fund. The Trustee is responsible for the collection of any income due to be paid to the Fund and for claiming any repayment of tax which may be due, and shall hold any income received in trust for the Participating Charities in accordance with this Scheme.

12. Oversight and supervision of the Manager by the Trustee. (1) The Trustee shall oversee and supervise the Manager's compliance with this Scheme as provided in clause 10(2)(a).

(2) The Trustee shall not be responsible for the acts or defaults of the Manager in the exercise of the powers conferred on the Manager by this Scheme, or in the discharge of the duties imposed on the Manager by this Scheme, if the Trustee has complied with the duty of care when satisfying itself as to the matters specified in clause 10(2)(a).

(3) If the Trustee is not satisfied at any time as to the Manager's compliance with this Scheme or the Scheme Particulars, the Trustee shall inform the Commission promptly and in writing.

(4) If the Trustee is not satisfied at any time as to the Manager's compliance with the applicable requirements of the AIFMD implementing measures, the Trustee shall inform the Financial Conduct Authority promptly and in writing.

13. Delegation by the Trustee. (1) Any delegation by the Trustee shall comply with the applicable requirements of the AIFMD implementing measures.

(2) The Trustee shall not delegate any function of oversight of the Manager to an associate of the Manager.

(3) The Trustee shall require any delegate to report regularly to the Trustee on its performance of the functions delegated.

(4) While the delegate continues to act for the Fund, the Trustee-

(a) shall keep under review the arrangements under which the delegate acts and how those arrangements are being put into effect;

(b) if circumstances make it appropriate to do so, shall consider whether there is a need to exercise any power of intervention that it has; and

(c) if it considers that there is a need to exercise such a power of intervention, shall do so.

(5) The Trustee shall keep the Manager informed of any delegation of its functions.

(6) The Trustee shall be vicariously liable for the acts and defaults of the Manager when the Manager acts as the Trustee's delegate, but shall otherwise be liable for the acts and defaults of a delegate only if and insofar as it has failed to comply with the duty of care when selecting the person who is to act, when determining any terms on which the delegate is to act, or when carrying out its duties under sub-clause (4) of this clause.

14. Title to Property. All investments of the Fund, whether held in the name of the Trustee, or in the name of a nominee, shall be held on trust for the Participating Charities in such a manner that it is readily apparent that they are held by or on behalf of the Fund, and so that -

(1) the property of the Fund shall be segregated in the records of the Trustee, or of its nominee as the case may be, from any other property which is held by the Trustee or its nominee;

(2) where a nominee is appointed, the investments to which the Fund is entitled shall be separately identifiable from other property held by the nominee.

15. Manager. The body corporate called [##### ] shall be the first Manager of the Fund.

16. Scope of responsibility of the Manager. The Manager shall be responsible for those aspects of the administration and the management of the Fund and its property which are specified in clause 17 hereof. To the extent of those duties and powers, the Manager is a charity trustee of the Fund within the meaning of the Charities Act. For the avoidance of doubt the Manager shall be the AIFM and shall have the responsibility of ensuring compliance with the requirements of the AIFMD implementing measures.

17. Duties and powers of Manager. (1) The Manager shall comply with the duty of care when exercising its powers and discharging its duties under this Scheme.

(2) The Manager shall have all the duties and powers relating to the administration and management of the Fund (except the duties and powers of the Trustee set out in clause 10(2) hereof and the duties and powers of the Board set out in clause 32(2) hereof) and in particular, the following are the duties and powers of the Manager -

(a) giving instructions to the Trustee with respect to the creation and cancellation of units;

(b) the management of the investments of the Fund in conformity with the written statement of the investment objectives of the Fund made by the Board in conformity with clause 32(2)(a) hereof and with the written statement of investment policy made in conformity with clause 52(4) hereof;

(c) the duty to ensure that regular valuations of the property of the Fund as required by this Scheme are carried out and to ensure that the units are correctly priced;

