

British Embassy
Bucharest

To whom it may concern

Certificate of celibacy

Certificate of matrimonial capacity

These documents are not required by the British legislation and therefore cannot be issued by the British Consular authorities.

However you may be able to replace these documents with an affidavit or statutory declaration made in front of a public notary or a lawyer.

Important:

This document is not a certificate but only an information memo to the attention of the Romanian authorities concerning the British nationals who intend to marry in Romania. For this reason this document will not be stamped or signed.