Response:

Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FoIA) – Request for information

I am writing to confirm that the CMA has now completed its search for the information you requested on 12 January 2015.

We have considered your request for information under the FoIA. Under the FoIA we have a duty to confirm the existence of information requested and to supply that information unless there are good reasons for not doing so, as detailed under FoIA.

I can confirm that the CMA holds information that is within the scope of your request.

The information that you requested is attached/detailed below.

Q1) How many people are employed by the Competition and Markets Authority to work in Greater London on zero-hours contracts. Please break this figure down by (a) occupation and (b) pay grade:

A1) We do not have any staff on zero-hours contracts at the CMA.

Q2) How many workers are employed by the Competition and Markets Authority to work in Greater London on an employment contract where the employer is not obliged to provide the worker with any minimum working hours, and the worker is not obliged to accept any of the hours offered? Please break this figure down by (a) occupation and (b) pay grade.

A2) We do not have any staff on these terms at the CMA.

Q3) How many people does the Competition and Markets Authority employ in Greater London.

A3) As of 1 December 2014, CMA employed 547 people in Greater London.
