This form is to be completed to demonstrate that reasonable effort was made to obtain the consent of the occupier. This form does not need to be used in the event that obtaining consent would frustrate the purpose of the exercise of the entry and search.

If consent is withdrawn by the occupier at any time, the right to enter the premises should be clearly explained to them. Where consent is not given, it is still possible to exercise the lawful authority under the COs authority to enter.

This form once completed is to be retained with Annex N to Vol 1, Ch 4, JSP 830 as part of the Record of Entry/Search.