(d) the making and revision of the Scheme Particulars in accordance with clause 57 hereof;

(e) keeping a daily record of units, including the type of such units, which the Manager has purchased or sold on behalf of the Trustee;

(f) making all records held by the Manager in respect of the Fund available for inspection by the Trustee free of charge at all times during the business day and supplying the Trustee with a copy or copies of any record without charge;

(g) preparing a report and accounts of the Fund in respect of every accounting period;

(h) the supervision and oversight of any delegate which it has appointed in accordance with the provisions of this Scheme;

(i) taking all other action as necessary for the administration and management of the Fund other than those duties or powers which have been imposed or conferred on the Trustee or the Board by this Scheme.

(3) The Manager shall maintain such records as are necessary to enable it to comply with this Scheme and with section 130 of the Charities Act and to demonstrate that such compliance has been achieved.

(4) The duties which are imposed on the Manager by this Scheme are in addition to the duties which are otherwise imposed on charity trustees by law, and where the duties imposed on charity trustees by the general law have been qualified or restricted by this Scheme, the Scheme provisions shall apply so far as the general law may permit.

18. Delegation by the Manager. (1) The Manager may delegate any of its functions to the extent permitted by the AIFMD implementing measures.

(2) The Manager shall require any delegate to report regularly to the Manager on its performance of the functions delegated.

(3) While the delegate continues to act for the Fund, the Manager -

(a) shall keep under review the arrangements under which the delegate acts and how those arrangements are being put into effect;

(b) if circumstances make it appropriate to do so, shall consider whether there is a need to exercise any power of intervention that it has; and

(c) if it considers that there is a need to exercise such a power of intervention, shall do so.

(4) The Manager shall keep the Trustee informed of any delegation of its functions.

(5) The Manager shall be vicariously liable for the acts and defaults of the Trustee when the Trustee acts as the Manager's delegate, but shall otherwise be liable for the acts and defaults of a delegate only if and insofar as it has failed to comply with the duty of care when selecting the person who is to act, when determining any terms on which the delegate is to act, or when carrying out its duties under sub-clause (3).

19. First Board members. The following persons shall be the first Board members of the Fund and, subject to the provisions of this Scheme for the termination of their appointment, shall be entitled to hold office for the periods set out after their names

#####, of #####, and

#####, of #####,

both for five years from the date of this Scheme;

#####, of #####, and

#####, of #####,

both for three years from the date of this Scheme;

#####, of #####,

for one year from the date of this Scheme.

20. Future Board members. Every future Board member shall be appointed for a term of five years by a resolution of the Board passed at a special meeting of which not less than 21 days' notice has been given and may be appointed not more than three calendar months before the term of an existing Board member expires with effect from the date of the expiry of such term but so that the latter shall not vote on the matter. Any competent Board member may be reappointed.

21. Declaration by Board members. (1) No person shall be entitled to act as a Board member of the Fund for any term of office without first signing a declaration of acceptance of, and willingness to act in, the trusts of the Fund.

(2) No Board member shall carry on an activity regulated by FSMA in relation to the Fund unless he is an authorised person or an exempt person. The declaration of acceptance of office shall state whether the Board member is so authorised or exempt.

22. Validity of proceedings. The proceedings of the Board members of the Fund shall not be invalidated by any vacancy in their number or by any defect in the qualification or appointment of any of them.

23. Termination of appointment of Board member. A Board member who is not, or who ceases to be, qualified in accordance with the provisions of clause 2 of this Scheme, or who is absent from at least three ordinary meetings of the Board during a period of twelve calendar months or who is disqualified from acting as a charity trustee or who is incapacitated from acting or who communicates in writing to the Board a wish to resign shall thereupon cease to be a Board member.

24. Ordinary meetings. The Board members shall hold at least four ordinary meetings each year to be held at times and places determined by the Board.

