

Annex A: Arrests and outcomes, year ending December 2015

The flow chart is designed to summarise how individuals who are arrested on suspicion of terrorism-related activity are dealt with throughout the criminal justice system. It follows the process from the point of arrest, through to charge (or other outcome) and prosecution. Detailed information can be found in the 'arrests and outcomes' section of the main bulletin.

Source: Home Office, data tables A.01 to A.07.

Notes:

1. Alternative action includes a number of outcomes, such as cautions, detentions under international arrest warrant, transfer to immigration authorities etc. See table A.03 for a complete list.
2. Terrorism-related charges and convictions include some charges and convictions under non-terrorism legislation, where the offence is considered to be terrorism-related.
3. Includes other cases/outcomes such as cautions, transfers to UK Border Agencies, the offender being circulated as wanted and extraditions.
4. Excludes convictions that were later quashed on appeal.
5. Data presented are based on the latest position with each case as at the date of data provision from NCTPFC (21 January 2016).
