5. Application of AIFMD to the Manager and Trustee

- (1) The duties and requirements imposed upon the Trustee and the Manager under this Scheme must be performed in compliance with, and subject to, any additional duties and requirements imposed upon the Manager and the Trustee under the AIFMD implementing measures. This will constitute the regulation of the Fund as an investment fund. The Commission will only regulate the Fund as a charity.
- (2) If there is any conflict between the standards and liability imposed upon the Manager and the Trustee under this Scheme and the standards and liability imposed upon the Manager and the Trustee under the AIFMD implementing measures, the standards and liability imposed upon the Manager and the Trustee under the AIFMD implementing measures will prevail.
- (3) Any rights or discretion exercisable by the Trustee or the Manager under this Scheme are exercisable only to the extent permitted by the AIFMD implementing measures

6. Trustee. The body corporate called [##### ] shall be the first Trustee of the Fund.

7. Scope of responsibility. The Trustee shall be responsible for those aspects of the administration and management of the Fund and its property which are specified in clause 8 of this Scheme. To the extent of those duties and powers, the Trustee is a charity trustee of the Fund within the meaning of the Charities Act. The Trustee shall also act as depositary for the purpose of the AIFMD implementing measures.

8. Duties and powers of Trustee. (1) The Trustee shall comply with the duty of care when exercising its powers and discharging its duties under this Scheme.

(2) The following are the duties and powers of the Trustee -

- (a) the supervision and oversight of the Manager's compliance with this Scheme and the Scheme Particulars. In particular, the Trustee shall be satisfied on a continuing basis that the Manager is competently exercising the powers and competently discharging the duties conferred or imposed on it by or pursuant to the provisions of this Scheme, and that the Manager is maintaining adequate and proper records: Provided that the Trustee's duty in relation to supervising the Manager's functions under clause 15(2) is limited to ensuring that decisions about the constituents of the property of the Fund do not exceed the power of investment conferred on the Manager;

(b) the supervision and oversight of any Registrar or other delegate which it has appointed in accordance with the provisions of this Scheme;

(c) the custody and control of the property of the Fund and the collection of all income due to the Fund in accordance with clause 9;

(d) the appointment of a Registrar in accordance with clause 41;

(e) repaying deposits, and paying interest, to Depositing Charities;

(f) the appointment or dismissal of any person or persons engaged by the Trustee in connection with the Fund;

(g) the making of an annual report on the discharge of its responsibilities for the management of the Fund;

(h) winding up the Fund.

(3) The Trustee shall take all steps and execute all documents which are necessary to secure that instructions properly given to it by the Manager are carried out as to the exercise of rights (including voting rights) attaching to the ownership of property of the Fund.

(4) The Trustee shall take all steps and execute all documents which are necessary to secure that deposits with the Fund, repayment of those deposits, and payments of interest in respect of those deposits, are properly completed

(5) The Trustee shall maintain such records as are necessary to enable it to comply with this Scheme and with section 130 of the Charities Act and to demonstrate that such compliance has been achieved.

(6) The duties which are imposed on the Trustee by this Scheme are in addition to the duties which are otherwise imposed on charity trustees by law, and where the duties imposed by the general law have been qualified or restricted by this Scheme, the Scheme provisions shall apply so far as the general law may permit.

9. Income of the Fund. The Trustee is responsible for the collection of any income due to be paid to the Fund and for claiming any repayment of tax which may be due, and shall hold any income received so as to give effect to the objects of the Fund.

10. Oversight and supervision of the Manager by the Trustee. (1) The Trustee shall oversee and supervise the Manager's compliance with this Scheme as provided in clause 8(2)(a).

(2) The Trustee shall not be responsible for the acts or defaults of the Manager in the exercise of the powers conferred on the Manager by this Scheme, or in the discharge of the duties imposed on the Manager by this Scheme, if the Trustee has complied with the duty of care when satisfying itself as to the matters specified in clause 8(2)(a).

(3) If the Trustee is not satisfied at any time as to the Manager's compliance with this Scheme or the Scheme Particulars, the Trustee shall inform the Commission promptly and in writing.

(4) If the Trustee is not satisfied at any time as to the Manager's compliance with the applicable requirements of the AIFMD implementing measures, the Trustee shall inform the Financial Conduct Authority promptly and in writing.

11. Delegation by the Trustee. (1) Any delegation by the Trustee shall comply with the applicable requirements of the AIFMD implementing measures.

(2) The Trustee shall not delegate any function of oversight of the Manager to an associate of the Manager.

(3) The Trustee shall require any delegate to report regularly to the Trustee on its performance of the functions delegated.

(4) While the delegate continues to act for the Fund, the Trustee-

(a) shall keep under review the arrangements under which the delegate acts and how those arrangements are being put into effect;

(b) if circumstances make it appropriate to do so, shall consider whether there is a need to exercise any power of intervention that it has; and

(c) if it considers that there is a need to exercise such a power of intervention, shall do so.

(5) The Trustee shall keep the Manager informed of any delegation of its functions.

(6) The Trustee shall be vicariously liable for the acts and defaults of the Manager when the Manager acts as the Trustee's delegate, but shall otherwise be liable for the acts and defaults of a delegate only if and insofar as it has failed to comply with the duty of care when selecting the person who is to act, when determining any terms on which the delegate is to act, or when carrying out its duties under sub-clause (4) of this clause.

12. Title to Property. All investments of the Fund, whether held in the name of the Trustee, or in the name of a nominee, shall be held on trust for the Depositing Charities in such a manner that it is readily apparent that they are held by or on behalf of the Fund, and so that -

(1) the property of the Fund shall be segregated in the records of the Trustee, or of its nominee as the case may be, from any other property which is held by the Trustee or its nominee;

(2) where a nominee is appointed, the investments to which the Fund is entitled shall be separately identifiable from other property held by the nominee.

13. Manager. The body corporate called [##### ] shall be the first Manager of the Fund.

14. Scope of responsibility of the Manager. The Manager shall be responsible for those aspects of the administration and the management of the Fund and its property which are specified in clause 15 hereof. To the extent of those duties and powers, the Manager is a charity trustee of the Fund within the meaning of the Charities Act. For the avoidance of doubt the Manager shall be the AIFM and shall have the responsibility of ensuring compliance with the requirements of the AIFMD implementing measures.

15. Duties and powers of Manager. (1) The Manager shall comply with the duty of care when exercising its powers and discharging its duties under this Scheme.

(2) The Manager shall have all the duties and powers relating to the administration and management of the Fund (except the duties and powers of the Trustee set out in clause 8(2) hereof and the duties and powers of the Board set out in clause 30(2) hereof) and in particular, the following are the duties and powers of the Manager -

(a) deciding, subject to the Scheme Particulars, the terms and conditions on which deposits are accepted by the Fund, and giving instructions to the Trustee with respect to the receipt and repayment of deposits, and the payment of interest in respect of deposits;

(b) the management of the investments of the Fund in conformity with the written statement of the investment objectives of the Fund made by the Board in conformity with clause 30(2)(a) hereof and with the written statement of investment policy made in conformity with clause 48(4) hereof;

(c) the duty to make any necessary calculations of interest in respect of deposits made with the Fund and that these calculations of interest are correctly carried out and to ensure that correct payments of interest are made;

(d) the making and revision of the Scheme Particulars in accordance with clause 51 hereof;

(e) keeping a daily record of all the Fund's transactions including the receipt and repayment of deposits;

(f) making all records held by the Manager in respect of the Fund available for inspection by the Trustee free of charge at all times during the business day and supplying the Trustee with a copy or copies of any record without charge;

(g) preparing a report and accounts of the Fund in respect of every accounting period;

(h) making representations to the Trustee on the winding up of the Fund;

(i) the supervision and oversight of any delegate which it has appointed in accordance with the provisions of this Scheme;

(j) taking all other action as necessary for the administration and management of the Fund other than those duties or powers which have been imposed or conferred on the Trustee or the Board by this Scheme.

(3) The Manager shall maintain such records as are necessary to enable it to comply with this Scheme and with section 130 of the Charities Act and to demonstrate that such compliance has been achieved.

(4) The duties which are imposed on the Manager by this Scheme are in addition to the duties which are otherwise imposed on charity trustees by law, and where the duties imposed on charity trustees by the general law have been qualified or restricted by this Scheme, the Scheme provisions shall apply so far as the general law may permit.

16. Delegation by the Manager. (1) The Manager may delegate any of its functions to the extent permitted by the AIFMD implementing measures.

(2) The Manager shall require any delegate to report regularly to the Manager on its performance of the functions delegated.

(3) While the delegate continues to act for the Fund, the Manager -

(a) shall keep under review the arrangements under which the delegate acts and how those arrangements are being put into effect;

(b) if circumstances make it appropriate to do so, shall consider whether there is a need to exercise any power of intervention that it has; and

(c) if it considers that there is a need to exercise such a power of intervention, shall do so.

(4) The Manager shall keep the Trustee informed of any delegation of its functions.

(4) The Manager shall be vicariously liable for the acts and defaults of the Trustee when the Trustee acts as the Manager's delegate, but shall otherwise be liable for the acts and defaults of a delegate only if and insofar as it has failed to comply with the duty of care when selecting the person who is to act, when determining any terms on which the delegate is to act, or when carrying out its duties under sub-clause (3).

17. First Board members. The following persons shall be the first Board members of the Fund and, subject to the provisions of this Scheme for the termination of their appointment, shall be entitled to hold office for the periods set out after their names:

Depositing Charities shall be given a period of notice (which shall not be less than 90 days) specified in the Scheme Particulars of any proposed increase in the actual or maximum amount of the periodic charge.

37. Retirement of Trustee. If the Trustee wishes to retire, it shall give notice of its intention to retire to the Manager and the Board. The Trustee shall give such notice of intention to retire if it ceases to be qualified in accordance with this Scheme. The Board shall use its best endeavours to find a body corporate which is so qualified to act and which is willing to be appointed Trustee in place of the retiring Trustee. The Trustee shall only be discharged from the provisions of this Scheme after the Trustee and the Manager have appointed a person who is eligible under the AIFMD implementing measures to be the Trustee of the Fund.

38. Retirement of Manager. If the Manager wishes to retire, it shall give notice of its intention to retire to the Trustee and the Board. The Manager shall give such notice of intention to retire if it ceases to be qualified in accordance with this Scheme. The Board shall use its best endeavours to find a body corporate which is so qualified to act and which is willing to be appointed Manager in place of the retiring Manager. The Manager shall only be discharged from the provisions of this Scheme after the Board has appointed a person who is eligible to act as the Manager of the Fund

39. Replacement of Manager or Trustee. (1) If the Board is of the opinion for good and sufficient reason that a change of Manager is desirable in the interests of the Depositing Charities, it shall serve on the Manager a notice of that proposed change. The Board shall use its best endeavours to find a body corporate which is qualified to act as Manager of the Fund under this Scheme, and which is willing to be appointed Manager in place of the retiring Manager. The Manager shall only be discharged and any new Manager shall be appointed by a deed entered into by the Trustee and the new Manager .

(2) If the Board is of the opinion for good and sufficient reason that a change of Trustee is desirable in the interests of the Depositing Charities, it shall serve on the Trustee a notice of the proposed change. The Board shall use its best endeavours to find a body corporate which is qualified to act as Trustee of the Fund under this Scheme, and which is willing to be appointed Trustee in place of the retiring Trustee. The Trustee shall only be discharged from the provisions of this Scheme and a new Trustee appointed by a deed entered into by the Board.

40. Repayment of deposits. (1) Subject to the Scheme Particulars, a deposit or part thereof made by a Depositing Charity shall be repaid to that Charity on receipt by the Manager of a notice requiring repayment, or on the winding up of the Fund, and until such repayment, interest shall be credited to the deposit account of such Depositing Charity.

(2) A deposit with the Fund may be made on terms that it shall only be repayable after a period of time has elapsed since the notice requiring repayment was given.

41. Register. (1) The Trustee shall keep a register of deposit accounts in which it shall record the particulars of each Depositing Charity and of the sum or sums deposited by such Depositing Charity. The Trustee shall at any reasonable time upon reasonable request certify to the trustees of a Depositing Charity the total amount standing to its credit and any interest accrued thereon. The register may include such other particulars as may be prescribed by the Scheme Particulars.

(2) The Trustee may issue certificates to all Depositing Charities in respect of their holdings of deposits and shall, at the request of any Depositing Charity, certify the amounts of the deposits made.

(3) The register shall be available in a manner determined in accordance with the Scheme Particulars for inspection by or on behalf of the Depositing Charities free of charge during normal office hours except that the register may be closed at such times and for such periods (not exceeding 30 days in any one year) as the Board may from time to time determine.

(4) The Trustee may appoint and pay a body corporate as Registrar to carry out the functions mentioned in sub-clauses (1) and (2) of this clause on behalf of the Board.

42. Calculation of interest rates. (1) The Manager shall calculate the interest payable in respect of the deposits placed with it by the Depositing Charities on a daily basis or such other basis as it may from time to time determine in accordance with the Scheme Particulars made under clause 51 hereof. Such interest shall be calculated after deduction of such amounts as the Manager may have decided to retain to meet the management costs or the expenses incurred by it in accordance with the provisions of this Scheme and the Scheme Particulars.

(2) The Manager may in its discretion determine different rates of interest

(a) for different sizes of deposit; or

(b) depending on the length of notice required for repayment of the deposit; or

(c) for deposits placed for repayment on fixed dates.

43. Publication of interest rates. The Manager shall make arrangements for the publication in at least one national newspaper in England and Wales, or on the internet, of the interest rates payable on deposits of money in the Fund. The manner of such publication shall be prescribed in the Scheme Particulars.

44. Statement of interest. (1) A statement shall be given to each Depositing Charity in respect of its deposit account in a manner determined in accordance with the Scheme Particulars.

(2) The statement may be sent by post or by some other method of communication that the Depositing Charity has authorised.

45. Method of payment. (1) Any moneys payable by the Trustee to a Depositing Charity, whether by way of interest, or by way of repayment of its deposit, may be paid to the account of that Charity or of the trustees of that Charity in a manner determined in accordance with the Scheme Particulars.

(2) The trustees of a Depositing Charity may authorise the Trustee to make a payment by any other means.

46. Satisfaction of the rights of Depositing Charities. The rights of Depositing Charities to the repayment of deposits, or to the payment of interest, are liable to be satisfied only out of the property of the Fund, and no further claim shall be made against any person who is, or has at any time been, the Manager or the Trustee of the Fund or a member of the Board.

47. Surpluses. (1) The Trustee shall be entitled to retain surpluses to the extent that it reasonably considers this appropriate in order to provide for future liabilities of the Fund, including the repayment of deposits, and to payment of interest in respect of deposits.

(2) Subject to sub-clause (1), any property of the Fund which remains after the satisfaction of the rights of the Depositing Charities to the repayment of deposits, and to the payment of interest, and after settling any other liabilities properly payable out of the Fund, shall be held on trust for distribution amongst the present or past Depositing Charities in such proportions and at such times as the Trustee shall, in accordance with arrangements approved by the Commission, decide.

48. Powers of investment. (1) Any property of the Fund for the time being available for investment shall be invested in the name of the Trustee or a nominee in accordance with the provisions of this Scheme

(2) The Manager may invest the property of the Fund at its discretion:

(a) in sterling denominated deposit accounts with any deposit-taking firm;

(b) in sterling denominated negotiable certificates of deposit with any deposit-taking firm;

(c) in sterling denominated deposits with any local authority in the United Kingdom.

(d) in sterling denominated fixed and floating rate securities issued by any deposit-

taking firm;

(e) in Treasury bills or other securities issued or guaranteed by Her Majesty's Government.

Provided always that:

(i) at least 10% of the principal amount of the investments of the Fund shall be repayable within five business days or be capable of being transferred without the consent of a third party (any issuer being regarded as a third party for this purpose); and

(ii) (except for the sterling denominated floating rate securities) the remainder of the investments of the Fund shall be repayable within a period not exceeding two years.

(3) The Manager shall have regard -

(a) to the need for diversification of investments, in so far as is appropriate to the circumstances of the Fund; and

(b) to the suitability to the Fund of investments of the description of investment proposed and of the investment proposed as an investment of that description.

(4) The Manager shall make, and from time to time as necessary revise, a written statement of the investment policy of the Fund consistent with the written statement of investment objectives made by the Board in conformity with clause 30(2)(a) and shall promptly supply a copy thereof to the Trustee and to the Board. The statement of investment policy shall include, among other things, the Manager's policy for the Fund in the following matters:

(a) securing compliance with sub-clause (3);

(b) the kinds of investments to be held;

(c) the balance between different kinds of investments;

forthwith with any interest accrued up to the date that institution ceases to be a Charity.

52. Accounts and report. (1) For the purposes of Part 8 of the Charities Act (other than section 130) and of the Regulations (other than the provisions relating to audit), the Manager (and no other person) shall be considered the charity trustee of the Fund within the meaning of the Charities Act.

(2) The Manager shall prepare in respect of each financial year of the Fund a statement of accounts and annual report complying with the requirements of the Charities Act and the Regulations. The Manager shall also prepare a half-yearly report and accounts for the Fund made up to the date of the interim balance sheet.

(3) The Manager shall cause the accounts in respect of each financial year to be audited by an auditor appointed by the Board and of the type specified in the AIFMD implementing measures.

(5) The Manager shall transmit to the Commission -

(a) the annual report, to which shall be attached the accounts and a copy of the audit report; and

(b) a copy of each half yearly report and accounts.

(6) The Manager shall report on the Fund's performance to the Depositing Charities at least once in every six month period.

53. Information for Depositing Charities. (1) Subject to sub-clause (2) below, the Manager shall send to all Depositing Charities copies of the following documents:

(a) this Scheme, and any variation of it;

(b) the Scheme Particulars, and any variation of them;

(c) the current written statement of the investment policy of the Fund made in accordance with the provisions of clause 48, and any variation of it;

(d) a report on the performance of the Fund to the Depositing Charities at least once in every six month period and such report shall include a comparison of such performance with rates of interest paid by banks and building societies;

(e) each report made by the Manager and the Board in accordance with the provisions of this Scheme during the period of deposit; and

(f) the statement of accounts of the Fund, (together with the audit report on that statement, where an audit report is required to be prepared) prepared most recently prior to the date of first deposit, and any such statement and report prepared during the period of deposit.

54. Winding-up. (1) If the Trustee is of the opinion that it is expedient in the interests of the Depositing Charities to wind up the Fund, it shall serve on the Board a notice of the Trustee's intention to wind up the Fund. The Board shall submit its representations (if any) to the Trustee within one calendar month from the date of the notice from the Trustee.

(2) If, upon consideration of the Board's representations (if any), the Trustee remains of the opinion that a winding up of the Fund is expedient in the interests of the Depositing Charities, the Trustee may execute a written declaration that the Fund is to be wound up, and if it does so, it shall:-

(a) forthwith send a copy of the declaration to the Commission, the Manager and the Board and publish it in such manner (if any) as the Commission may direct;

(b) inform the Depositing Charities in writing that the Fund is to be wound up; and

(c) as soon as practicable after the Fund falls to be wound up, realise the property of the Fund. Any property remaining after repaying all outstanding deposits, paying all outstanding entitlements to interest, and settling, or making adequate provision for, any other liabilities properly payable out of the Fund, including the costs of the winding up, shall be held on trust for division amongst the present or past Depositing Charities in such proportions as the Trustee shall decide.

(3) For the purpose of carrying out the trust specified in sub-clause (2)(c) of this clause and of securing fairness between Depositing Charities in doing so, the Trustee shall have power to do all such things as may be required and to determine all such questions as may arise.

55. Commencement of the Scheme. The provisions of clauses 13 and 51 of this Scheme shall come into force on the date of this Scheme and subject thereto, this Scheme shall come into force on 2013
