

BS EN 62676-1-2 – Video surveillance systems for use in security applications, Part 1-2: System requirements – Performance requirements for video transmission.

This standard for CCTV covers the general requirements for video transmissions. It focuses specifically on the performance, security and conformance to basic internet protocol connectivity (how systems communicate to each other over networks). It is based on well known international standards.

Download from <http://shop.bsigroup.com/Browse-By-Subject/Security/Electronic-Security-Systems/cctvstandards/>