25. First meeting. The first meeting of the Board shall be summoned by [insert name] or if he fails for three calendar months after the date of this Scheme to summon a meeting, by any two of the Board members.

26. Chairman. The Board at their first ordinary meeting in each year shall elect one of their number to be Chairman of their meetings until the commencement of the first ordinary meeting in the following year. The Chairman shall always be eligible for re-election. If at any meeting the Chairman is not present within 10 minutes after the time appointed for holding the same or there is no Chairman, the Board members present shall choose one of their number to be Chairman of the meeting.

27. Special meetings. A special meeting may be summoned at any time by the Chairman or any two Board members upon not less than 4 days' notice being given to the Board members of the matters discussed, but if the matters include an appointment of a Board member then upon not less than 21 days' notice being so given. A special meeting may, but need not, be summoned to take place immediately before or after an ordinary meeting.

28. Quorum. There shall be a quorum where three Board members are present at a meeting.

29. Voting. Every matter shall be determined by the majority of votes of the Board members present and voting on the question. In case of equality of votes, the Chairman of the meeting shall have a casting vote whether or not he has previously voted on the same question, but no Board member in any other circumstances shall have more than one vote.

30. Secretary. The Board may appoint as Secretary of the Board any appropriate individual (whether or not one of their number) or company, whether or not also appointed or engaged under any other provision of this Scheme, upon such lawful and proper terms as to remuneration to be paid out of the property of the Fund, notice and other matters as the Board thinks fit. The Board may at any time remove the current Secretary of the Board from office. The Secretary of the Board, if a Board member, shall be appointed without remuneration.

31. Scope of responsibility of the Board. The Board members shall be responsible for those aspects of the administration and management of the Fund and its property which are specified in clause 32 of this Scheme. To the extent of those duties and powers, the Board members are charity trustees of the Fund within the meaning of the Charities Act. For the avoidance of doubt, the Board members shall have no responsibility for any of the functions of the AIFM.

32. Duties and powers of the Board. (1) The Board members shall comply with the duty of care when exercising their powers and discharging their duties under this Scheme.

(2) The following are the duties and powers of the Board:-

(a) the making and revision of the written statement of the investment objectives of the Fund and details of such investment objectives shall be included in the Scheme Particulars;

(b) determining the criteria and methods for evaluating the performance of the Fund;

(c) giving their prior written consent to the Manager to the exercise of the borrowing power set out in clause 54(3) hereof if the Board is satisfied that the proposed borrowing is in the best interests of the Participating Charities;

(d) the appointment of the auditor of the Fund and settling his terms of engagement;

(e) making an annual report on the discharge of the Board's responsibilities;

(f) determining the rate of remuneration of the Trustee and the Manager in accordance with clauses 37 and 38 hereof and the Scheme Particulars;

(g) making representations to the Trustee on the winding up of the Fund: provided that any Board member who has any interests in the Trustee or the Manager shall not participate in the Board's discussions and decisions relating to the Board's representations on the matter and shall not be counted in the quorum necessary for the transaction of such business.

(3) The Board shall inform the Financial Conduct Authority promptly and in writing if the Board is not satisfied at any time as to the compliance of the Trustee or the Manager with the applicable provisions of the AIFMD implementing measures.

(4) The Board shall inform the Commission promptly and in writing if the Board is not satisfied at any time as to the compliance of the Trustee or the Manager with this Scheme or the Scheme Particulars.

(5) The Board shall maintain such records as are necessary to enable it to comply with this Scheme and the Scheme Particulars.

(6) The duties which are imposed on the Board by this Scheme are in addition to the duties which are otherwise imposed on charity trustees by law, and where the duties imposed by the general law have been qualified or restricted by this Scheme, the Scheme provisions shall apply so far as the general law may permit.

