PART 5
RIGHTS OF ENTRY

Section 138
25. After section 138 of the 2005 Act, insert—
“138A Powers of entry and inspection: immigration officers

(1) An immigration officer may, at any time, enter and inspect—
   (a) any licensed premises for the purpose of determining whether an immigration offence is being committed in connection with the carrying on of activities in the premises, or
   (b) any premises (other than licensed premises) if the conditions in subsection (2) are satisfied, for the purpose of determining whether an immigration offence is being committed in connection with the carrying on of activities in the premises.

(2) The conditions referred to in subsection (1)(b) are that—
   (a) food and drink is sold for consumption on the premises, and
   (b) the immigration officer has reason to believe that the premises are premises on which alcohol is sold for consumption on the premises in breach of section 1(1).

(3) Where an immigration officer exercises the power in subsection (1) in relation to any licensed premises, the persons specified in subsection (4) must—
   (a) give the officer such assistance,
   (b) provide the officer with such information, and
   (c) produce to the officer such documents,
    as the officer may reasonably require.

(4) The persons referred to in subsection (3) are—
   (a) the holder of the premises licence,
   (b) in the case of licensed premises in respect of which a premises licence has effect,
       the premises manager, and
   (c) in any case, any person working on the premises at the time the officer is exercising the power.

(5) An immigration officer exercising the power conferred by subsection (1) may, if necessary, use reasonable force.

(6) A person who—
   (a) intentionally obstructs an immigration officer in the exercise of a power under subsection (1), or
   (b) refuses or fails, without reasonable excuse, to comply with a requirement made under subsection (3), commits an offence.

(7) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (6) is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale.

(8) In this section, “immigration officer” means a person appointed as an immigration officer under paragraph 1 of Schedule 2 to the Immigration Act 1971.

(9) In this section, references to “licensed premises” do not include licensed premises in respect of which an occasional licence has effect.”

PART 6

APPEALS

Section 131

26. In section 131 of the Licensing (Scotland) Act 2005 (appeals), after subsection (4) insert—

“(4A) In any proceedings under this section, the sheriff principal or, as the case may be, the sheriff is not entitled to entertain any question as to whether—
(a) a person should be, or should have been, granted leave to enter or remain in the United Kingdom, or
(b) a person has, after the date of the decision being appealed against, been granted leave to enter or remain in the United Kingdom.”

GENERAL

Section 129
27. In section 129(1) (meaning of relevant offence), after subsection (1) insert—
“(1A) In this Act, a “relevant offence” includes an immigration offence (whether or not the immigration offence is specified in regulations made under subsection (1)).”

Section 134
28. In section 134 (form etc. of applications, proposals and notices), after subsection (2) insert—
“(3) Subsection (1) does not apply to a notice mentioned in section 23(8A), 33(7B), 33(7C), 36(2A), 37(2A), 73B(1), 73B(2), 75(7A), 75(7B), 83(2)(b) or 83(5A).”

Section 147
29.—(1) Section 147 of the 2005 Act (interpretation) is amended as follows.
(2) In subsection (1), insert at the appropriate place—
““immigration offence” means an offence under any of the Immigration Acts (within the meaning given by section 61 of the UK Borders Act 2007),”.
(3) After subsection (1) insert—
“(1A) For the purposes of references in this Act to the prevention of illegal working in licensed premises, a person is working illegally if by doing that work at that time the person is committing an offence under section 24B of the Immigration Act 1971.”
(4) After subsection (7), insert—
“(8) In this Act “immigration penalty” means a penalty under—
(a) section 15 of the Immigration, Asylum and Nationality Act 2006 (“the 2006 Act”), or
(b) section 23 of the Immigration Act 2014 (“the 2014 Act”).
(9) For the purposes of this Act an immigration penalty is to be disregarded if—
(a) more than three years have elapsed since the date on which the penalty was imposed, and
(b) the amount of the penalty has been paid in full.
(10) For the purposes of this Act a person to whom a penalty notice under section 15 of the 2006 Act has been given is not to be treated as having been required to pay an immigration penalty if—
(a) the person is excused payment by virtue of section 15(3) of that Act, or
(b) the penalty is cancelled by virtue of section 16 or 17 of that Act.
(11) For the purposes of this Act a person to whom a penalty notice under section 15 of the 2006 Act has been given is not to be treated as having been required to pay an immigration penalty until such time as—
(a) the period for giving a notice of objection under section 16 of that Act has expired and the Secretary of State has considered any notice given within that period, and
(b) if a notice of objection was given within that period, the period for appealing under section 17 of that Act has expired and any appeal brought within that period has been finally determined, abandoned or withdrawn.

(12) For the purposes of this Act a person to whom a penalty notice under section 23 of the 2014 Act has been given is not to be treated as having been required to pay an immigration penalty if—

(a) the person is excused payment by virtue of section 24 of that Act, or

(b) the penalty is cancelled by virtue of section 29 or 30 of that Act.

(13) For the purposes of this Act a person to whom a penalty notice under section 23 of the 2014 Act has been given is not to be treated as having been required to pay an immigration penalty until such time as—

(a) the period for giving a notice of objection under section 29 of that Act has expired and the Secretary of State has considered any notice given within that period, and

(b) if a notice of objection was given within that period, the period for appealing under section 30 of that Act has expired and any appeal brought within that period has been finally determined, abandoned or withdrawn.”

Section 148

30. In section 148 (index of defined expressions), in the table, insert at the appropriate places—

| “entitled to work in the United Kingdom” | section 147(6)” |
| “immigration offence” | section 147(1)” |
| “immigration penalty” | section 147(8)” |
| “working illegally”, in relation to the prevention of illegal working in licensed premises | section 147(1A)” |

TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

31. The amendments of sections 20, 21, 33, 72, 74 and 75 of the 2005 Act made by regulations 5, 6, 9, 15, 17 and 18 respectively do not apply in relation to applications made before the coming into force of the respective regulations.

32. The amendment of section 28(5) of the 2005 Act made by regulation 8(b) does not apply in relation to a premises licence granted pursuant to an application made before the coming into force of that regulation.

33. Regulation 32 does not prevent the amendment made by regulation 8(b) from applying in relation to a premises licence—

(a) granted before the coming into force of that regulation, and

(b) transferred after the coming into force of that regulation.

34. The amendment of section 77(5) of the 2005 Act made by regulation 20 does not apply in relation to a personal licence granted pursuant to an application made before the coming into force of that regulation.

35. Regulation 34 does not prevent the amendment made by regulation 20 from applying in relation to a personal licence—

(a) granted before the coming into force of that regulation, and

(b) renewed after the coming into force of that regulation.
36. The amendment of section 129(1) of the Licensing (Scotland) Act 2005 made by regulation 27 applies on or after the coming into force of that regulation in relation to—

(a) premises licences and personal licences granted before, on or after the coming into force of that regulation, and

(b) offences committed before, on or after the coming into force of that regulation.

EXPLANATORY NOTE
(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations apply to Scotland and amend the Licensing (Scotland) Act 2005 (2005 asp 16) ("the 2005 Act"). They make provision under section 34 of the Immigration Act 2016 (2016 c xx) which has similar effect to the amendments made to the Licensing Act 2003 (2003 c. 17) by Schedule 3 to the 2016 Act.

Part 2 of the Regulations amends section 147 of the 2005 Act (interpretation) to provide a definition of an individual who is entitled to work in the United Kingdom.

Part 3 of the Regulations amends Part 3 of the 2005 Act which deals with premises licences. Regulation 5 amends section 20 of the 2005 Act to provide that an individual who is resident in the UK may not apply for a premises licence unless the individual is entitled to work in the UK. Regulation 6 makes provision that the Secretary of State should be notified of applications for personal licences and regulation 7 that she should be notified of a Licensing Board decision where she has intervened. Regulation 8 amends section 28 of the 2005 Act to provide that a premises licence lapses if the licence holder ceases to be entitled to work in the United Kingdom. Regulation 9 amends section 33 of the 2005 Act to make similar provision in respect of applications for the transfer of a premises licence and regulation 10 amends section 36 of the 2005 Act so that the Secretary of State is notified of applications for a review of a premises licence and a premises licence review proposal.

Part 4 of the Regulations amends Part 6 of the 2005 Act which deals with personal licences. Regulation 15 amends section 72 of the 2005 Act to require a personal licence application to state whether the applicant has been required to pay an immigration penalty and regulation 16 amends section 73A of the 2005 Act to provide for the Secretary of State to be notified of an application for a personal licence.

Regulation 17 amends section 74 of the 2005 Act to make provision for the determination of personal licence applications where the Secretary of State has given an immigration objection notice. Regulation 18 amends section 75 of the 2005 Act to ensure that an applicant must notify a Licensing Board of convictions, including immigration offences, and a requirement to pay an immigration penalty.

Regulation 20 amends section 77(5) of the 2005 Act to provide that a personal licence lapses if the licence holder ceases to be entitled to work in the UK. Regulation 24 amends section 83 of the 2005 Act, which deals with the situation where a Licensing Board receives notice of a requirement to pay an immigration penalty and the procedure to be followed including enabling the Secretary of State to issue an immigration objection notice.

Part 5 of the Regulations adds a new section 138A to the 2005 Act to make provision for immigration officers to enter and inspect licensed premises for the purpose of determining whether an immigration offence is being committed in connection with the carrying on of activities in the premises. It also applies to other premises if food or drink is sold for consumption on the premises.
or there is reason to believe that alcohol is being sold on the premises in breach of section 1(1) of the 2005 Act.

Part 6 of the Regulations amends section 131 of the 2005 Act to provide that on an appeal in relation to a licensing decision, the court cannot entertain any question as to whether a person should be, or should have been, granted leave to enter or remain in the United Kingdom or a person has, after the date of the licensing decision, been granted leave to enter or remain in the United Kingdom.

Part 7 of the Regulations makes consequential amendments to sections 129, 134, 147 and 148 of the 2005 Act.

Part 8 of the Regulations makes transitional provision.
