

CATEGORY DEFINITIONS 2013

Introduction

1. These are the Category Definitions 2013 as referred to in the 2013 Standard Civil Contract. Definitions of terms set out in those Contracts also apply to these Category Definitions.
2. In these Category Definitions:
 - i) References to “Legal Help” include Help at Court and in the Family Category only, Family Help (Lower) and Help with Family Mediation.
 - ii) References to “proceedings in a Category” cover the provision of Legal Representation (including Controlled Legal Representation) in that Category and, in the Family Category only, Family Help (Higher).
3. Services within the Crime Category are automatically excluded from all Civil Categories, except for any overlap between Categories specified in this document.

Legal Aid, Sentencing and Punishment of Offenders Act 2012

4. The Legal Aid, Sentencing and Punishment of Offenders Act 2012 (hereafter referred to as “the Act” in this document) sets out the matters for which civil legal services may be provided. In some cases advice and assistance may only be provided to certain clients eg in private law children cases where the client must show evidence of having suffered domestic violence. In addition, there may be some instances where legal services may only be provided as a result of an application for exceptional funding (the parameters of which are described below). The Category Definitions show into which Category cases will fall but providers will need to satisfy themselves before undertaking work for any individual client that it is within the scope of the Act or that an application for exceptional funding has been approved.
5. Descriptions in this document of matters within scope of Part 1 of Schedule 1 to the Act are not exhaustive and should be read subject to the full provisions in Part 1 of Schedule 1 to the Act. For example, services described in Part 1 of Schedule 1 to the Act may be subject to exclusions in Parts 2 and 3 of Schedule 1 to the Act.

Overlaps between Categories

6. The Categories are drafted to ensure that the majority of cases clearly fall within one Category or another. For example, mortgage arrears possession cases fall within the debt category and are excluded from the housing category. However, there will be some cases which genuinely fall within more than one Category in which case you can choose in which Category to carry the case out.

7. An example of this is in discrimination cases, which may be dealt with either within the discrimination category itself or, where the underlying matter arises from an individual category such as education, within that category.
8. Some cases will arise as the result of a number of different underlying issues, which may either be in scope or the subject of an exceptional funding application, and in those instances classification to a Category will depend upon the overall substance or predominant issue of the case when taken as a whole.

Exceptional Funding

9. Civil legal services that do not fall within the scope of Part 1 of Schedule 1 to the Act will fall to be funded under section 10 if the Director makes either: (i) an exceptional case determination (under section 10(2)(a) of the Act), or (ii) a wider public interest determination (under section 10(4)(b) of the Act).
10. Matters that are funded by virtue of a determination of the Director under section 10 of the Act will fall within the Category to which the primary problem or issue relates or, in the case of matters that are wholly unrelated to in-scope categories within Miscellaneous Work.

Inquests

11. Legal Help in relation to an inquest under the Coroners Act 1988 into the death of a member of the client's family (paragraph 41 of Part 1 of Schedule 1 to the Act) will fall into the Category which relates to the underlying subject matter of the inquest. For example, Legal Help for an inquest where the client died in prison will be funded in the Actions Against the Police etc Category. Where an inquest does not fall within one of the Categories, it will be carried out as Miscellaneous Work.
12. Where any relevant grant of exceptional funding is made (in accordance with section 10 of the Act) for advocacy at an inquest, this will fall into the Category which relates to the underlying subject matter of the inquest, and where the inquest does not fall within any given Category, it will be included be carried out as Miscellaneous Work.

Judicial Review and Public Law

13. Public law challenges to the acts, omissions or decision of public bodies (including under the Human Rights Act 1998), in particular challenges by way of judicial review (as described in paragraph 19 of Part 1 of Schedule 1 to the Act) and habeas corpus (as described in paragraph 20 of Part 1 of Schedule 1 to the Act) are covered by the Category in which the principal matter or proceedings appear or by the Category which relates to the underlying substance of the case (as referenced by the widest Category Definition incorporating excluded work). They are also covered by the Public Law Category.

14. If arising in respect of matters or proceedings within the Crime Category, these cases will also fall within the Crime Category.
15. Note that the fact that a Defendant is a Public Authority does not bring a case within the Public Law Category. For a case to constitute a public law challenge it must be determined according to judicial review principles (limited to paragraph 19 Part 1 of Schedule 1 to the Act). Claims for damages against Public Authorities, other than Human Rights Act claims, do not usually fall within Public Law but may come within Actions Against the Police etc. Claims under the Human Rights Act may well come within both Public Law and Actions Against the Police etc.

Minor Civil/Criminal Overlaps

16. Work falling within the Crime Category is generally excluded from any other category, but there are some minor exceptions:
 - (a) Enforcement proceedings in the magistrates court arising out of the breach of an order of that court made in family proceedings where there is a risk of imprisonment also fall within the Family Category;
 - (b) Civil proceedings in the magistrates' court arising out of the breach of a financial order of that court where there is a risk of imprisonment also fall within the Debt Category;
 - (c) Associated Civil Work as defined in the 2010 Standard Crime Contract" including civil proceedings under the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002;
 - (d) Proceedings against a child for a Sexual Harm Prevention Order and any associated Parenting Order, and for a Parenting Order made on the conviction of a child where the parent cannot be reasonably represented by the child's solicitor also fall within the Family Category.
17. These exceptions can be carried out under the 2013 Standard Civil Contract as well as by criminal practitioners under the 2010 Standard Crime Contract.