33. Responsibilities of the Board. The Board members shall not be responsible for the acts or defaults of the Manager or the Trustee in the exercise of the powers conferred on the Manager or the Trustee by this Scheme or in the discharge of the duties imposed on the Manager or the Trustee by this Scheme, provided that the Board members have discharged their duty of care in the exercise of their powers under clause 32(2) hereof.

34. Delegation by the Board. The Board shall not delegate any of its functions to any person.

35. Timely discharge of duties. The Trustee and the Manager shall discharge their respective duties imposed by this Scheme with due dispatch unless delay is both lawful and in the interests of the Participating Charities.

36. Expenses. (1) The Trustee and the Manager shall be entitled to retain out of the property of the Fund any reasonable costs or expenses incurred by them in managing, administering or winding up the Fund. Such reasonable costs or expenses may be drawn from the property of the Fund as and when they occur.

(2) The Board members shall be entitled to be paid out of the property of the Fund any reasonable costs or expenses incurred by them in carrying out their duties as provided in clause 32 hereof including the cost of remunerating any Secretary to the Board appointed by the Board in accordance with clause 30 hereof. Such reasonable costs and expenses may be drawn from the property of the Fund as and when they occur.

(3) The Scheme Particulars and any publicity or marketing material about the Fund shall make clear that these costs and expenses will be charged to the property of the Fund in addition to the charges which are made to the Fund in accordance with clauses 37 and 38 hereof.

37. Remuneration of Trustee. (1) The Trustee shall be paid remuneration out of the property of the Fund at a rate to be determined in accordance with the Scheme Particulars and with the prior written agreement of the Board. Such remuneration shall be provided for out of a periodic charge in a manner determined in accordance with the Scheme Particulars.

(2) The actual and maximum rate of the periodic charge and the method of its calculation shall be specified in the Scheme Particulars. Participating Charities shall be given a period of notice (which shall not be less than 90 days) specified in the Scheme Particulars of any proposed increase in the actual or maximum amount of the periodic charge.

38. Remuneration of Manager. (1) The Manager shall be paid remuneration out of the property of the Fund at rates to be determined in accordance with the Scheme Particulars and with the prior written agreement of the Board. Such remuneration shall be provided for out of one or more of -

(a) a preliminary charge to be included in the price at which units may be purchased;

(b) a periodic charge;

(c) a redemption charge payable by way of deduction from the proceeds of sale of units;

in a manner determined in accordance with the Scheme Particulars.

(2) The actual and maximum rate of each type of charge and the method of its calculation shall be specified in the Scheme Particulars. Participating Charities shall be given a period of notice (which shall not be less than 90 days) specified in the Scheme Particulars of any proposed increase in the actual or maximum amount of any charge.

39. Retirement of Trustee. If the Trustee wishes to retire, it shall give notice of its intention to retire to the Manager and the Board. The Trustee shall give such notice of intention to retire if it ceases to be qualified in accordance with this Scheme. The Board shall use its best endeavours to find a body corporate which is so qualified to act and which is willing to be appointed Trustee in place of the retiring Trustee. The Trustee shall only be discharged from the provisions of this Scheme after the Trustee and the Manager have appointed a person who is eligible under the AIFMD implementing measures to be the Trustee of the Fund.

40. Retirement of Manager. If the Manager wishes to retire, it shall give notice of its intention to retire to the Trustee and the Board. The Manager shall give such notice of intention to retire if it ceases to be qualified in accordance with this Scheme. The Board shall use its best endeavours to find a body corporate which is so qualified to act and which is willing to be appointed Manager in place of the retiring Manager. The Manager shall only be discharged from the provisions of this Scheme after the Manager and the Trustee have appointed a person eligible to act as the Manager of the Fund.

41. Replacement of Manager or Trustee. (1) If the Board is of the opinion for good and sufficient reason that a change of Manager is desirable in the interests of the Participating Charities, it shall serve on the Manager a notice of that proposed change. The Board shall use its best endeavours to find a body corporate which is qualified to act as Manager of the Fund under this Scheme, and which is willing to be appointed Manager in place of the retiring Manager. The Manager shall only be discharged from the provisions of this Scheme and any new Manager appointed by a deed entered into by the Trustee.

