Dear [REDACTED]

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION

Thank you for your email sent to the Scotland Office on 7 March 2012.

You asked for the following information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000:

Which ministers in the Scotland Office have been provided with media training, vocal coaching, public speaking training and/or visual presentation skills training, the dates of any such training, and how much has been spent on such training for each minister, since 12 May 2010?

We have searched our records for the information you requested and can confirm that the Scotland Office has had no expenditure on media or presentational training for Ministers since 12 May 2010.

I hope you find this helpful.

If you are dissatisfied with the decision made in relation to your request you may ask for an internal review. A request for an internal review should be addressed to:

FOI Officer
1 Melville Crescent
EDINBURGH
EH3 7HW

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The contact details are:
