Dear [Name],

Date: 22 September 2015

Thank you for your email received by the Ministry Of Defence on 2nd August 2015 requesting the following information:

I would like to know how many CURRENT trained regular navy personnel are born in Britain, and how many are not born in Britain.

How many of these are full-time recruits into the Royal Navy and how many are on loan from a country temporarily. A breakdown of which countries those who are not from Britain are from (the breakdown indicating whether these are on loan temporarily or not).

I would like to know how many CURRENT trained regular Army personnel are born in Britain, and how many are not born in Britain.

How many of these are full-time recruits into the Army and how many are on loan from a country temporarily. A breakdown of which countries those who are not from Britain are from (the breakdown indicating whether these are on loan temporarily or not).

I would like to know how many CURRENT trained regular RAF personnel are born in Britain, and how many are not born in Britain.

How many of these are full-time recruits into the RAF and how many are on loan from a country temporarily. A breakdown of which countries those who are not from Britain are from (the breakdown indicating whether these are on loan temporarily or not).

Following further communications on 26th August 2015 the request was clarified to be:

As at 1 April 2010 and 1 April 2015,

1) How many current trained Regular Navy/Army/RAF personnel are:
   a) British Nationals
   b) Non-British Nationals

2) Of these trained Regular personnel in the Navy/Army/RAF what is the nationality of those who are not British.
We are treating your correspondence as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

A search for the information has now been completed within the Ministry of Defence, and I can confirm that all the information in scope of your clarified request is held.

Section 44(1)(a) has been applied as the disclosure of some of the information is prohibited by the Statistics and Registration Service Act 2007. Defence Statistics release Diversity Statistics as an Official Statistics publication. In accordance with the Code of Practice for the release of National and Official Statistics, as set out in the 2007 Act, we are unable to provide the data for a Nationality breakdown at 1 April 204 prior to the next statistical release scheduled for 09:30 on 26th November 2015. Section 44 is an absolute exemption and there is therefore no requirement to consider the public interest in making a decision to withhold the information.

Under Section 16 (duty to provide advice and assistance), we have provided the data you requested for the nearest available time point, 1 October 2014. Additionally there is some nationality information available as at 1 April 2015 in the Diversity Dashboard (https://www.gov.uk/government/statistics/mod-diversity-dashboard-2015), however this is for both trained and untrained personnel.

Please find the available information on your request in the attached Excel Workbook (FOI 2015 07313.xlsx).

If you are not satisfied with this response or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of your request, then you should contact me in the first instance. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Information Rights Compliance team, 1st Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-FOI-IR@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 working days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website, https://ico.org.uk/.

Would you like to be added to our contact list, so that we can inform you about updates to our statistical publications covering Military Personnel and consult you if we are thinking of making changes? You can subscribe to updates by emailing DefStrat-Stat-Tri-Enquiries@mod.uk

Yours sincerely,

Defence Statistics (Tri-Service)