(2) If the Board is of the opinion for good and sufficient reason that a change of Trustee is desirable in the interests of the Participating Charities, it shall serve on the Trustee a notice of the proposed change. The Board shall use its best endeavours to find a body corporate which is qualified to act as Trustee of the Fund under this Scheme, and which is willing to be appointed Trustee in place of the retiring Trustee.. The Trustee shall only be discharged from the provisions of this Scheme and a new Trustee appointed by a deed entered into by the Board .

42. Register. (1) The Trustee shall keep a register in which it shall record the name of each Participating Charity and the number and type of units from time to time allocated to it. The register may include such other particulars as may be prescribed by the Scheme Particulars.

(2) The Trustee shall not be obliged to issue any document of title as to the ownership of units, but may issue unit certificates to all Participating Charities in respect of their holdings of units and shall, at the request of any Participating Charity, certify the number and type of units so allocated.

(3) The register shall be available for inspection by or on behalf of the Participating Charities free of charge during normal office hours except that the register may be closed at such times and for such periods (not exceeding 30 days in any one year) as the Trustee may from time to time determine.

(4) The Trustee may appoint and pay a body corporate as Registrar to carry out the functions mentioned in sub-clauses (1) to (3) of this clause on behalf of the Trustee.

43. Pricing of units. The Manager shall be under a continuing obligation to ensure that units are bought or sold at a price related to the net asset value of the Fund. Units shall be priced on either a forward or a historic basis as described in the COLL Sourcebook. The Manager shall determine the prices of income units and accumulation units (if such units be in issue) at the time of creation and cancellation of units respectively in accordance with the Scheme Particulars made under clause 57 hereof. The Scheme Particulars shall contain an explanation of the policy and method of pricing units, including in particular the following:

- (a) whether units are priced on a forward or historic basis;
- (b) whether units are single or dual priced;
- (c) whether or not the charges referred to in clause 38 are included in the prices for income units and accumulation units (if these units are in issue) and, if so, what these charges are.

44. Publication of prices. The Manager shall make arrangements for the publication, in at least one national newspaper in England and Wales or on the internet, of the buying price and maximum selling price (as determined in accordance with the Scheme Particulars) together with the current preliminary charge (if there is one) on the business day after any valuation. The manner of such publication shall be prescribed in the Scheme Particulars.

45. Valuation of the property of the Fund. For the purposes of determining the prices at which units may be created, or cancelled, the Manager shall ensure that a valuation of the property of the Fund in accordance with the AIFMD implementing measures is regularly carried out..

46. Valuation at the date of the balance sheet and interim balance sheet. The Manager shall carry out a valuation of the property of the Fund in accordance with the AIFMD implementing measures on the date of each balance sheet and interim balance sheet if a valuation is not carried out on that date in accordance with the previous clause.

47. Method of valuation. All valuations under clauses 45 and 46 of this Scheme shall be carried out in accordance with the Scheme Particulars (subject to the requirements of the Financial Conduct Authority contained in the COLL Sourcebook or as may otherwise be required by the Financial Conduct Authority). The Scheme Particulars shall contain an explanation of the policy and method of calculation adopted by the Manager for valuation of the property of the Fund, including in particular the following:

- (a) when the valuations are to be carried out;
- (b) how the valuations are to be carried out;
- (c) how adjustments for tax and other accrued credits and liabilities have been made.

48. Allocation. (1) After the date of each balance sheet and the date of each interim balance sheet (but on or before the allocation date), the Trustee shall transfer out of the property of the Fund to an account to be known as 'the distribution account', a sum (if any) which is calculated in accordance with the Scheme Particulars.

(2) The allocation date shall be determined in accordance with the Scheme Particulars.

(3) Subject to the provisions of the clause 49 hereof, the funds in the distribution account shall be allocated to the Participating Charities in accordance with the following provisions of this clause.

(4) Where both income units and accumulation units are in issue, the Trustee shall on or before each allocation date allocate the funds in the distribution account between income units and accumulation units according to the respective shares in the property of the Fund represented by the income units and accumulation units in existence at the end of the relevant accounting period.

(5) The funds allocated to accumulation units shall, with effect from the end of the accounting period in respect of which the allocation is made, be capitalised and the interests of the Participating Charities holding accumulation units shall be satisfied by an increase, as at the end of the period, in the number of undivided shares in the property of the Fund which an accumulation unit represents.

(6) On or before each allocation date, the Trustee shall distribute the funds allocated to the Participating Charities holding income units rateably in accordance with the number of such units held by them respectively at the end of the relevant accounting period.

49. Distribution Equalisation Reserve. (1) For the purpose of avoiding fluctuations in the amounts distributed in accordance with the preceding clause, the Trustee may create and maintain in the accounts of the Fund a Distribution Equalisation Reserve in accordance with the following provisions of this clause.

(2) The Trustee may deduct from any sum in the distribution account such amount as it thinks fit not exceeding half of that sum and, where it does so, will credit to the Distribution Equalisation Reserve the amount deducted.

(3) The Trustee may add to any sum in the distribution accounts all or any part of the amount standing to the credit of the Distribution Equalisation Reserve and, where it does so, it shall debit the Distribution Equalisation Reserve with the amount thus added.

(4) Any income earned by placing on deposit or otherwise investing money standing to the credit of the Distribution Equalisation Reserve shall be treated as income of the Fund and dealt with accordingly.

50. Income equalisation. (1) An allocation to be made in respect of each unit created during the accounting period in respect of which that allocation is made shall include a capital sum representing the Manager's best estimate of the amount of income included in the creation price.

(2) The amount of income equalisation may be the actual amount of the income in question or it may be an amount arrived at by taking the aggregate of the amounts of income included in the creation price in respect of units created in the relevant accounting period and dividing that aggregate by the number of those units and applying the resultant average to each of the units in question.

51. Method of distribution. (1) Any moneys payable by the Trustee to a Participating Charity in respect of any income unit may be paid by crossed cheque or warrant made payable to the account of that Charity or of the Trustees of that Charity and may be sent by post.

(2) The trustees of a Participating Charity may authorise the Trustee to make a payment by any other means.

52. Powers of investment. (1) Any property of the Fund for the time being available for investment shall be invested in the name of the Trustee or a Nominee in accordance with the provisions of this Scheme.

(2) Subject to clauses 55 and 56, the Manager may invest the property of the Fund at its discretion in any kind of investment which it could make if it were absolutely entitled to the property of the Fund [subject to the following restrictions - ##### ].

(3) The Manager shall have regard -

(a) to the need for diversification of investments, insofar as is appropriate to the circumstances of the Fund; and

(b) to the suitability to the Fund of investments of the description of investment proposed and of the investment proposed as an investment of that description.

(4) The Manager shall make, and from time to time as necessary revise, a written statement of the investment policy of the Fund consistent with the written statement of investment objectives made by the Board in conformity with clause 32(2)(a) and shall promptly supply a copy thereof to the Trustee and to the Board. The statement of investment policy shall include, among other things, the Manager's policy for the Fund in the following matters:

(a) securing compliance with sub-clause (3);

(b) the kinds of investments to be held;

(c) the balance between different kinds of investments;

- (d) risk;
- (e) the expected return on investments; and
- (f) the realisation of investments.

(5) The Manager shall at all times keep the investments of the Fund under review and may at any time in its discretion realise, exchange or otherwise dispose of any investment either to raise cash or for investment in accordance with this Scheme.

(6) The Manager shall not exercise any power to invest the Fund other than that provided by this Scheme and in conformity with the statement of investment policy made in accordance with sub-clause (4).

53. Cash. To the extent that it is not otherwise permitted under the provisions of this Scheme, the property of the Fund may include cash and near cash where this may reasonably be regarded as necessary in order to facilitate the cancellation of units, or to further the efficient management of the Fund, or otherwise to enable the Manager to discharge its functions under this Scheme.

54. Borrowing. (1) The Manager may borrow temporarily for the purpose of meeting payments to be made out of the Fund (other than for any of the purposes specified in sub-clause (2) of this clause) on terms that the borrowing is to be repaid out of the property of the Fund if the Manager considers this to be in the best interests of the Fund, provided that the borrowing under this sub-clause shall not exceed 10% of the net asset value of the property of the Fund as at the date of the borrowing.

(2) The Manager may use the powers of land acquisition and management in the Trusts of Land and Appointment of Trustees Act 1996, but where those powers are used to borrow in connection with the acquisition or management (including improvement) of any land the prior written consent of the Board shall be obtained.

(3) The prior consent of the Board may be given in relation to a specific borrowing proposed by the Manager or may be given more generally to the Manager (but subject to the terms and conditions, if any, as the Board may determine) to enable the Manager to borrow within all or any of the categories described in sub-clause (2) of this clause; provided always that any more general consent shall in any event include a direction requiring the Manager to keep the Board sufficiently informed as soon as possible about any borrowings made in conformity with such consent.

55. Investment in in-house Funds. (1) The Manager shall not invest the property of the Fund in units in a collective investment scheme or in a common deposit fund which is managed or operated by itself or by an associate of itself or by the Trustee or by an associate of the Trustee or, where the scheme is a company, of which the Manager or the Trustee is the Authorised Corporate Director or an associate of the Authorised Corporate Director, except to the extent permitted by the following provisions of this clause.

(2) The Manager may invest the property of the Fund in units in a collective investment scheme or in a common deposit fund, provided that:-

(a) where any charge is made in respect of such a scheme by any person involved in the management or administration of the scheme, whether by way of preliminary charge, periodic charge, redemption charge or any other permitted charge, the amount of such charge is paid to the Fund; and

(b) if the Manager pays more for the units in the scheme than the prevailing creation price, the Manager shall pay to the Fund the full amount of the difference.

(3) The Manager may invest the property of the Fund in shares in a collective investment scheme which is an OEIC, provided that:-

(a) the amount of any preliminary charge or redemption charge paid to the Authorised Corporate Director on the acquisition or redemption of shares in the OEIC by the Fund is paid to the Fund; and

(b) the amount of any other remuneration in respect of the shares acquired by the Fund paid to the Manager or Authorised Corporate Director is paid to the Fund.

(4) The Manager shall not invest the property of the Fund in any other investment in which the Manager or an associate of the Manager has any interest (whether by virtue of operating or managing the investment or otherwise) without the prior written consent of the Board

(5) The Manager shall not invest the property of the Fund under any of the preceding three sub-clauses unless the Scheme Particulars of the Fund clearly states that the property of the Fund may include such units or shares.

56. Investment Restrictions. (1) Subject to sub-clause (2) below, the Manager shall not invest the property of the Fund in transferable securities which are not approved securities, or in units in a collective investment scheme (hereinafter referred to as “the second scheme”) unless the second scheme meets each of the requirements in (a) to (d) below:

(a) the second scheme:

(i) complies with the conditions necessary for it to enjoy the rights conferred by the UCITS Directive; or

(ii) is a non-UCITS retail scheme; or

(iii) is a recognised scheme; or

(iv) is constituted outside the United Kingdom and the investment and borrowing powers of which are the same or more restrictive than those of a non-UCITS retail scheme; or

(v) is a common investment fund;

- (b) the second scheme operates on the principle of the prudent spread of risk;
- (c) the second scheme is prohibited from having more than 15% in net asset value of the property of that scheme consisting of units in collective investment schemes; and
- (d) the participants in the second scheme shall be entitled to have their units redeemed in accordance with that scheme at a price:
  - (i) related to the net asset value of the property to which the units relate; and
  - (ii) determined in accordance with that scheme.
- (2) The Manager may invest not more than a total of 20% of the net asset value of the property of the Fund as at the date of the investment:
  - (a) in units in the second scheme not falling within sub-clause (1)(a) but falling within sub-clauses (1)(b) to (1)(d) above, and
  - (b) in any transferable securities which are not approved securities.
- (3) The Manager shall not invest more than 35% of the net asset value of the property of the Fund as at the date of the investment in any one collective investment scheme.
- (4) The Manager shall not invest more than 10% of the net asset value of the property of the Fund as at the date of the investment in transferable securities issued by any single body, other than government and public securities.

57. Scheme Particulars. (1) The Manager shall make written Scheme Particulars for the purpose of:

- (a) supplementing the provisions of clauses 36, 37, 38, 42, 43, 44, 45, 47 and 48(1) and 48(2) of this Scheme as indicated in those clauses which shall as far as reasonably possible include details of all identifiable costs and expenses;
- (b) supplementing the other provisions of this Scheme if, in its opinion, that may be necessary to enable the Fund to operate effectively;
- (c) modifying or relaxing any duty to account to the Fund which may result from a conflict of interest and duty on the part of the Trustee, the Manager or other person;
- (d) providing for the holding and constitution of meetings of Participating Charities for such purposes as the Trustee may consider appropriate;
- (e) supplementing the information given by or under the provisions of this Scheme about the constitution, objectives and operation of the Fund which shall include (where applicable) the asset allocation policy, the sector allocation policy, the geographical allocation policy, and any restrictions or limitations on investment that are additional to those imposed by this Scheme.

(2) Scheme Particulars made for the purpose of supplementing the provisions of clause 37 or 38 or for modifying or relaxing any duty to account to the Fund which may result from a conflict of interest and duty on the part of the Trustee, the Manager or other person shall be subject to the prior written approval of the Commission.

(4) No provision in the Scheme Particulars shall be inconsistent with this Scheme.

(5) The Scheme Particulars shall be revised from time to time by the Manager, subject to the prior written approval of the Commission in the case of Scheme Particulars revised for the purposes specified in sub-clause (2) and copies of the Scheme Particulars, or any amendments, shall be supplied free of charge to the Commission, the Trustee, the Board and the Participating Charities.

58. Miscellaneous. (1) The Trustee may decide conclusively any question arising under this Scheme as to -

- (a) the rights of Participating Charities;
- (b) whether any property of the Fund is income or capital;
- (c) the value of any property of the Fund; or
- (d) the time to which any incoming resource, liability or expense is to be attributed.

(2) Where any institution to which any number of units in the Fund is for the time being allocated ceases to be a Charity qualified in accordance with clause 6 to participate in this Fund, the provisions of this Scheme shall have effect as if such institution -

- (a) continued to be a Charity so qualified;
- (b) elected to realise all those units with effect from the next following valuation date; and
- (c) indemnified the Fund against any liability arising upon such institution ceasing to be a Charity so qualified.

59. Accounts and report. (1) For the purposes of Part 8 of the Charities Act (other than section 130) and of the Regulations (other than the provisions relating to audit), the Manager (and no other person) shall be considered the charity trustee of the Fund within the meaning of the Charities Act.

(2) The Manager shall prepare and submit to the Commission in respect of each financial year of the Fund a statement of accounts and annual report complying with the requirements of the Charities Act and the Regulations. The Manager shall also prepare a half-yearly report and accounts for the Fund made up to the date of the interim balance sheet, a copy of which shall be supplied to the Commission.
